Say It Hot, Volume II: Eric Miles

Williamson, 2014-10-15 Say It Hot Volume II Industrial Strength is a collection of essays on American poets fiction writers nonfiction writers and issues of interest to artists and academics A companion volume to Say It Hot these essays are brutally honest and acutely intelligent From the book Literary authors these days no longer make livings off their work Their books are not to be found in bookstores and the books are rarely printed by major New York publishing houses No one reads their works except for other literary authors and the professors who are evaluating their tenure and promotion folders at the colleges and universities at which they are employed and it's a minor miracle if a literary book from a small press sells a thousand copies Fiction writers from wealth write about writing or they write about the ridiculous sufferings of the rich Fiction writers from the lower classes write about the primordial filth from which they've physically escaped but from which they'll never mentally be able to leave behind Like war veterans people who've fought it out in the miasma of poverty and blue collar hell can never get the stink out of their skins try as they may Just like people who haven't been to war can spot vets who have middle class people and the rich can spot people who've grown up poor no matter what their position in life or the quality of their designer suits Those suits just don't fit right and the neckties make them fidget and sweat What the well-heeled authors and the working class writers have in common is that they've been trained not to pronounce moral judgment

Marc. Merrill,2012-06-28 From Chapter 5 By a quirk of fate says Darcie Conner Johnston the eruption of Mt Vesuvius in 79 AD caught Pompeii at a time of great spiritual change As a gateway south and east to Greece and Egypt and the Eurasian landmass beyond the city was heir to a panoply of faiths A host of foreign gods had begun to usurp the positions of the venerable Olympian deities and the imperial Roman pantheon

Christians were likely to have been here as well though the evidence of their presence is sketchy Page 71 of Pompeii The Vanished City Besides the evidence that has already been presented more remains to demonstrate that once again the accepted historical point of view is incorrect For example This second volume of Building Bridges of Time Places and People presents the overwhelming evidence that some of the most prominent leaders of the New Testament Church left the lands of Judea and Galilee when war between Rome and the Jews seemed certain and they settled in Pompeii and Herculaneum These leaders included Simon Peter Paul Luke and John Mark the author of The Gospel of Mark They were accompanied by converts such as Cornelius the centurion who was the first Gentile to be baptized and by the mother of Christ This volume also investigates the town of Sepphoris in Galilee and makes a compelling case for the claim that the Messiah of the New Testament grew up there rather than in Nazareth his identity hidden until he began his ministry at the age of 30
