Love At Goon Park Harry Harlow And The Science Of Affection:

Love at Goon Park Deborah Blum, 2011-07-05 In the early twentieth century affection between parents and their children was discouraged psychologists thought it would create needy kids and doctors thought it would spread infectious disease It took a revolution in psychology to overturn these beliefs and prove that touch ensures emotional and intellectual health In Love at Goon Park Pulitzer Prize winner Deborah Blum charts this profound cultural shift by tracing the story of Harry Harlow the man who studied neglect and its life altering consequences on primates in his lab The biography of both a man and an idea Love at Goon Park ultimately invites us to examine ourselves and the way we love Love at Goon Park

Deborah L. Blum, 2003 Deborah Blum examines the history of love through the lens of its strangest unsung hero a brilliant fearless alcoholic psychologist named Harry Frederick Harlow Pursuing the idea that human affection could be understood studied even measured Harlow 1905 1981 arrived at his conclusions by conducting research sometimes beautiful sometimes horrible on the primates in his University of Wisconsin laboratory Paradoxically his darkest experiments may have the brightest legacy for by studying neglect and its life altering consequences Harlow confirmed love s central role in shaping not only how we feel but also how we think The Nature & Nurture of Love Marga Vicedo, 2022-12-22 The notion that maternal care and love will determine a child s emotional well being and future personality has become ubiquitous In countless stories and movies we find that the problems of the protagonists anything from the fear of romantic commitment to serial killing stem from their troubled relationships with their mothers during childhood How did we come to hold these views about the determinant power of mother love over an individual s emotional development And what does this vision of mother love entail for children and mothers In The Nature and Nurture of Love Marga Vicedo examines scientific views about children s emotional needs and mother love from World War II until the 1970s paying particular attention to John Bowlby s ethological theory of attachment behavior Vicedo tracks the development of Bowlby s work as well as the interdisciplinary research that he used to support his theory including Konrad Lorenz s studies of imprinting in geese Harry Harlow s experiments with monkeys and Mary Ainsworth s observations of children and mothers in Uganda and the United States Vicedo s historical analysis reveals that important psychoanalysts and animal researchers opposed the project of turning emotions into biological instincts Despite those substantial criticisms she argues that attachment theory was paramount in turning mother love into a biological need This shift introduced a new justification for the prescriptive role of biology in human affairs and had profound and negative consequences for mothers and for the valuation of mother love

Untethered Doug Bolton, Ph.D., 2025-03-18 An essential guide to restoring our children s behavioral health and wellbeing Over the past decade children s mental health challenges have reached epidemic levels stress anxiety childhood depression and suicide are at unprecedented high rates Amid high stakes pressure for kids to succeed parents and teachers have never needed a road map to healthy child development more urgently And as psychologist and educator Doug Bolton explains in this eye opening and powerful guide underlying our modern day stresses is an even more pervasive problem We re relying on practices that are not in line with what science tells us about how to truly motivate children and help them thrive As Bolton persuasively argues we need to step away from parenting and teaching based on controlling our children with incentives and punishments they focus on short term compliance at the cost of health development Instead creating healthy and strongly bonded communities for our children both in our own families and in our schools is key to their emotional well being and their success in life Untethered offers tools to help us create these communities so our kids develop healthy attachments and learn emotional regulation helping them feel more connected less anxious more included less shamed and more securely grounded The power of communities is not only that they enhance our wellness they buffer us from the impact of trauma and can be a guiding force in helping kids develop resilience Weaving in Bolton s own experiences as a former principal at a therapeutic school and as a father Untethered is a deeply empathetic and powerful guide to combating the isolation we see in this generation today leading them toward a healthier more interconnected future

History and Its Limits Dominick LaCapra, 2011-02-23 Dominick LaCapra's History and Its Limits articulates the relations among intellectual history cultural history and critical theory examining the recent rise of Practice Theory and probing the limitations of prevalent forms of humanism LaCapra focuses on the problem of understanding extreme cases specifically events and experiences involving violence and victimization He asks how historians treat and are simultaneously implicated in the traumatic processes they attempt to represent In addressing these questions he also investigates violence's impact on various types of writing and establishes a distinctive role for critical theory in the face of an insufficiently discriminating aesthetic of the sublime often unreflectively amalgamated with the uncanny In History and Its Limits LaCapra inquires into the related phenomenon of a turn to the postsecular even the messianic or the miraculous in recent theoretical discussions of extreme events by such prominent figures as Giorgio Agamben Eric L Santner and Slavoj Žižek In a related vein he discusses Martin Heidegger's evocative if not enchanting understanding of The Origin of the Work of Art LaCapra subjects to critical scrutiny the sometimes internally divided way in which violence has been valorized in sacrificial regenerative or redemptive terms by a series of important modern intellectuals on both the far right and the far left including Georges Sorel the early Walter Benjamin Georges Bataille Frantz Fanon and Ernst Jünger Violence and victimization are prominent in the relation between the human and the animal LaCapra questions prevalent anthropocentrism evident even in theorists of the posthuman and the long standing quest for a decisive criterion separating or dividing the human from the animal LaCapra regards this attempt to fix the difference as misguided and potentially dangerous because it renders insufficiently problematic the manner in which humans treat other animals and interact with the environment In raising the issue of desirable transformations in modernity History and Its Limits examines the legitimacy of normative limits necessary for life in common and explores the disconcerting role of transgressive initiatives beyond limits including limits blocking the recognition that humans are themselves animals
