home prisoners serve as entertainment for wealthy party guests an army officer suffers a monstrous tropical illness These short stories contain some of the most groundbreaking and innovative writing in Dutch literature from 1915 to the present day with most pieces appearing here in English for the first time Blending unforgettable snapshots of the realities of everyday life with surrealism fantasy and subversion this collection shows Dutch writing to be an integral part of world literary history Joost Zwagerman 1963 2015 was a novelist poet essayist and editor of several anthologies He started his career as a writer with bestselling novels describing the atmosphere of the 1980s and 1990s such as Gimmick 1988 and False Light 1991 In later years he concentrated on writing essays notably on pop culture and visual arts and poetry Suicide was the theme of the novel Six Stars 2002 He took his own life just after having published a new collection of essays on art The Museum of Light

The Cinema of the Low Countries Ernest Mathijs, 2004 Films from the Netherlands Belgium and Luxembourg have long been regarded as isolated texts The Cinema of the Low Countries points to the interconnectedness between these national cinemas from the point of view of genre language and format and their local and international importance by explicitly focusing on 24 key feature films and documentaries from the region Building on each film's relationship with its particular cultural context this volume presents twenty four specially commissioned essays that explore the particular significance and influence of a wide range of exemplary films Covering the work of internationally acclaimed directors such as Joris Ivens Henri Stock Paul Verhoeven and the Dardenne Brothers and featuring the films Turkish Delight The Vanishing Daughters of Darkness Rosetta Soldiers of Orange and Man Bites Dog this collection offers an original approach to the appreciation of a diverse and increasingly important regional cinema

Spirit of Resistance Jeroen Dewulf, 2010 The first book to offer a complete story of the extraordinary proliferation of Dutch clandestine literature under the Nazi occupation Clandestine literature was published in all countries under Nazi occupation but nowhere else did it flourish as it did in the Netherlands This raises important questions What was the content of this literature What were the risks of writing printing selling and buying it And why the Netherlands Traditionally the combative Dutch spirit of resistance has been cited a reaction not only to German oppression but to German propaganda while the Germans hoped to build bonds with their Germanic Dutch brothers clandestine literature insisted on their incompatibility However when reading clandestine literature one should not forget that this spirit of resistance came rather late and did not prevent the transportation of seventy three percent of the Netherlands Jewish population to Nazi death camps the largest percentage in Western Europe The Dutch case is complex while the country proved to be remarkably resistant to Nazi propaganda little was done to prevent the actual execution of Nazi policies The complete story of Dutch clandestine literature therefore combines resistance and complicity victory and defeat pride and shame Jeroen Dewulf is Queen Beatrix Professor of Dutch Studies in the Department of German at the University of California Berkeley literature Uitgelezen 21 A. Bosboom,1974 Long Shadows Petra Rau,2016-05-31 Few countries attribute as much importance to the Second World War and its memory as Britain arguably nowhere else has this conflict developed such longevity in cultural memory and retained such presence in contemporary culture Long Shadows is about how literature and film have helped shape this process in Britain More precisely the essays collected here suggest that this is a continuous work in progress subject to transgenerational revisions political expediencies commercial considerations and the vicissitudes of popular taste It would indeed be more accurate to speak of the meanings plural that the war has been given at various moments in British cultural life These semantic variations and fluctuations in cultural import are rooted in the specificity of the British war experience in the political aftermath of the war in Europe and in its significance for Britain's postwar position on the global stage In other words the books and films discussed in these essays respond to how the war has been interpreted and remembered what is at stake is the way in which the war has been emplotted as a hegemonic cultural narrative about Britain The Facts on File Companion to the World Novel Michael Sollars,Arbolina Llamas Jennings,2008
