(Re)mapping the Latina/o Literary Landscape Cristina Herrera, Larissa M. Mercado-López, 2016-08-10 This book broadens the scope of Latina/o criticism to include both widely read and understudied nineteenth through twenty first century fictional works that engage in critical discussions of gender race sexuality and identity The essays in this collection do not simply seek inclusion for the texts they critically discuss but suggest that we more thoughtfully consider the utility of mapping whether we are mapping land borders time migration or connections and disconnections across time and space Using new and rigorous methodological approaches to reading Latina/o literature contributors reveal a varied and textured landscape challenging us to reconsider the process and influence of literary production across borders Latino/a Literature in the

Classroom Frederick Luis Aldama, 2015-06-19 In one of the most rapidly growing areas of literary study this volume provides the first comprehensive guide to teaching Latino/a literature in all variety of learning environments Essays by internationally renowned scholars offer an array of approaches and methods to the teaching of the novel short story plays poetry autobiography testimonial comic book children and young adult literature film performance art and multi media digital texts among others The essays provide conceptual vocabularies and tools to help teachers design courses that pay attention to Issues of form across a range of storytelling media Issues of content such as theme and character Issues of historical periods linguistic communities and regions Issues of institutional classroom settings The volume innovatively adds to and complicates the broader humanities curriculum by offering new possibilities for pedagogical practice Entre Guadalupe y Malinche

Inés Hernández-Ávila, Norma E. Cantú, 2016-02-23 Mexican and Mexican American women have written about Texas and their lives in the state since colonial times Edited by fellow Tejanas Inés Hernández-Ávila and Norma Elia Cantú Entre Guadalupe y Malinche gathers for the first time a representative body of work about the lives and experiences of women who identify as Tejanas in both the literary and visual arts The writings of more than fifty authors and the artwork of eight artists manifest the nuanced complexity of what it means to be Tejana and how this identity offers alternative perspectives to contemporary notions of Chicana identity community and culture Considering Texas Mexican women and their identity formations subjectivities and location on the longest border between Mexico and any of the southwestern states acknowledges the profound influence that land and history have on a people and a community and how Tejana creative traditions have been shaped by historical geographical cultural linguistic social and political forces This representation of Tejana arts and letters brings together the work of rising stars along with well known figures such as writers Gloria Anzaldúa Emma Pérez Alicia Gaspar de Alba Carmen Tafolla and Pat Mora and artists such as Carmen Lomas Garza Kathy Vargas Santa Barraza and more The collection attests to the rooted presence of the original indigenous peoples of the land now known as Texas as well as a strong Chicana Mexicana feminism that has its precursors in Tejana history itself Representaciones críticas en el sistema sexo/género. Entre lo transnacional y lo local Martínez Carrasco, Robert, Villanueva Jordán, Iván Alejandro, 2023-03-01 El presente volumen monográfico surge de una iniciativa por recuperar la noción del género como un hecho semiótico y material vivido y en carne propia mediante sistemas y tecnologías de representación. A través de sus contribuciones y bajo un prisma optimista el volumen propone que la crítica académica tiene todavía espacios de acción en la exploración e interpretación de diversos artefactos culturales. En esta exploración se hace uso de métodos alternativos que permiten pensar las identidades locales y globalizadas, negociar la propia identidad y habilitar espacios de recepción que cuestionen el statu quo. Las once contribuciones reunidas por tanto se nutren de metodologías críticas feministas y queer, metodologías bastardas y tecnologías de la subversión para explorar e investigar la realidad social y cultural respecto al sistema sexo/género entendiendo la igualdad de género como objeto último de la colección EMIG como un espacio sociohistórico atravesado por lo lingüístico, lo económico y lo político. Un espacio en definitiva que es de todo menos inocuo si tenemos en cuenta las consecuencias que las tecnologías del género pueden llegar a tener en quienes somos y en nuestra vida diaria.
