2. Explaining The president is elected by an indirect method of voting. What does that mean?

Voters do not vote directly for president. The Electoral College elects the president. When voters choose a candidate's name from the ballot, they are actually choosing a list of Electoral College members who pledge to vote for that candidate.

3. Analyzing How is it possible that the electoral votes of just a few small states can determine the outcome of a close presidential election?

Most states have a winner-take-all system. If a candidate wins by just a few popular votes in a state, that candidate wins all the state's electoral votes. The candidate might win several small states by winner-take-all and gain enough electoral votes to win the national election.
