Mapping And Documenting Cemeteries:

Mapping & Documenting Cemeteries Pamela Goffinet, 2013 This is a practical how to book that guides the reader through the process of mapping and documenting a cemetery with easily available tools and basic skills Mapping and Documenting Cemeteries Pamela Goffinet, 2007-01-01 This is a practical how to book that guides the reader through the process of mapping and documenting a cemetery with easily available tools and basic skills Included are instructions on creating a map gathering an inscription database and assembling a spreadsheet of related information such as from deeds Lots of illustrations and easy to understand Written by a professional cartographer this book is a must for historians genealogists or anyone interested in preserving the information found in cemeteries Canada's Residential Schools: Missing Children and Unmarked Burials Commission de vérité et réconciliation du Canada, 2016-01-01 Between 1867 and 2000 the Canadian government sent over 150 000 Aboriginal children to residential schools across the country Government officials and missionaries agreed that in order to civilize and Christianize Aboriginal children it was necessary to separate them from their parents and their home communities For children life in these schools was lonely and alien Discipline was harsh and daily life was highly regimented Aboriginal languages and cultures were denigrated and suppressed Education and technical training too often gave way to the drudgery of doing the chores necessary to make the schools self sustaining Child neglect was institutionalized and the lack of supervision created situations where students were prey to sexual and physical abusers Legal action by the schools former students led to the creation of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada in 2008 The product of over six years of research the Commission s final report outlines the history and legacy of the schools and charts a pathway towards reconciliation Canada s Residential Schools Missing Children and Unmarked Burials is the first systematic effort to record and analyze deaths at the schools and the presence and condition of student cemeteries within the regulatory context in which the schools were intended to operate As part of its work the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada established a National Residential School Student Death Register Due to gaps in the available data the register is far from complete Although the actual number of deaths is believed to be far higher 3 200 residential school victims have been identified The analysis also demonstrates that residential school death rates were significantly higher than those for the general Canadian school aged population The failure to establish and enforce adequate standards of care coupled with the failure to adequately fund the schools resulted in unnecessarily high death rates at residential schools Senior government and church officials were well aware of the schools ongoing failure to provide adequate levels of custodial care Children who died at the schools were rarely sent back to their home community They were usually buried in school or nearby mission cemeteries As the schools and missions closed these cemeteries were abandoned While in a number of instances Aboriginal communities churches and former staff have taken steps to rehabilitate cemeteries and commemorate the individuals buried there most of these cemeteries are now disused and vulnerable to accidental disturbance In the face of this abandonment the TRC is proposing the development of a national strategy for the documentation maintenance commemoration and protection of residential school cemeteries Innovation and Implementation Richard Veit, Harold Mytum, 2023-07-14 Providing a comprehensive set of guidance to assist researchers wishing to carry out curate and disseminate field research at a historic burial ground chapters offer up to date methods for surface and subsurface survey and for the recording and archiving of burial monument data Divided into three parts considering documentary research and recording of mortuary landscapes reflections on memorial recording projects and archiving and wider dissemination of data and interpretations Also included is the archaeological potential of pet cemeteries and other pet memorials Discussions therefore include how methodologies may or may not be applicable to both human and animal subjects Guide to Historic Burial Grounds in Newport, A Lewis Keen, 2021 Appendix Complete list of burial sites in Newport Rhode Island pages 117 135 Advocacy and Archaeology Kelly M. Britt, PhD,, Diane F. George, 2023-04-01 Archaeologists have a history of being prime agents of change particularly in advocating for protection and preservation of historical resources As more social issues intersect with archaeology and historical sites we see archaeologists and others continuing to advocate for not only historic resources but for the larger social justice issues that threaten the communities in which these resources reside Inspired by the idea of revolution and excitement about the ways archaeology is being used in social justice arenas this volume seeks to visualize archaeology as part of a movement by redefining what archaeology is and does for the greater good

Imperial Bodies Shana Minkin, 2019-11-19 At the turn of the twentieth century Alexandria Egypt was a bustling transimperial port city under nominal Ottoman and unofficial British imperial rule Thousands of European subjects lived worked and died there And when they died the machinery of empire had to negotiate for space resources and control with the nascent national state Imperial Bodies shows how the mechanisms of death became a tool for exerting both imperial and national governance Shana Minkin investigates how French and British power asserted itself in Egypt through local consular claims of belonging manifested within the mundane caring for dead bodies European communities corralled imperial bodies through the bureaucracies and rituals of death from hospitals funerals and cemeteries to autopsies and death registrations As they did so imperial consulates pushed against the workings of both the Egyptian state and each other expanding their governments material and performative power Ultimately this book reveals how European imperial powers did not so much claim Alexandria as their own as they maneuvered manipulated and cajoled their empires into Egypt Identification and Mapping of Historic Graves at Colonial Cemetery, Savannah, Georgia Michael Trinkley, Debi Hacker, Chicora Foundation, 1999 Stone Faces and Sacred Spaces a cemetery preservation organization in Mineral Point Wisconsin was retained by the City to repair markers tombs and fences develop a preservation plan and explore long range improvements to Colonial Cemetery best known as Colonial Park As part of that work Chicora Foundation was asked to conduct a first phase of an archaeological study of the cemetery Abstract p i The Cemeteries of New Orleans Peter B. Dedek, 2017-06-12 In The Cemeteries of New Orleans Peter B Dedek reveals the origins and evolution of the Crescent City's world famous necropolises exploring both their distinctive architecture and their cultural impact Drawing on a fascinating body of research Dedek takes readers from muddy fields of crude burial markers to extravagantly designed cities of the dead illuminating a vital and vulnerable piece of New Orleans's identity Where many histories of New Orleans cemeteries focus on the famous people buried within them Dedek sets his sights on the marble cutters burial society members journalists and tourists who shaped these graveyards into internationally recognizable emblems of the city In his detailed exploration of cemetery architecture Dedek reveals the impacts of ancient and medieval grave traditions and styles the city's geography and the arrival of trained European tomb designers such as the French architect J N B de Pouilly in 1833 and Italian artist and architect Pietro Gualdi in 1851 As Dedek shows the nineteenth century was a particularly critical era in the city's cemetery design Traditional French and Spanish patterns prevailed until the first garden cemetery Metairie Cemetery was built on the site of an old racetrack in 1872 Like the older walled cemeteries this iconic venue served as a lavish expression of fraternal and ethnic unity a backdrop to exuberant social celebrations and a destination for sightseers During this time cultural and religious customs such as the celebration of All Saints Day and the practice of Voodoo rituals flourished within the spatial bounds of these resting places Over the course of the twentieth and twenty first centuries however episodes of neglect and destruction gave rise to groups that aimed to preserve the historic cemeteries of New Orleans an endeavor that according to Dedek is still wanting for resources and political will Containing abundant illustrations The Cemeteries of New Orleans is a comprehensive and intriguing resource on these fascinating historic sites Guidelines for Evaluating and Registering Cemeteries and Burial Places Elisabeth Walton Potter, 1992 The Changing World Religion Map Stanley D.

Brunn, 2015-02-03 This extensive work explores the changing world of religions faiths and practices It discusses a broad range of issues and phenomena that are related to religion including nature ethics secularization gender and identity Broadening the context it studies the interrelation between religion and other fields including education business economics and law The book presents a vast array of examples to illustrate the changes that have taken place and have led to a new world map of religions Beginning with an introduction of the concept of the changing world religion map the book first focuses on nature ethics and the environment It examines humankind's eternal search for the sacred and discusses the emergence of green religion as a theme that cuts across many faiths Next the book turns to the theme of the pilgrimage illustrated by many examples from all parts of the world In its discussion of the interrelation between religion and education it looks at the role of missionary movements It explains the relationship between religion business economics and law by means of a discussion of legal and moral frameworks and the financial and business issues of religious organizations The next part of the book explores the many new faces that are part of the religious landscape and culture of the Global North Europe Russia Australia and New Zealand the U S and Canada and the Global South Latin America Africa and Asia It does so by looking at specific population movements diasporas and the impact of globalization The volume next turns to secularization as both a phenomenon occurring in the Global religious North and as an emerging and distinguishing feature in the metropolitan cosmopolitan and gateway cities and regions in the Global South The final part of the book explores the changing world of religion in regards to gender and identity issues the political religious nexus and the new worlds associated with the virtual technologies and visual media Surveying and Mapping, 1979 CRM, 2006 Emerging Technologies and Museums Theopisti Stylianou-Lambert, Alexandra Bounia, Antigone Heraclidou, 2022-01-14 How can emerging technologies display reveal and negotiate difficult dissonant negative or undesirable heritage Emerging technologies in museums have the potential to reveal unheard or silenced stories challenge preconceptions encourage emotional responses introduce the unexpected and overall provide alternative experiences By examining varied theoretical approaches and case studies authors demonstrate how awkward contested and rarely discussed subjects and stories are treated or can be potentially treated in a museum setting with the use of the latest technology Teaching and Learning the Archaeology of the Contemporary Era Gabriel Moshenska, 2023-12-14 The tools and techniques of archaeology were designed for the study of past people and societies but for more than a century a growing number of archaeologists have turned these same tools to the study of the modern world This book offers an overview of these pioneering practices through a specifically pedagogical lens fostering an appreciation of the diversity and distinctiveness of contemporary archaeology and providing an evidence base for course proposals and curriculum design Although research in the field is well established and vibrant making critical contributions to wider debates around issues such as homelessness migration and the refugee crisis and legacies of war and conflict the teaching of contemporary archaeology in universities has until recently been relatively limited in comparison This selection of carefully curated case studies from as far afield as Orkney Iran and the USA is intended as a resource and an inspiration for both teachers and students presenting a set of tools and practices to borrow modify and apply in new contexts It demonstrates how interdisciplinarity practical work and radical pedagogies are of value not only for archaeology but also for fields such as history geography and anthropology and suggests new ways in which we can examine our 20th and 21st century existence and shape our collective future A Graveyard Preservation Primer Lynette Strangstad, 2013-08-28 A Graveyard Preservation Primer has proven itself to be a time tested resource for those who are seeking information regarding the protection and preservation of historic graveyards It was first written to help stewards of early burial grounds responsibly and effectively preserve their graveyards Much information found in the first edition of the book remains valid today Still much has changed in the twenty five years since its first publication and the new edition reflects these changes Attitudes and the understanding of historic graveyards as an important cultural resource have grown and developed over the years Likewise changes in treatments have also taken place Perhaps the most dramatic change in burial ground preservation is in the world of technology Changes in computers and the way we use them have also changed preservation practices in historic graveyards Discussion of technological changes in the new edition includes those in mapping surveying photography archaeology and other areas of evaluation and planning Consideration is given too to maintenance and conservation treatments including both traditional and newer treatments for stone concrete and metals Metals were not discussed in the earlier editions and protection and preservation of the landscape as it relates to graveyards is an expanded focus of this book The historic preservation of cemeteries and burial grounds is an aspect within the discipline of historic preservation that is unknown to many Those whose responsibility is the care of these historic sites may be unfamiliar with appropriate approaches to such areas as documentation planning maintenance and conservation Unwitting personnel can do irreparable harm to these important cultural resources The Primer is an effort to protect historic cultural resources by breaching the gap between maintenance staff cemetery boards friends groups and graveyard preservation professionals by offering readily available responsible information regarding graveyard protection and preservation It is also designed to assist those who would undertake a preservation project in the reclaiming of a neglected or abandoned historic cemetery The book is generously illustrated with diagrams and photos illustrating procedures and gravemarker and graveyard forms styles and materials The appendix section is completely updated and expanded offering a worthwhile resource in itself

Legislative Document New York (State). Legislature, 1927 Unearthing Jerusalem Katharina Galor, Gideon Avni, 2011-06-30 On a cold winter morning in January of 1851 a small group of people approached the monumental facade of an ancient rock cut burial cave located north of the Old City of Jerusalem The team consisting of two Europeans and a number of local workers was led by Louis F licien Caignart de Saulcy descendant of a noble Flemish family who later was to become a distinguished member of the French parliament As an amateur archaeologist and a devout Catholic de Saulcy was attracted to the Holy Land and Jerusalem in particular and was obsessed by his desire to uncover some tangible evidence for the city s glorious past However unlike numerous other European pilgrims researchers and adventurers before him de Saulcy was determined to expose the evidence by physically excavating ancient sites His first object of investigation constitutes one of the most attractive and mysterious monumental burial caves within the vicinity of the Old City from then onward to be referred to as the Tomb of the Kings Kubur al Muluk By conducting an archaeological investigation de Saulcy tried to prove that this complex represented no less than the monumental sepulcher of the biblical Davidic Dynasty His brief exploration of the burial complex in 1851 led to the discovery of several ancient artifacts including sizeable marble fragments of one or several sarcophagi It would take him another 13 years to raise the funds for a more comprehensive investigation of the site On November 17 1863 de Saulcy returned to Jerusalem with a larger team to initiate what would later be referred to as the first archaeological excavation to be conducted in the city from the Preface In 2006 some two dozen contemporary archaeologists and historians met at Brown University in Providence RI to present papers and illustrations marking the 150th anniversary of modern archaeological exploration of the Holy City The papers from that conference are published here presented in 5 major sections 1 The History of Research 2 From Early Humans to the Iron Age 3 The Roman Period 4 The Byzantine Period and 5 The Early Islamic and Medieval Periods The volume is heavily illustrated with materials from historical archives as well as from contemporary excavations It provides a helpful and informative introduction to the history of the various national and religious organizations that have sponsored excavations in the Holy Land and Jerusalem in particular as well as a summary of the current status of excavations in Jerusalem
