Latin American Documentary Filmmaking Major Works:

Latin American Documentary Filmmaking David William Foster, 2013-05-02 Latin American Documentary Filmmaking is the first volume written in English to explore Latin American documentary filmmaking with extensive and intelligent analysis David William Foster the leading authority on Latin American urban cultural production provides rich new interpretations on the production of gender political persecution historical conflicts and exclusion from the mainstream in many of Latin America's most important documentary films Foster provides a series of detailed examinations of major texts of Latin American filmmaking discussing their textual production and processes of meaning His analysis delves deeply into the world of Latin American film and brings forth a discourse of structure that has previously been absent from the fields of filmmaking and Latin American studies This volume provides perspective on diverse and methodological approaches pulling from a wide scope of cinematic traditions Using his own critical readings and research Foster presents his findings in terms that are accessible to non Spanish speakers and Latin American film enthusiasts A much needed contribution to the field of Latin American documentary film Foster's research and perspective will be a valuable source for those interested in film studies gender studies and culture

Latin American Documentary Film in the New Millennium María Guadalupe Arenillas, Michael J. Lazzara, 2016-06-23 Nearly two decades into the new millennium Latin American documentary film is experiencing renewed vibrancy and visibility on the global stage While elements of the combative politicized cinema of the 1960s and 1970s remain the region's production has become increasingly subjective reflexive and experimental though perhaps no less political At the same time Latin American filmmakers both respond to and shape global tendencies in the genre This book highlights the richness and heterogeneity of Latin American documentary film surveys a broad range of national contexts styles and practices and expands current debates on the genre Thematic sections address the subjective turn of the 1990s and 2000s and the move beyond it the ethics of the encounter between the filmmaker and the subject object of his or her gaze and the performance of truth and memory a particularly urgent topic as Latin American countries have transitioned from dictatorship to democracy

A Feminist Counter-History of Latin American Documentary Lorena Cervera Ferrer, 2025-08-28 A Feminist Counter History of Latin American Documentary provides a new lens through which to revisit the history of Latin American cinema and proposes three approximations to the study of women's documentary produced between the early 1970s and the mid 1990s With a focus on documentaries with clear political intents this book illustrates some of the thematic interests authorial modes production practices formal devices and aesthetic strategies employed by women filmmakers Through analysis of the contexts processes and forms of a selection of films the author shows how these non fiction films shed light on the precarious conditions that characterised women's greater entry into the workforce on the circulation of feminist ideas and on the inevitable questioning of identity that resulted from migration and displacement This volume will appeal to scholars and students interested in women's and feminist cinema documentary

Music, Sound, and Documentary Film in the Global South Christopher L. Ballengee, 2022-11-01

Music Sound and Documentary Film in the Global South edited by Christopher L Ballengee represents an important step toward thinking about the production and analysis of the soundscapes of documentary film all while exploring a range of social cultural technological and theoretical questions relevant to current trends in Global South studies Written by a diverse set of authors including filmmakers academics and cultural critics the ten essays in this book provide fresh evaluations of the place of music and sound in documentary films outside the European American milieu On the whole the authors illuminate how the invention of documentary film was at first a product of the colonialist project Yet over time access to filmmaking technologies led to the creation of documentary films relevant for local communities and national identities In this sense documentary film in the Global South might be broadly defined as a mode of personally or politically mediated storytelling that by one route or another has become a useful and recognizable means of memorializing traumatic histories and critiquing everyday lived experience As the essays in this volume attest close readings of documentary soundscapes provide fresh perspectives on ways of hearing and ways of being heard in the Global South

Women and Global Documentary Shilyh

Warren, Najmeh Moradian-Rizi, 2025-02-06 In what innovative ways are women documentary filmmakers seeking to prioritize and promote political awareness alternative modes of allyship and advocacy for those most marginalized by patriarchy and global capitalism Women and Global Documentary answers the urgent need to re evaluate the significance of women s documentary practices their contributions to feminist world building and to the state of documentary studies as a whole Bringing together a range of diverse practitioners and authors the volume analyzes alternative and emergent networks of documentary production and collaboration within a global context The chapters investigate filmmaking practices from regions such as East Africa Latin America South Asia East Asia the Middle East and North Africa They also examine decolonial practices in the Global North based on Indigenous filmmaking and feminist documentary institutions such as Women Make Movies In doing so they assess the global institutional political and artistic factors that have shaped women s documentary practices in the 21st century and their implications for scholarly debates regarding women s authorship political subjectivity and documentary representation

A Century of Brazilian Documentary Film Darlene J.

Sadlier, 2022-08-16 Since the late nineteenth century Brazilians have turned to documentaries to explain their country to themselves and to the world In a magisterial history covering one hundred years of cinema Darlene J Sadlier identifies Brazilians unique contributions to a diverse genre while exploring how that genre has in turn contributed to the making and remaking of Brazil A Century of Brazilian Documentary Film is a comprehensive tour of feature and short films that have charted the social and political story of modern Brazil The Amazon appears repeatedly and vividly Sometimes as in a prize winning 1922 feature the rainforest is a galvanizing site of national pride at other times the Amazon has been a focus for land reform and Indigenous rights activists Other key documentary themes include Brazil's swings from democracy to dictatorship tensions between cosmopolitanism and rurality and shifting attitudes toward race and gender Sadler also provides critical perspectives on aesthetics and media technology exploring how documentaries inspired dramatic depictions of poverty and migration in the country's Northeast and examining Brazilians participation in streaming platforms that have suddenly democratized filmmaking

The Development Film in the Americas Molly Geidel, 2025-10-28 In this book Molly Geidel traces the rise and fall of the development film an overlooked film genre that circulated widely in the Americas from the 1940s through the 1970s Development films often short documentaries were made at the behest of state agencies global governance organizations and private corporations to link capitalist conceptions of economic growth to improved quality of life Development films made this link beautifully compelling blending elements from ethnography and socially committed leftist film traditions to create indelible narratives of underdevelopment and modernization The Development Film in the Americas tells the story of these films and the hemispheric cohort of filmmakers who crafted them chronicling the filmmakers fraught relationships with both the organizations they worked for and the actors in their films

Revolutionary Visions Stephanie M. Pridgeon, 2021 Revolutionary Visions traces the emergence of a growing corpus of Latin American films that explore the legacy of Jewish encounters with revolutionary political movements in 1960s and 1970s Latin America

The Mexican Revolution on the World Stage Adela Pineda Franco, 2019-07-23 The first major social revolution of the twentieth century the Mexican Revolution was visually documented in technologically novel ways and to an unprecedented degree during its initial armed phase 1910-21 and the subsequent years of reconstruction 1921-40 Offering a sweeping and compelling new account of this iconic revolution The Mexican Revolution on the World Stage reveals its profound impact on both global cinema and intellectual thought in and beyond Mexico Focusing on the period from 1940 to 1970 Adela Pineda Franco examines a group of North American

European and Latin American filmmakers and intellectuals who mined this extensive visual archive to produce politically engaged cinematic works that also reflect and respond to their own sociohistorical contexts The author weaves together multilayered analysis of individual films the history of their production and reception and broader intellectual developments to illuminate the complex relationship between culture and revolution at the onset of World War II during the Cold War and amid the anti systemic movements agitating Latin America in the 1960s Ambitious in scope this book charts an innovative transnational history of not only the visual representation but also the very idea of revolution Telling Migrant Stories

Esteban E. Loustaunau, Lauren E. Shaw, 2021-11-02 This book is a collection of edited theoretical essays on the power of contemporary documentary film to voice the social agency of Latin American immigrants to the United States and Europe and to reveal some of the global systemic conditions that generate mass migrations and lead to the dehumanization of undocumented immigrants Linking the function of documentary to represent immigrants as performing agents whose voices generally are not heard publicly this volume also features interviews with prominent documentarians whose films and videos respond to conditions of migration from a variety of perspectives Political Documentary Cinema in Latin America

Antonio Traverso, Kristi Wilson, 2016-01-08 The chapters in this book show the important role that political documentary cinema has played in Latin America since the 1950s Political documentary cinema in Latin America has a long history of tracing social injustice and suffering depicting political unrest intervening in periods of crisis and upheaval and reflecting upon questions about ideology cultural identity genocide and traumatic memory This collection bears witness to the region's film culture's diversity discussing documentaries about workers strikes riots and military coups against elected governments crime poverty homelessness prostitution children's work and violence against women urban development progress under development capitalism and neoliberalism exile diaspora and border cultures trauma and post memory The chapters focus on documentaries made in Argentina Brazil Chile Cuba Mexico and Venezuela as well as on the work of Latino and diasporic Latin American political documentarians The contributors to the anthology reflect the cultural and linguistic diversity of current Latin American film scholarship with some writing in Spanish and Portuguese from Argentina and Brazil with their original works especially translated and others writing in English from Australia Europe and the USA This book was originally published as a special issue of Social Identities

Mexican Public Intellectuals D. Castillo, S. Day, 2014-04-16 In Mexico the participation of intellectuals in public life has always been extraordinary and for many the price can be high Highlighting prominent figures that have made incursions into issues such as elections human rights foreign policy and the drug war this volume paints a picture of the ever changing context of Mexican intellectualism Cultural Representations of Femicidio at the US-Mexico Border Nuala Finnegan, 2018-07-18 Since the early 1990s the repeated murders of women from Ciudad Juarez Mexico have become something of a global cause celebre Cultural Representations of Femicidio at the US Mexico Border examines creative responses to these acts of violence It reveals how theatre art film fiction and other popular cultural forms seek to remember and mourn the female victims of violent death in the city at the same time as they interrogate the political legal and societal structures that produce the crimes Different chapters examine the varying art forms to engage with Ciudad Ju rez s feminicidal wave Finnegan discusses lex Rigola s theatrical adaptation of Roberto Bola o s novel 2666 by Teatre Lliure in Barcelona as well as painting about the victims of feminicidio by Irish painter Brian Maguire There is analysis of documentary film about Ciudad Ju rez including Lourdes Portillo s acclaimed Se orita Extraviada 2001 The final chapter turns its attention to writing about feminicide and examines testimonial and crime fiction narratives like the mystery novel Desert Blood The Ju rez Murders by Alicia Gaspar de Alba among other examples By drawing on a range of artistic responses to the murders in Ciudad Ju rez Cultural Representations of Feminicidio at the US Mexico Border shows how art film theatre and fiction can unsettle official narratives about the crimes and undo the static paradigms that are frequently used to interpret them

Picturing the Barrio David William Foster,2017-07-19 Mexican American life like that of nearly every contemporary community has been extensively photographed Yet there is surprisingly little scholarship on Chicano photography Picturing the Barrio presents the first book length examination on the topic David William Foster analyzes the imagery of ten distinctive artists who offer a range of approaches to portraying Chicano life The production of each artist is examined as an ideological interpretation of how Chicano experience is constructed and interpreted through the medium of photography in sites ranging from the traditional barrio to large metropolitan societies These photographers present artistic as well as documentary images of the socially invisible They and their subjects grapple with definitions of identity as well as ethnicity and gender As such this study deepens our understanding of the many interpretations of the Chicano experience
