THE BOOK Everything about him was old except his eyes and they were the same color as the sea and were cheerful and undefeated The Old Man and the Sea is one of the most recognized titles in the American canon the simple story of a man named Santiago who has acquired iconic status for his encounter with the ultimate catch in the Atlantic ocean The novel addresses themes common to many of Hemingways novels identity manhood death and religion His straightforward confrontation of these issues central to the American experience gives a contemporary relevance to the novel Hemingway wrote The Old Man and the Sea in 1952 while in Cuba the last book he published during his lifetime The book is largely responsible for Hemingways celebrity and was extremely successful before he died The novel likely began as a story written for Esquire magazine in 1936 about a fisherman at sea attacked by sharks while chasing a giant catch The success of this story led him to expand it into a short novel Hemingway published Across the River and Into the Trees in 1952 though it was met with great disappointment Many doubted that the author had another great novel in him Hemingway was concerned as it was important to him that The Old Man and the Sea become a literary success MEET THE AUTHOR Sara Sisun is a writer of the fish and knows that he is huge He feels as though he is starting to lose his senses and fervently hopes that the fish dies and not him He reminds himself again and again to keep a clear head As the fish pulls close to the boat the old man grabs his harpoon and spears him as hard as he can He drives the harpoon deeply into the fishs chest he sense that the fish has his death in him The fish dies floating to the surface of the ocean The old man thinks the fish must be at least fifteen hundred giant fishs gills and begins to tow him home But as they are on their way when the old man becomes aware of a shark
