Malleable Māra Michael D. Nichols, 2019-02-14

2019 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title This is the first book to examine the development of the figure of M ra who appears across Buddhist traditions as a personification of death and desire Portrayed as a combination of god and demon M ra serves as a key antagonist to the Buddha his followers and Buddhist teaching in general From ancient India to later Buddhist thought in East Asia to more recent representations in Western culture and media M ra has been used to satirize Hindu divinities taken the form of wrathful Tibetan gods communicated psychoanalytic tropes and appeared as a villain in episodes of Doctor Who

Michael D Nichols details and surveys the historical transformations of the M ra figure and demonstrates how different Buddhist communities at different times have used this symbol to react to changing social and historical circumstances Employing literary and cultural theory Nichols argues that the representation of M ra closely parallels and reflects the social concerns and anxieties of the particular Buddhist community producing it

Contemplative Caregiving John Eric Baugher, 2019-04-16 Integrating two decades of hospice care and social science research this heartfelt book offers practical lessons on the transformative possibilities of end of life caregiving

Contemplative Caregiving is an indispensable guide for end of life caregivers and for anyone seeking to transform experiences of caregiving and grief Rather than leading to burnout and despair caring for those who are suffering and dying can enrich our lives with meaning and further our own spiritual growth and resilience Whether you are caring for a loved one with cancer or dementia grieving a sudden traumatic loss or even serving time in prison Contemplative Caregiving offers encouragement for showing up to the fullness of life in whatever those circumstances may be

Healing compassion and spiritual growth are available to us all in this lifetime right now

Baugher s unique style of integrating social scientific research on caregiving and grief with teachings from Buddhist contemplative Christian and other wisdom traditions illuminates how we each can transform experiences of loss and suffering into a path of compassion

Contemplative Caregiving weaves together powerful stories from interviews with diverse hospice caregivers Vietnam veterans nurses housewives Catholic nuns those convicted of murder with the author s own journey toward wholeness in the face of grief and traumatic loss including the murder of his own mother Through rich storytelling teachings on compassion and skillful contemplative exercises Baugher invites you to join him in exploring the healing power of contemplative caregiving

Not for Ourselves Alone Lauri Hallman, Burton D. Carley, 2014 These twelve

essays from Unitarian Universalist leaders emerge as part of a movement in the faith from focusing on individual identity to relational connectedness Through personal stories and thoughtful reflections the contributors describe how we might grow our souls through our connections with one another and with the Holy They invite us to move beyond the age old theological question Who am I and ask instead Whose are we This new emphasis suggests that we are all part of something larger something that both includes us and transcends us Group exercises and journaling prompts accompany the essays making this an ideal resource for use in congregational settings or small gatherings Helping us to be more vulnerable with one another and to express things not easily defined in precise ways Not for Ourselves Alone offers fertile new ways for Unitarian Universalists to grow in the life of the spirit
