Edward Gross,Mark A. Altman,2016-06-28 Volume one of a fifty year oral history of Star Trek by the people who were there in their own words sharing never before told stories      Pure Jared Stearns,2024-04-22 The untold story of the world s most famous X rated star who rose to fame as the face of Ivory Snow and the star of Behind the Green Door but struggled to find her true self in a world of sex scandal and shattered dreams Marilyn Chambers was the embodiment of the free spirited Seventies the world s most famous X rated star and an unappreciated talent whose work in adult films hindered her dreams of becoming a serious actress Raised in an affluent Connecticut suburb Marilyn catapulted to fame when it was learned that not only had she starred in the groundbreaking X rated film Behind the Green Door but was also the model on the box of Ivory Snow laundry detergent product tagline 99 44 100% Pure Marilyn was the first woman known primarily for her work in adult films to cross over to mainstream entertainment She sustained a versatile three decade career in entertainment including roles in dramatic plays a Broadway musical revue her own television show and the lead role in David Cronenberg s film Rabid But her success in adult films also proved to be her undoing Marred by a violent relationship with her abusive husband manager Chuck Traynor she developed the persona of a twenty four hour a day sex star In the process she lost her sense of self and spent much of her life searching for her true identity With recollections from family and friends many of whom have never spoken publicly along with Marilyn s own words and never before published photos Jared Stearns vividly captures the revolutionary career of one of the twentieth century s most misunderstood icons

The Versatility of Chairs Edward Pizzella,2014-12-30 This book is about the struggles of Italian immigrants in Hartford Connecticut back in the 1930 s and growing up as the son of Italian immigrants It s about coping with poverty and a hostile environment and surviving It s about family love parenting and instilling sound principles in our young It s about self reliance and self esteem establishing worthy goals and working hard and applying raw determination to attain those goals It s about the importance of education and the need to become directly involved in local government and community affairs It s about laughing learning and improvising It s about community theatre about searching for and developing hidden talents about devoting untold quantities of energy and applying imagination and fantasy to the creation of theatrical illusions and imagery It s about the immense satisfaction one can derive from striving to become proficient as an actor director and producer of live theatre And finally it s about magically transforming the flaccid and inert written word into vital third dimensional action and from the empathy thereby produced experiencing the exhilarating power and gratification returned by an appreciative audience

Our Movie Houses Norman O. Keim,2008-06-09 Conventional screen histories tend to concentrate on New York City and Hollywood in chronicling the evolution of American cinema Notwithstanding both cities tremendous contribution Syracuse and Central New York also played a strategic yet little known role in early screen history In 1889 in Rochester New York George Eastman registered a patent for perforated celluloid film a development that would telescope the international race to record motion by means of photography to the immediate future In addition the first public film projection occurred in Syracuse New York in 1896 Norman O Keim and David Marc provide a highly readable and richly detailed account of the origins of American film in Central New York the colorful history of neighborhood theaters in Syracuse and the famous film personalities who got their start in the unlikely snow belt of New York State Lavishly illustrated this book will be treasured by both film buffs and Central New Yorkers

Chai Noon Jonathan L. Friedmann,2025 Only a few Westerns contain explicitly Jewish stories or themes and very rarely do Old West tales involve identifiably Jewish characters Yet Jewish contributors have shaped the Western once Hollywood's most popular genre ever since the silent era both onscreen and offscreen and some filmmakers have sought to infuse the genre with a distinctly Jewish sensibility In Chai Noon Jonathan L Friedmann applies some of the central questions of Jewish film studies to the Western What makes a movie Jewish What counts as a Jewish image on screen What types of Jewish representation are appropriate How much of a film's Jewishness owes to the filmmakers and how much to the viewer's interpretation This volume joins other reconsiderations of outsider and minority representations in Westerns to offer a more nuanced view of the genre Friedmann engages with larger themes of Jewish identity in popular film including depictions of race ethnicity and foreignness He also identifies similar concerns within the invention and creation of the imaginary West writ large in American culture The juxtapositions prove to be both unexpected and intuitively understandable

Irving Wallace John Leverence, 1974 This profile of Irving Wallace and his work includes more than 200 photographs and illustrations It recounts his Midwest Hollywood and European years his experiences during a lifetime of travel his adventures as a journalist in the Far East and Europe his embroilment in political and literary controversies his legal battles and many other facets of his extraordinary life

Caper Lawrence Sanders, 1987 The author of The Eighth Commandment and The Fourth Deadly Sin does it again with a masterpiece featuring the perfect crime A mystery writer plans a fake multi million dollar jewelry heist that soon turns horribly and murderously real Caper was originally published 10 years ago by Pocket Books under the pseudonym Lesley Address
