Living with Transition in Laos Jonathan Rigg, 2012-10-12 Laos the Lao People's Democratic Republic is one of the least understood and studied countries of Asia. Its development trajectory is also one of the most interesting as it moves from state or perhaps more appropriately subsistence to market. Based on extensive original research, this book assesses how economic transition and marketisation are being translated into progress or not at the local level and at the resulting impact on poverty, inequality and livelihoods. It concludes that the process of transition in fact contributes to the growth of poverty for some people and shows how people manage to cope in very unfavourable circumstances. Japan's International Cooperation in Education Nobuko Kayashima, Kazuo Kuroda, Yuto Kitamura, 2022-03-31 This book records the history of Japan's international cooperation in education from the 1950s to 2020. It provides a crucial overview of the nearly 70 years since Japan began engaging in international cooperation in education in order to record and document these efforts that range from basic to higher education to technical and vocational education and training and the large numbers of people involved in their respective areas of activity and specialization. The book provides useful indicators for exploring new forms of education cooperation in this age of global governance and beyond. The authors include not only researchers but also field practitioners such as personnel from the Japan International Cooperation Agency and NGOs.
