Hardcore Punk in the Age of Reagan Robert Fitzgerald, 2025-05-27 Few politicians produced the musical reaction that Ronald Reagan did His California branded conservatism inspired countless young people to pick up guitars and thrash out their political angst Punk bands across the United States took aim at the man his presidency and the idea of America he was selling to voters nationwide Small yet vibrant scenes across the country emerged to challenge the communal norms and social values projected on them by the popular media and consumer culture Punk enthusiast Robert Fitzgerald argues that these songs lyrics aren't just catchy and fun to scream along with they also reveal the thoughts and feelings of artists reacting to their political environment in real forthright and uncensored time In candid detail Fitzgerald shows how these lyrics illustrated what young adults felt and how they reacted to one of the most influential and divisive leaders of the era Punk lyrics are seemingly simple the author argues but they sketch out a complex musically inspired countermovement that is as canonical in the American songbook as the folk and rock protest music that came before

The Hardcore Rhetoric M.R. Treez, 2016-01-15 Living among the loving Im lucky to have even one person in my life who loves me Some can go their entire lives without being loved The world is plagued by people who dont even know how to care for others much less themselves For the generations ahead its up to them to remember compassion It took me entirely too long to figure out precisely why its important to love yourself With all the different perspectives out there growing up the one I seemed to deny most was my own Was my decision to disregard my personal needs and wants my own or was it programmed into my behavior through some conduit of influence When I asked myself this I began to see the universe in a different way The universe can communicate with us and sometimes that communication comes though as forms of irony This irony can deliver opportunities to better ourselves and its up to us to exploit them
