Mapping South-South Connections Fernanda Peñaloza, Sarah Walsh, 2019-03-15 This book explores contemporary cultural historical and geopolitical connections between Latin America and Australia from an interdisciplinary perspective It seeks to capitalise on scholarly developments and further unsettle the multiple divides created by the North South axis by focusing on processes of translocal connectivities that link Australia with Latin America The authors conceptualise the South South not as a defined geographic space with clear boundaries but rather as a mobile terrain with multiple evolving and overlapping translocal processes

Terrorism and Transnational Security Threats in West Africa: Adebayo E. Adeyemi PhD, 2015-09-18 While it could be arguably stated that West Africa has achieved remarkable and sustainable progress in the areas of democratic governance and economic growth the subregion over the past few years has been challenged by terrorism and other transnational security threats Innocent civilians are continuously killed security operatives and providers of humanitarian assistance are targeted and properties and infrastructures are wantonly destroyed thus culminating in significant displacement of people and acute poverty If these developments are not carefully and timely addressed they are capable of eroding progress so far recorded It is against this background that this book examines the different manifestations of terrorism and related transnational security challenges in West Africa with a view to exploring the internal and external sources and drivers of instability establishing the linkages between terrorism and transnational threats and reviewing the various steps taken in recent time to strengthen the subregions capacity to prevent and address the menace of terrorism and other security challenges and make necessary policy recommendations based on comprehensive best practices

Mobile Subjects Aren Z. Aizura, 2018-10-25 The first famous transgender person in the United States Christine Jorgensen traveled to Denmark for gender reassignment surgery in 1952 Jorgensen became famous during the ascent of postwar dreams about the possibilities for technology to transform humanity and the world In Mobile Subjects Aren Z Aizura examines transgender narratives within global health and tourism economies from 1952 to the present Drawing on an archive of trans memoirs and documentaries as well as ethnographic fieldwork with trans people obtaining gender reassignment surgery in Thailand Aizura maps the uneven use of medical protocols to show how national and regional health care systems and labor economies contribute to and limit transnational mobility Aizura positions transgender travel as a form of biomedical tourism examining how understandings of race gender and aesthetics shape global cosmetic surgery cultures and how economic and racially stratified marketing and care work create the ideal transgender subject as an implicitly white global citizen In so doing he shows how understandings of travel and mobility depend on the historical architectures of colonialism and contemporary patterns of global consumption and labor

Terrorism Inside America's Borders Ashraf Esmail, Lisa A. Eargle, Brandon Hamann, 2021-05-03 Using the insights provided by criminology sociology psychology and other disciplines Terrorism Inside America's Borders delivers a multi faceted examination of the issues associated with domestic terrorism Some of the issues explored include the similarities and differences between terrorism and other criminal activities the roles that social institutions and social processes play in the creation and prevention of terrorism the stages involved in the unfolding of a terrorism disaster and the impacts terrorism has on people's lives and property The history and trends of terrorism as well as possible emerging solutions are also explored

Wealth(s) and Subjective Well-Being Gaël Brulé, Christian Suter, 2019-06-24 This volume examines the impact of wealth on quality of life and subjective well being SWB As wealth is related to economic environmental and social features of societies this volume serves as an important resource in understanding economic and SWB It further discusses a variety of experiences and consequences of inequalities of wealth Through the availability of wealth data in recent international surveys this volume explores the multiple relations between wealth and SWB Structured around four main pillars the book presents analysis of the topic at various levels such as theoretical and conceptual methodological and empirically ending with a section on distribution and policies Tendings

Nathan Snaza, 2024-01-22 In Tendings Nathan Snaza brings contemporary feminist and queer popular culture s resurging interest in esoteric practices like tarot and witchcraft into conversation with Black feminist and new materialist thought Analyzing writing and performances by Maryse Cond Barbara Ehrenreich and Deirdre English Starhawk Christina Sharpe Alexis Pauline Gumbs and others Snaza introduces his theory of tending as a concept that links ontology attunement care and anticipatory action to explore how worlds persist through everyday acts of participation In contrast to the universalizing presuppositions of the enlightenment Snaza shows how certain feminist occult and esoteric practices constitute what he calls an endarkenment that embraces decolonial spiritual knowledge Highlighting how endarkenment practices challenge universal presumptions and reject the racializing and colonialist mission of enlightenment modernity Snaza demonstrates the ways esoterism affirms a pluriversal worldview that reimagines what it means to live in a more than human world
