Hotter Than Hell And Other Stories:

Hotter Than Hell and Other Stories Simon Sheppard, 2001 New collection from acclaimed erotic writer Simon Sheppard Best Gay Erotica the Best American Erotica which aims to turn on the brain as well as other less cerebral parts Challenging erotic writing to be all that it can be means that sheppard s writing explores not just the physical act of sex but the emotinal and psychological aspects as well That said get ready to have your head blown off as hard as nails street hustlers sweet Kansas boys closeted college kids leathermen and everyone in between are brought together in some pretty intense encounters

Billy Backside and Other Stories David Rachlin, 2022-05-27 A blind calliope player longs to visit the Rio Grande two siblings take a magical train trip a boy in Santa Fe sprouts angel wings and a man recounts his childhood in wartime Holland These wonderful tales and many more highlight David Rachlin s vivid imagination and keen sense of place reflecting the regions of the United States and Europe where he has lived His stories move from realistic fiction to magical realism to science fiction and back again From the 20th Century up to an Earth settlement on Mars the stories are full of wonderful characters from all walks of life

Hell's Kitchen and the Battle for Urban Space Joseph J. Varga, 2013-05-01 Hell s Kitchen is among Manhattan s most storied and studied neighborhoods A working class district situated next to the West Side s middle and upper class residential districts it has long attracted the focus of artists and urban planners writers and reformers Now Joseph Varga takes us on a tour of Hell s Kitchen with an eye toward what we usually take for granted space and particularly how urban spaces are produced controlled and contested by different class and political forces Varga examines events and locations in a crucial period in the formation of the Hell s Kitchen neighborhood the Progressive Era and describes how reformers sought to shape the behavior and experiences of its inhabitants by manipulating the built environment But those inhabitants had plans of their own and thus ensued a struggle over the very spaces public and private commercial and personal in which they lived Varga insightfully considers the interactions between human actors the built environment and the natural landscape and suggests how the production of and struggle over space influence what we think and how we live In the process he raises incisive questions about the meaning of community citizenship and democracy itself

The Amber Gods, and Other Stories Harriet Elizabeth Prescott Spofford,1881 The New American Story Bill

Bradley,2007-03-27 Politics is stuck writes Bill Bradley in this insightful informative and provocative book about America at a crossroads but idealism isn t dead It can be reawakened What will it take to make America a better stronger truer country asks the bestselling author former Knicks star and onetime presidential candidate Bill Bradley believes that America is at a teachable moment when we are compelled to reevaluate our political system our leadership our agenda as a nation and ourselves as citizens With clarity and urgency Bradley shows why the story we are being told now about who we are as a people is not true He then offers a new story about our nation based on America s rich heritage and his belief in the character of the American people Bradley explores what changes need to be made in our parties in our politics and in citizen activism to ensure America s future He asserts that the American people are ready for the truth and suggests that the party that chooses to embrace this new story will be in power for a generation Writing from his own experience in politics and drawing on his knowledge of history Bradley shows how the Republican Party has built a solid pyramid structure since the 1970s at the base of which are money ideas and media whereas the Democratic Party s structure is an inverted pyramid with too much emphasis put on the need for a charismatic leader to hold the pyramid up Each party for different reasons fails to deal with the real issues that now confront America This informed and inspiring call to action is addressed not only to the parties and elected leaders but to citizens as well Bradley proposes things every American can do to shape our nation s future He points out that if eighty percent of the electorate voted instead of fifty percent it would be the most important change in American politics since women got the vote Now more than ever he says we need to embrace an ethic of connectedness a combination of collective action and individual responsibility to solve our nation s most pressing problems and he argues that the fate of all countries is bound together as never before Writing today with the freedom of a private citizen Bradley provides this transformative and eye opening book about the danger and the promise of America s choice at this crucial moment in the nation s history The Woman Who Lost Her Soul and Other Stories Jovita Gonzàlez

Mireles,2000-01-01 The writer Jovita Gonz lez was a long member and ultimately served as president of Texas Folklore Society which strive to preserve the oral traditions and customs of her native state Many of the folklore based stories in this volume were published by Gonz lez in periodicals such as Southwest Review from the 1920s through the 1940s but have been gathered here for the first time Sergio Reyna has brought together more than thirty narratives by Gonz lez and arranged them into Animal Tales such as The Mescal Drinking Horse Tales of Humans The Bullet Swallower Tales of Popular Customs Shelling Corn by Moonlight Religious Tales The Guadalupana Vine Tales of Mexican Ancestors Ambrosio the Indian and Tales of Ghosts Demons and Buried Treasure The Woman Who Lost Her Soul Reyna also provides a helpful introduction that succinctly surveys the authors life and work analyzing her writings within their historical and cultural contexts The Native Informant & Other Stories Ramzi M. Salti,1994-12-31 The Native Informant Other Stories is a collection of six short stories dealing with unmentionable aspects of Arab life in parts of the Arab world and in the West Inspired by such modern writers as Alifa Rifaat Nawal al Sadawi and Youssef Idris authors who have despite immeasurable odds managed to emphasize subjects ranging from feminism to homosexuality in their works these short stories attempt to further engage various social and political issues that remain for the most part largely ignored or silenced in modern Arabic literature Most of the stories in The Native Informant Other Stories operate on a dual level by addressing not only issues related to women homosexuals and victims of violence in southwest Asia but also by examining the seemingly conflicting relationship between notions of Arabness Islam and the West The collection thus aims at highlighting the plight of marginalized groups in Arab countries by broaching various issues on the social spectrum ranging from religious intolerance to the subjugation of women to homophobia to domestic violence to Western and Eastern concepts of terrorism and neo post coloniality to the ethnic experience of being an Arab in the United States at a time when the media seems to be promulgating the negative stereotype of the Arab Little Five: A Terminalia Story Kari Kilgore,2019-03-19 Barry Evans An oddball in the oddest land of all A gray suited accountant navigating colorful hair crazy clothing and questionable businesses After three months in Little Five nothing surprises Barry anymore Until the day he meets a true stranger in town What happens when numbers meet magic An excerpt from Little Five Barry turned the corner toward his next appointment so focused on getting into the shaded alleyway and out of the sun that he nearly walked right into another person Instead of dodging away and shaking his head probably swearing under his breath Barry stopped in his tracks without even checking to see what he might step in He turned around The man wasn't wearing a woman's dress or a black bodysuit or a shirt with some kind of obscene phrase on the front He wasn't nearly naked or dressed like a priest or even another outsider in a business suit Barry watched a tall impossibly thin figure walking slowly away from him dressed head to toe in gleaming copper His insane idea that the man had been wearing a breathing device of some kind made more sense now that Barry could see the two small black tanks on his back Barry also remembered a strangely bluish tint to the man's pale skin so pale that it was almost translucent He could see from the back that he hadn't imagined the man's hair color. A spiky mane of every shade of purple stood up all over the stranger's head. The damndest thing was that color didn't look the least bit unnatural to Barry's grumpy judgmental eye.

The Crime of the Wandering Dog and Other Stories The Brothers Grim & Grimy Declan Moran, 2019-12-18. The Crime of the Wandering Dog and Other Stories is a collection of illustrated poems by the Brothers Grim and Grimy, the nom de plume of the Irish artist and writer Declan Moran. Tales that stretch from the start to the end of time and from the top to the very bottom and from the bottom to the very top again.

Of Sex and Faerie: further essays on Genre Fiction John Lennard, 2010. Taking up where Of Modern Dragons 2007 left off, these essays continue Lennard's investigation of the praxis of serial reading and the best genre fiction of recent decades, including work by Bill James, Walter Mosley, Lois McMaster Bujold, and Ursula K. Le Guin. There are groundbreaking studies of contemporary paranormal romance and of Hornblower's transition to space, while the final essay deals with the phenomenon and explosive growth of fanfiction and with the increasingly empowered status of the reader in a digital world. There is an extensive bibliography of genre and critical work, with eight illustrations. John Lennard is Director of Studies at Hughes Hall, Cambridge, and has also taught for the Universities of London, Notre Dame, and for the Open University, and was Professor of British American Literature at the University of the West Indies, Mona, 2004-09. Of Modern Dragons and other essays on genre fiction 2007 is also available from Lulu.
