Last Stop Velez An Nelson Velez and Tommy McInnis, Nelson Velez and Tommy McInnis, 2010-04      Psychoanalysis, Historiography, and the Nazi Camps Dan Stone, 2024-07-10 In the postwar years Dutch survivors Eddy de Wind Louis Micheels and Elie A Cohen who went on to become practicing psychoanalysts penned accounts of their survival of the Nazi camps Their sober assessments contrast sharply with those by Bruno Bettelheim and Viktor Frankl which emphasized decisiveness positive thinking and resistance missing the fact that many Holocaust victims with those characteristics or other qualities did not survive De Wind s Micheels and Cohen s accounts are more sober self critical and shaped by analytical practice By analyzing them anew and comparing them with accounts by female doctors who survived Block 10 in Auschwitz this book argues that their theories of survival accord with contemporary sensibilities in psychoanalysis and Holocaust historiography Psychoanalytic concepts have changed over time in response to greater understanding of the Holocaust and recent Holocaust historiography makes us more receptive to insights that were unfashionable in the first postwar decades

Of Rice and Men: From Bataan to V-J Day, a Survivor's Story Bob Reynolds, 2019-04-13 At the fall of Bataan on April 9 1942 over sixty thousand American and Filipino troops were rounded up by the Japanese and forced to march 65 miles from Mariveles on the southern end of the Bataan Peninsula to San Fernando Pampanga in Central Luzon Anyone showing a slight weakness to walk was instantly bayoneted in the back Estimates of the number of total deaths from the march range from 5 000 to 8 000 Thousands more later died from malnutrition and disease in the abject conditions of the Japanese POW camps One of the fortunate survivors was Sergeant Bob Reynolds who penned his combat memoir Of Rice and Men in 1947 With a cool philosophical perspective he details the harrowing experience from bitterly defending Bataan on starvation rations through the many atrocities of the March and finally his miraculous survival in Cabanatuan POW Camp and later in Manila s Bilibid Prison      Atlantic's Last Stop Bob Chaulk, 2025-09-19 In the pre dawn hours of April 1 1873 as the lookouts looked the steersman steered and the captain slept something was happening to the SS Atlantic The tide had quietly carried the White Star Line ocean liner twelve miles off course and land was closer than anybody realized or was willing to believe The wreck of the SS Atlantic would become the worst transatlantic passenger ship disaster before Titanic and although it happened almost 150 years ago there are still many unanswered questions That is changing Ten years after co authoring the most celebrated book to date on Nova Scotia s worst shipwreck author Bob Chaulk has uncovered never reported information that answers the question historians have been grappling with for over a century why a state of the art steamship with all equipment in perfect working order in good weather and commanded by officers of the world s leading seafaring nation ended up striking rock outside Halifax and sinking resulting in some 550 deaths Over a five year period Chaulk tracked down many descendants of those on the scene and aboard the ship patiently piecing their stories together to reveal a shocking conclusion This richly illustrated work featuring maps and colour photos includes many firsthand accounts from passengers crew officers and local rescue people      The song of the violin Bruno Thys,2023-11-17 A man buys a second hand violin online Inside the violin he finds two objects and on a surprisingly emotional journey goes in search of their meanings Bruno Thys mixes fiction and reality in a plot permeated with suspense in which the central character is life itself its trials silences pains excitement and successes where the many layers and secrets of the instigating and challenging story are gradually unveiled The Song of the Violin is a dense work set in present day Rio de Janeiro and Second World War Europe which flows with the beauty and delicacy of a violin solo      Historical Dictionary of Holocaust Cinema Robert C. Reimer,Carol J. Reimer,2024-12-19 Some 80 years after the end of World War two and Nazi Germany s attempt to annihilate European Jews and the Jewish culture the story of the Holocaust continues to be told in novels paintings music sculpture and film Over the past eight decades close to a thousand documentaries narrative shorts and features television miniseries and filmed statements from survivors have confronted the horrors of the past creating a recognizable iconography of persecution suffering and genocide While arguably movies and television have a tendency to overly simply if not trivialize historical events popular culture artists also keep the past from being forgotten Historical Dictionary of Holocaust Cinema Second Edition contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 175 cross referenced entries on films directors and historical figures Foreign language experimental and canonical films are included This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about holocaust cinema

Seductive Poison Deborah Layton,2010-08-18 In this haunting and riveting firsthand account a survivor of Jim Jones s Peoples Temple opens up the shadowy world of cults and shows how anyone can fall under their spell A suspenseful tale of escape that reads like a satisfying thriller The most important personal testimony to emerge from the Jonestown tragedy Chicago Tribune A high level member of Jim Jones s Peoples Temple for seven years Deborah Layton escaped his infamous commune in the Guyanese jungle leaving behind her mother her older brother and many friends She returned to the United States with warnings of impending disaster but her pleas for help fell on skeptical ears and shortly thereafter in November 1978 the Jonestown massacre shocked the world Seductive Poison is both an unflinching historical document and a suspenseful story of intrigue power and murder      Reluctant Witnesses Arlene Stein,2014 Reluctant Witnesses tells the story of the rise of Holocaust consciousness in the United States from the perspective of survivors and their descendants If survivors tended to see Holocaust storytelling as mainly a private affair their children who reached adulthood during the heyday of identity politics reclaimed their hidden family histories and transformed them into public stories      I Have the Right To Chessy Prout,Jenn Abelson,2018-03-06 A bold new voice People A nuanced addition to the MeToo conversation Vice A young survivor tells her searing visceral story of sexual assault justice and healing in this gutwrenching memoir The numbers are staggering nearly one in five girls ages fourteen to seventeen have been the victim of a sexual assault or attempted sexual assault This is the true story of one of those girls In 2014 Chessy Prout was a freshman at St Paul s School a prestigious boarding school in New Hampshire when a senior boy sexually assaulted her as part of a ritualized game of conquest Chessy bravely reported her assault to the police and testified against her attacker in court Then in the face of unexpected backlash from her once trusted school community she shed her anonymity to help other survivors find their voice This memoir is more than an account of a horrific event It takes a magnifying glass to the institutions that turn a blind eye to such behavior and a society that blames victims rather than perpetrators Chessy s story offers real powerful solutions to upend rape culture as we know it today Prepare to be inspired by this remarkable young woman and her story of survival advocacy and hope in the face of unspeakable trauma

The Holocaust Boxcar - A Powerful Admonition Against Anti-Semitism Joachim Reppmann, Friedhelm Caspari, 2016-11-17 Includes a history of the boxcars used in the Holocaust from 1840 until 2015

The Survivor John F. Harris, 2005-05-31 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER The definitive account of one of the most accomplished controversial and polarizing figures in American history Bill Clinton is the most arresting leader of his generation He transformed American politics and his eight years as president spawned arguments that continue to resonate For all that has been written about this singular personality including Clinton s own massive autobiography there has been no comprehensive nonpartisan overview of the Clinton presidency Few writers are as qualified and equipped to tackle this vast subject as the award winning veteran Washington Post correspondent John F Harris who covered Clinton for six of his eight years in office as long as any reporter for a major newspaper In The Survivor Harris frames the historical debate about President William Jefferson Clinton by revealing the inner workings of the Clinton White House and providing the first objective analysis of Clinton s leadership and its consequences Harris shows Clinton entering the Oval Office in 1993 primed to make history But with the Cold War recently concluded and the country coming off a nearly uninterrupted generation of Republican presidents the new president s entry into this maelstrom of events was tumultuous His troubles were exacerbated by the habits personal contacts and the management style he had developed in his years as governor of Arkansas Clinton s enthusiasm and temper were legendary and he and Hillary Rodham Clinton whose ambitions and ordeals also fill these pages arrived filled with mistrust about many of the characters who greeted them in the permanent Washington that often holds the reins in the nation s capital Showing surprising doggedness and a deep set desire to govern from the middle Clinton repeatedly rose to the challenges eventually winning over or running over political adversaries on both sides of the aisle sometimes facing as much skepticism from fellow Democrats as from his Republican foes But as Harris shows in his accounts of political debacles such as the attempted overhaul of health care Clinton s frustrations in the war against terrorism and the numerous personal controversies that time and again threatened to consume his presidency Bill Clinton could never manage to outrun his tendency to favor conciliation over clarity or his own destructive appetites The Survivor is the best kind of history a book filled with major revelations the tense dynamic of the Clinton inner circle and Clinton s professional symbiosis with Al Gore to the imprint of Clinton s immense personality on domestic and foreign affairs as well as the minor details that leaven all great political narratives This long awaited synthesis of the dominant themes events and personalities of the Clinton years will stand as the authoritative and lasting work on the Clinton Presidency

Last Rites John Humphries,2016-08-05 A ringing telephone once belonging to the KGB leads investigative journalist Jack Flynt to the island in search of the woman pleading for help at the other end of the line Frayed Lifelines Frank

Leighton,2003 Through dangerous seas to life on besieged Malta from war torn Sicily to a love affair in post war France FRAYED LIFELINES grippingly relives pivotal WWII events and heartwarming episodes The Luckiest One Harkiné Hagopian,2016 Harkin Pilibosian Hagopian told her life s story in anecdotes over many decades a story that sparkled like a fictional fantasy Arab sheiks with harems Turkish baths murderous marauders in the desert a mountain pass on a donkey salvation by the sacrifice of a beautiful sister and the will of a clever husband a stranger from another social class Most astonishing of all was an experience so shockingly brutal it didn t have a name until almost three decades after the event Armenian Genocide To survive such times required far more than good fortune it required unfathomable mental and physical fortitude She came to face the unrelenting eye of incarnate evil Her legacy is a testament to the ultimate failure of Ottoman Turkey to extinguish the Armenian people Facing incomprehensible evil Harkin proved that good does sometimes prevail

Concentrationary Cinema Griselda Pollock,Max Silverman,2012-01-01 Since its completion in 1955 Alain Resnais s Night and Fog Nuit et Brouillard has been considered one of the most important films to confront the catastrophe and atrocities of the Nazi era But was it a film about the Holocaust that failed to recognize the racist genocide Or was the film not about the Holocaust as we know it today but a political and aesthetic response to what David Rousset the French political prisoner from Buchenwald identified on his return in 1945 as the concentrationary universe which now actualized might release its totalitarian plague any time and anywhere What kind of memory does the film create to warn us of the continued presence of this concentrationary universe This international collection re examines Resnais s benchmark film in terms of both its political and historical context of representation of the camps and of other instances of the concentrationary in contemporary cinema Through a range of critical readings Concentrationary Cinema explores the cinematic aesthetics of political resistance not to the Holocaust as such but to the political novelty of absolute power represented by the concentrationary system and its assault on the human condition Treblinka Survivor Mark S Smith,2010-12-26 More than 800 000 people entered Treblinka and fewer than seventy came out Hershl Sperling was one of them He escaped Why then fifty years later did he jump to his death from a bridge in Scotland The answer lies in a long forgotten published account of the Treblinka death camp written by Hershl Sperling himself in the months after liberation and discovered in his briefcase after his suicide It is reproduced here for the first time In Treblinka Survivor Mark S Smith traces the life of a man who survived five concentration camps and what he had to do to achieve this Hershl s story which takes the reader through his childhood in a small Polish town to the bridge in faraway Scotland is testament to the lasting torment of those very few who survived the Nazis most efficient and gruesome death factory The author personally follows in his subject's footsteps from Klobuck to Treblinka to Glasgow The Motion Picture Guide Jay Robert Nash, Stanley Ralph Ross, 1985 Creative Writing Jane Yeh, 2013-12-19 Creative Writing is a complete writing course that will jump start your writing and guide you through your first steps towards publication Suitable for use by students tutors writers groups or writers working alone this book offers a practical and inspiring section on the creative process showing you how to stimulate your creativity and use your memory and experience in inventive ways in depth coverage of the most popular forms of writing in extended sections on fiction poetry and life writing including biography and autobiography giving you practice in all three forms so that you might discover and develop your particular strengths a sensible up to date guide to going public to help you to edit your work to a professional standard and to identify and approach suitable publishers a distinctive collection of exciting exercises spread throughout the workbook to spark your imagination and increase your technical flexibility and control a substantial array of illuminating readings bringing together extracts from contemporary and classic writings in order to demonstrate a range of techniques that you can use or adapt in your own work Creative Writing A Workbook with Readings presents a unique opportunity to benefit from the advice and experience of a team of published authors who have also taught successful writing courses at a wide range of institutions helping large numbers of new writers to develop their talents as well as their abilities to evaluate and polish their work to professional standards These institutions include Lancaster University and the University of East Anglia renowned as consistent producers of published writers The Holocaust in Central European Literatures and Cultures Reinhard Ibler, 2016-10-11 Relating the Holocaust to poetic and aesthetic phenomena has often been considered taboo as only authentic testimony documents or at least unliterary prosaic approaches were seen as appropriate However from the very beginning of Holocaust literature and culture there were tendencies towards literarization poetization and ornamentalization Nowadays aesthetic approaches also in provocative taboo breaking ways are more and more frequently encountered and seen as important ways to evoke the attention required to keep the cataclysm alive in popular memory The essays in this volume use examples predominantly from Polish Czech and German Holocaust literature and culture to discuss this controversial subject Topics include the poetry of concentration camp detainees lyrical poetry about the Holocaust poetic tendencies in narrative literature and drama ornamental prose about the Holocaust and the devices and functions of aestheticization in Holocaust literature and culture Health and Slavery Alison Fiander, Jane Lasonder, 2024-04-26 Aimed at Healthcare Professionals doctors nurses allied professionals and healthcare students to raise awareness recognition and guidance on what to do in the face of suspected Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking MSHT This textbook includes consideration of the size of the problem MSHT indicators important communication skills the reporting of suspected cases and organisations working in the field The majority of victims of MSHT come into contact with healthcare professionals HCPs at some point in their journey but HCPs report feeling ill equipped to recognise or manage a potential victim 90% of victims of MSHT come into contact with a HCP but only 10% of HCPs know how to recognise victims and what to do As such this topic should be represented in undergraduate and post graduate curricula This textbook deals with the identification and appropriate management of suspected cases It has been edited by Prof Alison Fiander and Ms Jane Lasonder and written by Healthcare professionals Medical Students from the School of Medicine Cardiff University as part of a Student Selected Component Survivors of MSHT and organisations working in the Human Trafficking field including the UN
