Practising Community-Based Participatory Research Shauna MacKinnon, 2018-04-01 There is increasing pressure on university scholars to reach beyond the ivory tower and engage in collaborative research with communities But what does this actually mean What is community based participatory research CBPR and what does engagement look like This book presents stories about CBPR from past and current Manitoba Research Alliance projects in socially and economically marginalized communities Bringing together experienced researchers with new scholars and community practitioners the stories describe the impetus for the research projects how they came to be implemented and how CBPR is still being used to effect change within the community The projects ranging from engagement in public policy advocacy to learning from Elders in First Nations communities were selected to demonstrate the breadth of experiences of those involved and the many different methods used By providing space for researchers and their collaborators to share the stories behind their research this book offers valuable lessons and rich insights into the power and practice of CBPR

Digital Storytelling in Health and Social Policy Nicole Matthews, Naomi Sunderland, 2017-04-21 As digital life stories continue to assume more and more significance across a range of institutions so too does their potential to bring into focus once marginalised and neglected voices Breaking new ground by reframing multimedia life stories as a resource for education public health and policy this book challenges policymakers professionals and researchers to reimagine how they find out about and respond to people's daily lives and experiences of health disability and well being The book develops theoretical methodological and practical resources for listening to digital stories through a series of carefully selected international case studies from dementia care education to campaigns in the UN to ban cluster munitions The case studies explore and illuminate different ways that digital stories have and have not been listened to in the past The authors expose the great potential as well as the complexity of using powerful personal stories in practice Together the case studies highlight that processes of listening to learning from and making use of digital stories involve unavoidable processes of reinterpretation recontextualisation and translation which have significant ethical and political implications for storytellers listeners and society In mapping and theorising the movement of stories into new contexts of policy and practice the book offers a critical lens on the widely celebrated democratising potential of digital storytelling and its capacity to amplify marginalised voices Digital Storytelling in Health and Social Policy develops an authoritative and original re conceptualisation of digital life stories and their use for social justice ends and will be important reading for researchers and practitioners from a range of backgrounds including social policy digital media communication education disability and public health

Handbook of Feminist Research Sharlene Nagy Hesse-Biber, 2012 The second edition of the Handbook of Feminist Research Theory and Praxis presents both a theoretical and practical approach to conducting social science research on for and about women The Handbook enables readers to develop an understanding of feminist research by introducing a range of feminist epistemologies methodologies and methods that have had a significant impact on feminist research practice and women s studies scholarship The Handbook continues to provide a set of clearly defined research concepts that are devoid of as much technical language as possible It continues to engage readers with cutting edge debates in the field as well as the practical applications and issues for those whose research affects social policy and social change It also expands on the wealth of interdisciplinary understanding of feminist research praxis that is grounded in a tight link between epistemology methodology and method The second edition of this Handbook will provide researchers with the tools for excavating subjugated knowledge on women's lives and the lives of other marginalized groups with the goals of empowerment and social change Broadening Participation in STEM Zayika Wilson-Kennedy, Goldie S. Byrd, Eugene Kennedy, Henry T. Frierson, 2019-02-28 This book reports on high impact educational practices and programs that have been demonstrated to be effective at broadening the participation of underrepresented groups in the STEM disciplines Women Redefining the Experience of Food Insecurity Janet Page-Reeves, 2014-07-03

Women Redefining the Experience of Food Insecurity Life Off the Edge of the Table is about understanding the relationship between food insecurity and women's agency The contributors explore both the structural constraints that limit what and how much people eat and the myriad ways that women creatively and strategically re-structure their own fields of action in relation to food demonstrating that the nature of food insecurity is multi-dimensional The chapters portray how women develop strategies to make it possible to have food in the cupboard and on the table to be able to feed their families Exploring these themes this book offers a lens for thinking about the food system that incorporates women as agentive actors and links women's everyday food-related activities with ideas about food justice food sovereignty and food citizenship Taken together the chapters provide a unique perspective on how we can think broadly about the issue of food insecurity in relation to gender culture inequality poverty and health disparity By problematizing the mundane world of how women procure and prepare food in a context of scarcity this book reveals dynamics relationships and experiences that would otherwise go unremarked Normally under the radar these processes are embedded in power relations that demand analysis and demonstrate strategic individual action that requires recognition All of the chapters provide a counter to caricatured notions that the choices women make are irresponsible or ignorant or that the lives of women from low income low wealth communities are predicated on impotence and weakness Yet the authors do not romanticize women as uniformly resilient or consistently heroic Instead they explore the contradictions inherent in the ways that marginalized seemingly powerless women ignore resist embrace and challenge hegemonic patriarchal systems through their relationship with food
