Loving Later Life An Ethics Of Aging:

Loving Later Life Frits de Lange, 2015-04-23 Is loving later life possible In our youth obsessed culture nobody enjoys growing old We normally fear our own aging and generally do not love old people they remind us that death is inescapable the body frail and social status transitory In Loving Later Life Frits de Lange shows how an ethics of love can acknowledge and overcome this fear of aging and change our attitude toward the elderly De Lange reframes the biblical love command this way We must care for the aging other as we care for our own aging selves We can encourage positive self love by embracing life as we age taking good care of our own aging bodies staying good friends with ourselves and valuing the last season of life When we cultivate this kind of self love we are released from our aversion to growing old and set free to care about others who are aging our parents our relatives and others in their final season of life Loving Later Life Frits de Lange, 2015-04-27 Is loving later life possible In our youth obsessed culture nobody enjoys growing old We normally fear our own aging and generally do not love old people they remind us that death is inescapable the body frail and social status transitory In Loving Later Life Frits de Lange shows how an ethics of love can acknowledge and overcome this fear of aging and change our attitude toward the elderly De Lange reframes the biblical love command this way We must care for the aging other as we care for our own aging selves We can encourage positive self love by embracing life as we age taking good care of our own aging bodies staying good friends with ourselves and valuing the last season of life When we cultivate this kind of self love we are released from our aversion to growing old and set free to care about others who are aging our parents our relatives and others in their final season of life Aging and Loving James M. Childs Jr., 2021-06-08 Aging and Loving Christian Faith and Sexuality in Later Life aims to address the social ethical physical and spiritual issues related to sexuality and aging The book is written for various professionals who minister to the aged pastors chaplains other care providers for the aging and aged themselves and for their families The focus is on people sixty five years old and older This is the age group whose sexuality is most vulnerable to being dismissed by those around them It is also the age group that experiences new challenges to their sexual lives as age brings physical and sometimes psychological changes as well as changes in living circumstances To be human is to be sexual Undermining or failing to appreciate that fact in older age can be hurtful Regarding the diminishment of aging as the end of sexuality and therefore the dissipation of fully meaningful life is a critical dimension of ageism To understand the realities of sexuality in later life and the choices older adults face along with providing a theological and ethical account that affirms their sexuality as integral to their humanity and vocation in later life is a curb against ageism and provides much needed information to the aged the aging and their families Equipping those who care for the aging and minister to them is essential The book seeks to enable those related to the aged to have a deeper respect for their sexuality and thus their dignity and to provide an ethical account of Christian love that liberates as it engages the special issues of sexuality in later life Lived Mission in 21st Century Britain Peniel Rajkumar ,Victoria

Turner,2024-10-30 Nearly 30 years after South African missiologist David Bosch explored what he called elements of an emerging ecumenical missionary paradigm Lived Mission in 21st Century Britain propose that there is still work to be done ecumenically for missiology to inhabit rightfully its role as critical friend crosser of boundaries advocate for justice and intellectual ankle biter Bringing together a unique array of contributors the book considers what mission as practice looks like both through the eyes of those who are well established as theologians and reflective practitioners and those who are working on the ground and have written little on their daily lived experience Chapter authors include Jan Nowotnik Graham Adams Shemil Mathew Timothy Boniface Carroll Bisi Adenekan Elizabeth Joy Heather Major Tom Hackett James Woodward Raj Bhara Patta Paul Weller Niall Cooper Lisa Adjei Shermara Fletcher and Anupama Ranawana Light of Setting Suns

Richard L. Morgan,2021-03-01 At age 60 Dr Richard Morgan wrote No Wrinkles on the Soul as he faced the unknowns of aging and felt the need for a book to help himself and others navigate its challenges especially the spiritual ones Now 91 Morgan still faces many unknowns and once again has written a book that describes how it feels to be old and encourages others in the same stage of life The years have taken a toll on my body he writes but my mind and spirit are still young Light of Setting Suns contains stories of people age 90 and beyond who have remained vital and spiritually alive including the author s own experiences Morgan shows how to discover wellness even in years of decline and how these years may be unexpectedly rich and meaningful This book shows readers that even at an advanced age they still have the opportunity to shine with the Spirit Soulful Aging

W. Andrew Achenbaum,2024-07-12 This book seeks to map out the parameters and boundaries of soulful aging and explores philosophical and theological perspectives on the way we grow older It extends work in the behavioural and social sciences which address the diverse and contested connections of older people s inner voices and social relationships Building on qualitative and quantitative research in age studies and gerontology this volume extends concepts and stories that attest to the joys tensions and paradoxes that mount with advancing years From ten authors versed in writing from multi disciplinary and inter professional perspectives with clarity the book conjoins and challenges behavioural thoughts and actions and religious spiritual spheres of late life human development previously presented in the context of positive and productive aging as well as healthful wise and successful Saging Interdisciplinary and insightful Soulful Aging will be a key resource for scholars and researchers of religion theology philosophy psychology gerontology and sociology It was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Religion Spirituality Aging Seven

Days of Faith, 2d Edition R. Paul Stevens,2021-10-07 These days people talk about their schedules filling up 24 7 twenty four hours a day seven days a week We wear busyness like a merit badge as if the more we do the better we become But R Paul Stevens says this is not biblical Nor is it helpful For Christians life isn t about checking off to do lists It s about connecting with God and infiltrating thoughtful biblical faith into our everyday lives Sometimes that means activity but sometimes not Everyday spirituality the subject of the book embraces purposeful times of work relationships and rest centered on God instead of personal or cultural expectations But how can you do it It s not easy exiting the fast track to practice a slowed down yet down to earth holiness Stevens understands this and offers practical insights to developing a subversive spirituality a meaningful faith that seeps into your work family sexuality friendships outreach aloneness and leisure and fills you with joy But most importantly it motivates you to lovingly abide with God seven days a week Matthew the Poor an Eastern monk in Egypt once said that life is but one single way that leads to the kingdom of God T&T Clark Handbook of Christian Ethics Tobias Winright,2020-12-10 The T T Clark Handbook of Christian Ethics provides an ecumenical introduction to Christian ethics its sources methods and applications With contributions by theological ethicists known for their excellence in scholarship and teaching the essays in this volume offer fresh purchase on and an agenda for the discipline of Christian ethics in the 21st century The essays are organized in three sections following an introduction that presents the four font approach and elucidates why it is critically employed through these subsequent sections The first section explores the sources of Christian ethics including each of the four fonts scripture tradition experience and reason The second section examines fundamental or basic elements of Christian ethics and covers different methods approaches and voices in doing Christian ethics such as natural law virtue ethics conscience responsibility narrative worship and engagement with other religions The third section addresses current moral issues in politics medicine economics ecology criminal justice and other related spheres from the perspective of Christian ethics including war genetics neuroethics end of life decisions marriage family work sexuality nonhuman animals migration aging policing incarceration capital punishment and more The Routledge Handbook of Philosophy of Sex and Sexuality Brian D. Earp,Clare Chambers,Lori Watson,2022-05-23 This Handbook covers the most urgent controversial and important topics in the philosophy of sex It is both philosophically rigorous and yet accessible to specialists and non specialists covering ethics political philosophy metaphysics the philosophy of science and the philosophy of language and featuring interactions with neighboring disciplines such as psychology bioethics sociology and anthropology The volume s 40 chapters written by an international team of both respected senior researchers and essential emerging scholars are divided into eight parts I What is Sex Is Sex Good II Sexual Orientations III Sexual Autonomy and Consent IV Regulating Sexual Relationships V Pathologizing Sex and Sexuality VI Contested Desires VII Objectification and Commercialized Sex VIII Technology and the Future of Sex The broad scope of coverage depth in insight and research and accessibility in language make The Routledge Handbook of Philosophy of Sex and Sexuality a comprehensive introduction for newcomers to the subject as well as an invaluable reference work for advanced students and researchers in the field Growing Old Gracefully Robert M. Solomon,2022-03-22 Growing old doesn t have to be just about frailties loneliness and loss of purpose Veteran pastor Robert Solomon offers a fresh perspective of aging and looks at how you can continue to grow with God in your autumn years Discover how you can keep your eyes firmly on Jesus as you nurture habits and disciplines that will enable you to build redemptive relationships and cope with the physical mental and emotional challenges of aging Useful insights into aging are presented in short chapters in an easy to read large print devotional format

Contemporary European Perspectives on the Ethics of End of Life Care Nathan Emmerich, Pierre Mallia, Bert Gordijn, Francesca Pistoia, 2020-05-12 This book examines the ethics of end of life care focusing on the kinds of decisions that are commonly made in clinical practice Specific attention is paid to the intensification of treatment for terminal symptoms particularly pain relief and the withdrawal and withholding of care particularly life saving or life prolonging medical care The book is structured into three sections The first section contains essays examining end of life care from the perspective of moral theory and theology The second sets out various conceptual terms and distinctions relevant to decision making at the end of life The third section contains chapters that focus on substantive ethical issues This format not only provides for a comprehensive analysis of the ethical issues that arise in the context of end of life care but allows readers to effectively trace the philosophical theological and conceptual underpinnings that inform their specific interests This work will be of interest to scholars working in the area as well as clinicians specialists and healthcare professionals who encounter these issues in the course of their practice

The Evening of Life Joseph E. Davis, Paul Scherz, 2020-09-30 Although philosophy religion and civic cultures used to help people prepare for aging and dying well this is no longer the case Today aging is frequently seen as a problem to be solved and death as a harsh reality to be masked In part our cultural confusion is rooted in an inadequate conception of the human person which is based on a notion of absolute individual autonomy that cannot but fail in the face of the dependency that comes with aging and decline at the end of life To help correct the ethical impoverishment at the root of our contemporary social confusion The Evening of Life provides an interdisciplinary examination of the challenges of aging and dying well It calls for a re envisioning of cultural concepts practices and virtues that embraces decline dependency and finitude rather than stigmatizes them Bringing together the work of sociologists anthropologists philosophers theologians and medical practitioners this collection of essays develops an interrelated set of conceptual tools to discuss the current challenges posed to aging and dying well such as flourishing temporality narrative and friendship Above all it proposes a positive understanding of thriving in old age that is rooted in our shared vulnerability as human beings It also suggests how some of these tools and concepts can be deployed to create a medical system that better responds to our contemporary needs The Evening of Life will interest bioethicists medical practitioners clinicians and others involved in the care of the aging and dying Contributors Joseph E Davis Sharon R Kaufman Paul Scherz Wilfred M McClay Kevin Aho Charles Guignon Bryan S Turner Janelle S Taylor Sarah L Szanton Janiece Taylor and Justin Mutter

God, Evil, and Suffering in Islam Salih Sayilgan, 2023-10-26 In this volume Salih Sayilgan explores the problem of evil and suffering in Islamic theology along with the questions that both religious and non religious people alike perennially ask Why is there evil and suffering What is God's role in both natural and moral evil If God is loving just powerful why is there innocent suffering Do humans have free will or are they predestined to act in a certain way Examining both theoretical and practical theodicy in Islam he provides Muslim perspectives on natural and moral evil in light of Islamic theological concepts Sayilgan interrogates several specific topics related to evil and suffering including death sickness aging disability climate change and pandemics These topics are explored through case studies from the lives of Muslims with particular attention given to the American context A comparative and dialogical study Sayilgan's volume also engages with Zoroastrian Hindu Buddhist Jewish and Christian approaches as well as non religious perspectives This title is part of the Flip it Open Programme and may also be available Open Access Check our website Cambridge Core for details

Aging and Human Nature Mark Schweda, Michael Coors, Claudia Bozzaro, 2020-01-11 This book focuses on ageing as a topic of philosophical theological and historical anthropology It provides a systematic inventory of fundamental theoretical questions and assumptions involved in the discussion of ageing and old age What does it mean for human beings to grow old and become more vulnerable and dependent How can we understand the manifestations of ageing and old age in the human body How should we interpret the processes of change in the temporal course of a human life What impact does old age have on the social dimensions of human existence In order to tackle these questions the volume brings together internationally distinguished scholars from the fields of philosophy theology cultural studies social gerontology and ageing studies The collection of their original articles makes a twofold contribution to contemporary academic discourse On one hand it helps to clarify and deepen our understanding of ageing and old age by examining it from the fundamental point of view of philosophical theological and historical anthropology At the same time it also enhances and expands the discourses of philosophical theological and historical anthropology by systematically taking into account that human beings are essentially ageing creatures

Theological Ethics and Moral Value Phenomena Steven C. van den Heuvel, Patrick Nullens, Angela Roothaan, 2017-09-22 The experience of moral values is often side lined in discussions about moral reasoning and yet our values define a large part of our moral motives standards and expectations Theological Ethics and Moral Value Phenomena explores whether the experience of a meeting point of the immanent and the transcendent i.e. the moral self and God can be the source of our values The book starts by arguing for a greater theological engagement with value ethics personalism and the phenomenological method by drawing on thinkers such as Max Scheler and William James It then provides an understanding of the social and religious dimension of the valuing person demonstrating the importance of the emotional as well as the cognitive dimension of value experience Finally this value perspective is utilised to engage with current moral issues such as professional ethics environmental ethics economical ethics and family ethics Integrating the concepts of religious experience moral motivation and subjective and objective value within a broad framework of Christian theology and philosophy this is vital reading for any scholar of Theology and Philosophy with an interest in ethics and moral reasoning
