Lovers Wartime 1944 1945 Insights:

Lovers in Wartime, 1944 to 1945 Vaughn Davis Bornet, 2015 After meeting and falling in love in during America s Pacific War with Japan in 1944 Navy lieutenant Vaughn Davis Bornet and Mary Elizabeth Winchester stayed connected with love letters as he performed his duties as Barracks Officer at Naval Air Station Alameda California and she began her year as president of the senior class at the University of Nevada Reno One hundred fifty three of their letters are reproduced here along with twelve essays that illustrate the background of chaos and devastation of the war that always threatened to cut their love affair short

New Insights into the Language and Cognition Interface Rafał Augustyn, Agnieszka Mierzwińska-Hajnos, 2018-11-16 This book brings together on the one hand theoretical assumptions in cognitive linguistics and on the other empirical studies on language It portrays in a compact manner the latest state of the dynamically changing research in five areas of cognitive explorations of language including conceptual blending discourse and narratology multimodality linguistic creativity and construction grammar These are shown mainly from the perspective of two languages Polish and English The volume will be of essential value to both students and scholars as well as anyone interested in the application of current trends developed within cognitive linguistics to the empirical study of language and language related phenomena

American Women Writers, 1900-1945 Laurie Champion, 2000-09-30 Women writers have been traditionally excluded from literary canons and not until recently have scholars begun to rediscover or discover for the first time neglected women writers and their works This reference includes alphabetically arranged entries on 58 American women authors who wrote between 1900 and 1945 Each entry is written by an expert contributor and discusses a particular author s biography her major works and themes and the critical response to her writings The entries close with extensive primary and secondary bibliographies and the volume concludes with a list of works for further reading The period surveyed by this reference is rich and diverse Modernism and the Harlem Renaissance two major artistic movements occurred between 1900 and 1945 and the entries included here demonstrate the significant contributions women made to these movements The volume as a whole strives to reflect the diversity of American culture and includes entries for African American Native American Mexican American and Chinese American women It includes well known writers such as Willa Cather and Eudora Welty along with more neglected ones such as Anita Scott Coleman and Sui Sin Far

Life and Death in the Central Highlands James T. Gillam, 2010 Drafted into the Army in 1968 Gillam transformed from an uncertain sergeant to an aggressive soldier serving in Vietnam and Cambodia As a regular point man and occasional tunnel rat who fought below ground the killing became close range and brutal Gillam left the Army in 1970 and he was once again a college student and destined to become a university professor

Conflict Landscapes Nicholas J. Saunders, Paul Cornish, 2021-06-24 Conflict Landscapes explores the long under acknowledged and under investigated aspects of where and how modern conflict landscapes interact and conjoin with pre twentieth century places activities and beliefs as well as with individuals and groups Investigating and understanding the often unpredictable power and legacies of landscapes that have seen and often still viscerally embody the consequences of mass death and destruction the book shows through these landscapes the power of destruction to preserve refocus and often reconfigure the past Responding to the complexity of modern conflict the book offers a coherent integrated and sensitized hybrid approach which calls on different disciplines where they overlap in a shared common terrain Dealing with issues such as memory identity emotion and wellbeing the chapters tease out the human experience of modern conflict and its relationship to landscape Conflict Landscapes will appeal to a wide range of disciplines involved in studying conflict such as archaeology anthropology material culture studies art history cultural history cultural geography military history and heritage and museum studies Traditions and Innovations in the Study of Medieval English Literature Charlotte Brewer, Barry A. Mihail Sebastian, 2003 Mihail Sebastian was a promising young Jewish writer in pre war Bucharest a novelist playwright poet and journalist who counted among his friends the leading intellectuals and social luminaries of a sophisticated Eastern European culture Because of Romania's opportunistic treatment of Jews he survived the war and the Holocaust only to be killed in a road accident early in 1945 His remarkable diary was published only recently in its original language and is here translated into English for the first time Sebastian's Journal offers not only a chronicle of the darkest years of European anti-Semitism but a lucid and finely shaded analysis of erotic and social life a reader's notebook and a music lover's journal Above all it is a measured but blistering account of the major Romanian intellectuals Sebastian's friends writers and thinkers who were mesmerised by the Nazi fascist delirium of Europe's reactionary revolution In poignant and memorable sequences Sebastian touches on the progression of the machinery of brutalisation and on the historical context that lay behind it One of the most remarkable literary achievements of the Nazi period Sebastian's journal vividly captures the now vanished world of pre war Bucharest Under the pressure of hatred and horror in the huge anti-Semitic factory that was Romania in the years of World War II his writing maintains the grace of its intelligence standing as one of the most important human and literary documents to survive from a singular era of terror and despair The War and Its Shadow Helen Graham, 2012 In Spain today the civil war remains the past that will not pass away The author explores the origins nature and long term consequences of this exterminatory war in Spain charting the resonant forms of political social and cultural resistance to it and the memory legacy these have left behind in Europe and beyond New York Magazine, 1994-03-14 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Grand Improvisation Derek Leebeart, 2024-05-01 A new understanding of the postwar power struggle between the fading British Empire and the rising American superpower with insights for today Riveting The Wall Street Journal An enduring myth of the twentieth century is that the United States rapidly became a superpower in the years after World War II when the British Empire the greatest in history was too wounded to maintain a global presence In fact Derek Leebeart argues in Grand Improvisation the idea that a traditionally insular United States suddenly transformed itself into the leader of the free world is illusory as is the notion that the British colossus was compelled to retreat The United States and the U K had a dozen abrasive years until Washington issued a declaration of independence from British influence Only then did America explicitly assume leadership of the world order just taking shape Leebeart's character driven narrative shows such figures as Churchill Truman Eisenhower and Kennan in an entirely new light while unveiling players of at least equal weight on pivotal events Little unfolded as historians believe the Truman Doctrine and the Marshall Plan the Korean War America's descent into Vietnam Instead we see nonstop US improvisation until America finally lost all caution and embraced obligations worldwide a burden we bear today Understanding all of this properly is vital to understanding the rise and fall of superpowers why we're now skeptical of commitments overseas how the Middle East plunged into disorder why Europe is fracturing what China intends and the ongoing perils to the US world role A sturdy exploration of the lesser known aspects of the Cold War focusing on the rivalry between allies as much as enemies Kirkus Reviews Rich with revealing details anecdotes and brilliantly wrought portraits of the key personalities Lively and entertaining this book will change the way we look at the immediate postwar years Liaquat Ahamed Pulitzer Prize winning author of Lords of Finance Passivity, Resistance, and Collaboration Poshek Fu, 1993 Focusing on the intellectual life of Shanghai under occupation Fu describes Chinese responses to the Japanese Occupation of 1937-45 The Texas Outlook, 1945 Twentieth-century Britain F.
