Grief And Loss Support Group Facilitators Manual:

Grief and Loss Support Group Facilitator's Manual Susan Hansen, Susan Hansen M S, 2015-05-31 Susan Hansen's Grief and Loss Support Group Facilitator's Manual contains everything a group leader needs to facilitate a 10 week grief and loss support group for students or clients ages 12 to adult. The manual includes step by step activities, detailed lesson plans, handouts, support group guidelines, tips for effective group facilitation, a sample group flyer, and parent permission slip and ASCA standards for those who are facilitating a school based support group. The group sessions include a discussion of different types of losses, a loss checklist, the five stages of grief, five steps to take in addressing a loss, unsent letter templates, grab bag questions and suggestions for creating a collage or other artwork to facilitate the healing process. For those who already own Susan's earlier resource book Tools For Your Emotional Health Toolbox, this manual includes updated lesson plans, objectives, standards, handouts, and an easier to read font for all materials. Jimerson, Ann Gaasch, 2012-12-06 The Grief Support Group Curriculum provides a basis for assisting children and teenagers as they learn about mourning through facing death of a close or special friend. The aim of this curriculum is to facilitate healthy variations of mourning and positive adaptations following the death of a friend or family member. The work illustrates mourning in four stages of development and is accordingly divided into four separate texts. The texts focus on preschool aged children, children in kindergarten through grade two, children in grades three through six, and teenagers. Bereavement Support Group Program for Children Beth Haasl, Jean Marnocha, 2000 First Published in 2000, Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis, an informa company. Bereavement Support Group Program for Children Beth Haasl, Jean Marnocha, 2014-05-22 Derived from years of actual experience in conducting bereavement support groups with grieving children, this unique program offers direct advice and tools for creating and conducting your own bereavement support group for children. The Leader Manual gives step by step instructions for establishing the support group along with activities for each individual session. The manual discusses the rationale and objectives behind bereavement programs, explains common grief reactions of children, and provides several techniques and skills that are particularly effective in grief counseling. The accompanying Participant Workbook contains worksheets for daily activities and thus allows participants to see the program content in written form while increasing communication with parents or guardians through the exchange of personal and emotional information. The workbook fosters participant interaction with its series of activity specific worksheets which require written comments and drawings. The which require written comments and drawings. The six step program is designed for children between the ages of 6 and 15 and contains sections devoted to death and grief feelings and self esteem expression of grief memories funerals and healing and coping skills The new edition includes an expanded number of sessions to accommodate the need for a lengthier healing process a new session entitled Expression of Grief which encourages participants to express their feelings and which reassures bereaved children that they are not isolated in their experiences and feelings new and revised activities appear throughout the leader manual including Death Experience Discussion Picture of Life Death Feelings Bingo Funeral Story and Telling about Your Death Experience The participant workbook includes an updated and expanded bibliography section in each session Leader Manual This manual provides rationale and objectives procedures for establishing the program grief reactions counseling

Grief and Loss Katherine Walsh, 2021-11-16 Loss is a part of every life and grief related to loss is inescapable It can result in distress that impacts work learning rehabilitation spiritual beliefs social relationships health mental health and well being Helping professionals who encounter grief reactions in multiple settings are often not trained to identify and respond to the many complex grief related problems of clients Without the opportunity to learn how to assess and address grief many may lack confidence in acknowledging loss and providing effective support Although grieving is an extremely painful part of life integration and adjustment are possible and meaning can be made from loss Readers will find many examples from caring and resilient students interdisciplinary professionals teachers clients and family members who have learned to make meaning from loss The content of the third edition has been significantly influenced by the COVID 19 pandemic the opioid addiction crisis and increased awareness of racial trauma and injustice The book provides a foundation for understanding assessing and responding effectively to grief and loss The content is designed for students and professionals who find themselves working in proximity to loss trauma and grief in various capacities educator advocate case manager counselor mental health and health care provider and more The work is vitally important and the rewards for helping others cope with grief and loss are substantial
