The Dalesman, 1990

Steps in the Sand of Time Margaret Rutherford, 2017-04-27 This story is written with a backdrop of Scotland and Iran prior to the downfall of the Shah from 1969 to 1976. The steps of life and the journey through it took Mhairi and Bruce, a young Scottish couple from Dundee, a town in Scotland, to the Persian Gulf in the 1960s. The first five years were traumatic for them, but they overcame the personal difficulties. They lost their two daughters to an incurable illness; however, we find them in 1969 looking forward to a bright future. Of course, the lives of others come into their journeys, which take them from Scotland to Abadan, then to Kharg Island, Iran, situated in the Persian Gulf, with a few more journeys in between. The fun, sorrows, joys, entertainment, private and public lives that went on within a small group of expatriates thrown together by necessity. It is based on a way of life that has now gone for good.

Tell It As It Was Kathleen Hann, 2002-05-23 Kathleen Hann was born into a poor working-class family in the Black Country during the depression of the nineteen thirties. She was a clever child at a time when it wasn't thought poor children could be clever, when ridicule was the only way the mediocre teachers knew how to deal with the situation. This is a book to make you laugh and cry as the author revisits her past and evokes many of the outrageous and picaresque characters of her childhood, her youth, and early womanhood. She was one of a hundred people in Shropshire chosen by the BBC to appear on the programme The Century Speaks in which the BBC called for people to give their views on Shropshire. This book is living history, experienced in the raw and tested on the pulses of a real participant whose vision of those times, while sympathetic, sincere, and humorous, is never coloured by rose-tinted lenses. She has not given us a dry treatise of social history.
