Early Years Pedagogy in Practice Ruksana Beigi, 2020-07-20 This accessible text encourages readers to understand and confidently engage with distinctive early years pedagogy. It shows how pedagogy not only underpins the early years curriculum but is also inherent in the role of the adult and the experiences that are offered to young children. The book explains what the differing early years pedagogies are, why they are encouraged, and the knowledge, skills, and practice that are required to work with them. Emphasising that what works in one situation may not in another, and a wider pedagogical knowledge is essential to ensure quality outcomes for children, it considers key topics such as the role of the pedagogue and developing your own style, promoting a lifelong love of learning in children, under your care, sensitivity and inclusion for all children's cultures and communities, promoting the rights of every child under your care, incorporating reflection points and research tasks to support independent learning. This is essential reading for students on Early Childhood Studies courses and Early Years Foundation Degrees as well as early years practitioners.

Contemporary Perspectives on Play in Early Childhood Education Olivia Saracho, Bernard Spodek, 2003-02-01

Immigration and Children's Literature Wilma Robles-Melendez, Audrey Henry, 2023-06-29 This book explores the issues faced by immigrant children through the lens of children's literature. The authors employ the UN convention of the Rights of the Child, the lens of equity, and Freire's principles of critical consciousness as a framework for analysing children's literature and immigration. They focus on circumstances and experiences of immigration from the perspective of young children who are leaving their homelands and growing up as immigrants. The book focuses primarily on children from birth to 8 years old but with crossover and implications for older children. The chapters reveal the social, economic, and political issues faced by child immigrants, refugees, and asylees throughout the global context, viewed through and alongside children's literature. The book provides suggestions for the implementation of children's literature in the curriculum and provides tools for educators and researchers working with immigrant and refugee children, showing how they can better understand their students and families. A variety of children's literature is covered, including analysis of works by Jairo Buitrago, Yanksook Choi, Sandra leGuen, Rosemary McCartney, Bao Phi, and Jeanette Winter.

What If All the Kids are White? Louise Derman-Sparks, Patricia G. Ramsey, 2006 In this compelling volume, distinguished educators tackle a frequently asked question about multicultural education: How do I teach about racial and cultural diversity if all my students are white? The authors propose seven learning themes to help young white children resist messages of racism and build identity and skills for thriving in a multicultural country and world. The text includes strategies, resources, and classroom examples for implementing the learning themes in early childhood settings. Taking multicultural education to a new level, this practical guide places the development of white children's racial identity in the context of the historical construction of whiteness and racism in America and suggests strategies for nurturing a new white identity as the starting place for anti-bias multicultural work with children.
