Lasting Poems On Aging:

Lasting Meg Files, 2005 An anthology presents a collection of poetic interpretations and depictions of aging and the nearing of death The Progress of Life; Or, Youth, Maturity and Old Age: a Poem ... William Leech, 1868 British Women Poets of the Long Eighteenth Century Paula R. Backscheider, Catherine E. Ingrassia, 2009-10-30 This anthology gathers 368 poems by 80 British women poets of the long eighteenth century Few of these poems have been reprinted since originally published and all are crucial to understanding fully the literary history of women writers Paula R Backscheider and Catherine E Ingrassia demonstrate the enormous diversity of poetry produced during this time by organizing the poems in three broad and deliberately overlapping categories by genre establishing that women wrote in all of the forms that men did with equal mastery and creativity by theme offering a revisionary look at the range of topics these writers addressed including war ecology friendship religion and the stages of life and by the poems more specific focus on the women's experiences as writers Backscheider and Ingrassia have selected poems that represent the best work of skilled poets creating a wonderful mix of canonical and little known pieces They include the complete texts of longer poems that are abridged or omitted in other collections Their substantial part introductions textual notes bibliographical information and biographical sketches situate the poets and their writings within the cultural and political milieu in which they appeared To generate further scholarship on this subject this essential anthology puts primary texts in front of students scholars and general readers It fills the persistent need to document women's poetic expression during the long eighteenth century and to rewrite the literary history of the period a history from which women have largely been excluded The Disappearing Trick Len Roberts, 2010-10-01 In The Disappearing Trick Len Roberts wrestles with the loss of loved ones whether that loss be through death a son moving away to college or simply how people fade from our lives and memories Hybrids of the narrative and lyric form these poems are models of indirect statement that have as Sharon Olds has said emotional courage powerful music and a deep balance Like the light shining on a face or a girl's thigh back in a sixth grade class the poems often come as Proustian flashes lasting just a second but seeming eternal amid an increasing darkness The triumph of old age, an elegiac poem Edward Durell (curate of Withiel.), 1818 Littell's Living Age, 1846 The Progress of Life; Or, Youth, Maturity, and Old Age: a Poem, in Three Cantos William LEECH (M.R.C.S.E.), 1868 The Sights Along the Harbor Harvey Shapiro, 2009-02-03 The comprehensive collection of a master of the American modern form Literary Activities and Attitudes in the Stanislawian Age in Poland (1764-1795) Jan IJ. van der Meer, 2022-01-04 The present book for the first time links the thoughts of modern Western sociologists of literature with an overall description of the literary activities attitudes and views in late eighteenth century Poland Inspired by the studies of Bourdieu on literary fields and more particular S J Schmidt's study of the history of the rise and development of the social system literature in Germany in the eighteenth century cf Schmidt 1989 the author tries to establish whether Poland witnessed the rise of a more complex and relatively autonomous literary field or as Schmidt calls it a functionally differentiated literary system in the age of the reign of King Stanislaw August Poniatowski 1764 1795 Functionally differentiated literary systems systems in which an increased number of literary agents and institutions produce sell buy and criticize literary works according to capitalist principles are the literary systems of today As most scholars believe their origins are to be found in most European nations in the late seventeenth and eighteenth centuries Did such a modern literary system albeit with certain limitations rise in Poland in the years of the rule of Stanislaw A Poniatowski this is the question the author of the present volume will attempt to answer This volume is of interest to theoreticians and empirical researchers approaching literature from a sociological point of view historians and of course slavists interested in eighteenth century literary developments in Poland

The Living Age ,1910 Littell's Living Age Eliakim Littell,Robert S. Littell,1891

Lectures on the Literature of the Age of Elizabeth ; and Characters of Shakespear's [sic.] Plays William Hazlitt,1895 Age of the Passions John Dwyer,2001-01-01 The eighteenth century is often described as the age of reason This book argues that it should also be considered the age of the passions Eighteenth century writers recognised the passions as the springs of human life and actions They began to explore self interest sociability and love in ways that would have momentous consequences for the development of western culture The century s philosophes did not merely acknowledge the existence of the passions they sought to manipulate them for the good of society When carefully cultivated self interest led to prudent behaviour and national improvement sociability contributed to inter group harmony and national identity the powerful attraction between the sexes metamorphosed into politeness and altruism This book explores the eighteenth century language of the passions in its specifically Scottish context suggesting that Scottish writers such as Allan Ramsay James Fordyce and James Macpherson were cultural pioneers whose significance goes far beyond the transitory popularity of the literary products they created It also examines thinkers like Adam Smith and John Millar from a radically different perspective And it constructs new connections between the philosophy social thought sermons letters poetry and epic literature of enlightened Scottish society The Scottish contribution to modern consciousness was nothing short of profound The Scots brought the passions into the centre of discourse so they could no longer be ignored only exploited or repressed
