both spiritual and temporal matters And what indeed is the entire Psalter but thoughts and exercises upon the First Commandment Therefore I again implore all Christians especially pastors and preachers not to be doctors too soon and imagine that they know everything but that they daily exercise themselves in these studies and constantly apply them to practice Let them guard with all care and diligence against the poisonous on a infection of such security and presumption and persevere in reading teaching learning thinking meditating not ceasing until they have learned by experience and are sure that by this teaching they have killed Satan and have become more learned than God himself and all his saints If they manifest such diligence in due time they themselves will acknowledge that the longer and the more they have studied the Catechism the less they know of it and the more they find yet to learn and then only as hungry and thirsty ones will they truly appreciate that which now because of great abundance and satiety they cannot endure To this end may God grant his grace Amen Martin Luther from the Preface In republishing Luther s Large Catechism we seek to introduce this treasure of the Faith to a new generation of those seeking authentic spirituality Henry Eyster Jacobs 1844 1932 served as Professor of Systematic Theology and President of the Lutheran Seminary at Philadelphia He was president of his church s board of foreign missions and edited the Lutheran Church Review the Lutheran Commentary and the Lutheran Cyclopaedia He wrote and translated many books The Lutheran Library Publishing Ministry finds restores and republishes good readable books from Lutheran authors and those of other sound Christian traditions All titles are available at little to no cost in proofread and freshly typeset editions Many free e books are available at our website LutheranLibrary org Please enjoy this book and let others know about this completely volunteer service to God s people May the Lord bless you and bring you peace
