Mapping Ideology Mapping Ideology:

Mapping Ideology Slavoj Žižek, 1994 Not so long ago the term ideology was in considerable disrepute Its use had become associated with a claim to know a truth beyond ideology a radically unfashionable position What then explains the sudden revival of interest in grappling with the questions that ideology poses to social and cultural theory as well as to political practice Mapping Ideology presents a comprehensive sampling of the most important contemporary writing on the subject Slavoj Žižek's introductory essay surveys the development of the concept from Marx to the present Terry Eagleton Peter Dews and Seyla Benhabib assess the decisive contributions of Lukács and the Frankfurt School A different tradition is revealed in an essay by the French post structuralist Michel Pêcheux while the study of ideology is exemplified in classic texts by Theodor Adorno Jacques Lacan and Louis Althusser An intersection of Gramscian and Althusserian motifs appears in a now famous debate over the dominant ideology thesis reprinted here Pierre Bourdieu succinctly formulates his departure from this tradition in an interview with Eagleton Further readings of the ideological are explored by Richard Rorty and Michelle Barrett Finally Fredric Jameson supplies an authoritative statement of the nature and position of the ideological in late capitalist society Mapping Ideology is an invaluable guide to what is now the most dynamic field of cultural theory

Mapping Ideology Slavoj Žižek, 2012-11-13 For a long time the term ideology was in disrepute having become associated with such unfashionable notions as fundamental truth and the eternal verities The tide has turned and recent years have seen a revival of interest in the questions that ideology poses to social and cultural theory and to political practice Mapping Ideology is a comprehensive reader covering the most important contemporary writing on the subject Including Slavoj Žižek's study of the development of the concept from Marx to the present assessments of the contributions of Lukács and the Frankfurt School by Terry Eagleton Peter Dews and Seyla Benhabib and essays by Adorno Lacan and Althusser Mapping Ideology is an invaluable guide to the most dynamic field in cultural theory Mapping Ideology Slavoj Žižek, 2012-11-13 For a long time the term ideology was in disrepute having become associated with such unfashionable notions as fundamental truth and the eternal verities The tide has turned and recent years have seen a revival of interest in the questions that ideology poses to social and cultural theory and to political practice Mapping Ideology is a comprehensive reader covering the most important contemporary writing on the subject Including Slavoj Žižek's study of the development of the concept from Marx to the present assessments of the contributions of Lukács and the Frankfurt School by Terry Eagleton Peter Dews and Seyla Benhabib and essays by Adorno Lacan and Althusser Mapping Ideology is an invaluable guide to the most dynamic field in cultural theory The Political Unconscious of Architecture Nadir Lahiji, 2011 Thirty years have passed since eminent cultural and literary critic Fredric Jameson wrote his classic work The Political Unconscious Narrative as a Socially Symbolic Act in which he insisted that there is nothing that is not social and historical indeed that everything is in the last analysis political Bringing together a team of leading scholars this book critically examines the important contribution made by this eminent cultural and literary critic and breaks new ground in architectural criticism offering insights into the interrelationships between politics culture space and architecture Fredric Jameson himself provides an afterword

Žižek on Race Zahi Zalloua,2020-02-20 Slavoj i ek s prolific comments on anti-Semitism Islamophobia scapegoating popular nationalism the refugee crisis Eurocentrism the War on Terror neocolonialism global justice and rioting comprise a dizzying array of thinking But what can we pull out of his various writings and commentaries on race in the contemporary world Is there anything approaching a i ekian philosophy of race Zahi Zalloua argues here that there is and that the often polemical style of i ek s pronouncements shouldn t undermine the importance and urgency of his work in this area Zalloua not only examines i ek s philosophy of race but addresses the misconceptions that have arisen and some of the perceived shortcomings in his work to date i ek on Race also puts i ek in dialogue with critical race and anti colonial studies dwelling on the sparks struck up by this dialogue and the differences gaps and absences it points up Engaging i ek s singular contribution to the analysis of race and racism i ek on Race both patiently interrogates and critically extends his direct comments on the topic developing more fully the potential of his thought In a response to the book i ek boldly reaffirms his theoretical stance clarifying further his often difficult to work out positions on some of his more controversial pronouncements

Child Trafficking, Youth Labour Mobility and the Politics of Protection Neil Howard,2016-12-01 This book provides the first overarching empirically grounded critical analysis of child trafficking as an idea ordering principle and artefact of politics It examines once hegemonic anti child trafficking discourse policy and practice and does so by placing secondary literature from around the world in conversation the author s paradigmatic case study of the situation in southern Benin It deconstructs the child trafficking paradigm contrasts it with real histories of child and youth labour and mobility and seeks to explain it by going inside the anti trafficking field In doing so Howard tells a gripping story of ideology at work

Slavoj Žižek Matthew Sharpe,2017-05-15 Slavoj Zizek has emerged as the pre eminent European cultural theorist of the last decade and has been described as the ultimate Marxist Lacanian cultural studies scholar His large and growing body of work has generated considerable controversy yet his texts are not structured as standard academic tomes In Slavoj Zizek A Little Piece of the Real Matthew Sharpe undertakes the difficult task of drawing out an evolving argument from all of Zizek s texts from 1989 to 2001 and reads them as the bearers of a single theoretical project providing an authoritative reliable clearly written and well structured account of Zizek s demanding body of work From an exposition of Zizek s social and philosophical critical theory the book moves to a critical analysis of Zizek s theoretical project and its political implications Sharpe concludes by suggesting that Zizek s work however raises as many questions as it answers questions both about Zizek s theoretical system and to the wider new Left in today s world

Housing and the City Katharina Borsi,Didem Ekici,Jonathan Hale,Nick Haynes,2022-06-28 Housing and the City explores housing histories theories and projects in diverse geographies It presents a geographically dispersed history of the twentieth century modern housing project and its social diagram juxtaposed with case studies from the past and the present that suggest that we can live and work differently While the contributions are diverse in their theoretical approach and geographical situation their juxtaposition yields transversal connections in the conception of the home and the city and highlights the diversity of architectural solutions in the formation of housing and its communities The collection also reveals architecture s contribution to the construction of the self and communities the individual and the collective as both urban spatial entities and socio political concepts Housing and the City provides essential reading for students academics and practitioners interested in the history theory or current design of housing At a time when cities are witnessing new ways of working changing social demographics increased geographical mobility and mass migrations as well as the pervasive threat of the climate crisis all trends exacerbated by the Covid 19 pandemic Housing and the City presents a historical and theoretical reflection on the question what does it mean to be at home in the city in the twenty first century

Modernism and Subjectivity Adam Meehan,2020-06-03 In Modernism and Subjectivity How Modernist Fiction Invented the Postmodern Subject Adam Meehan argues that theories of subjectivity coming out of psychoanalytic poststructuralist and adjacent late twentieth century intellectual traditions had already been articulated in modernist fiction before 1945 Offering a bold new genealogy for literary modernism Meehan finds versions of a postmodern subject embodied in works by authors who intently undermine attempts to stabilize conceptions of identity and who draw attention to the role of language in shaping conceptions of the self Focusing on the philosophical registers of literary texts Meehan traces the development of modernist attitudes toward subjectivity particularly in relation to issues of ideology spatiality and violence His analysis explores a selection of works published between 1904 and 1941 beginning with Joseph Conrad s prescient portrait of the subject interpolated by ideology and culminating with Samuel Beckett s categorical disavowal of the subjective I Additional close readings of novels by F Scott Fitzgerald Aldous Huxley James Joyce Nathanael West and Virginia Woolf establish that modernist texts conceptualize subjectivity as an ideological and linguistic construction that reverberates across understandings of consciousness race place and identity By reconsidering the movement s function and scope Modernism and Subjectivity charts how profoundly modernist literature shaped the intellectual climate of the twentieth century

Encyclopedia of Modern Political Thought (set) Gregory Claeys,2013-08-20 This groundbreaking new work explores modern and contemporary political thought since 1750 looking at the thinkers concepts debates issues and national traditions that have shaped political thought from the Enlightenment to post modernism and post structuralism Encyclopedia of Modern Political Thought is two volume A to Z reference that provides historical context to the philosophical issues and debates that have shaped attitudes toward democracy citizenship rights property duties justice equality community law power gender race and legitimacy over the last three centuries It profiles major and minor political thinkers and the national traditions both Western and non Western which continue to shape and divide political thought More than 200 scholars from leading international research institutions and organizations have provided signed entries that offer comprehensive coverage of Thought of regions and countries including African political thought American political thought Australasian political thought Australian and New Zealand Chinese political thought Indian political thought Islamic political Thought Japanese political thought and more Thought regarding contemporary issues such as abortion affirmative action animal rights European integration feminism humanitarian intervention international law race and racism and more The ideological spectrum from Marxism to neoconservatism including anarchism conservatism Darwinism and Social Darwinism Engels fascism the Frankfurt School Lenin and Leninism socialism and more Connections of political thought to key areas of politics and other disciplines such as economics psychology law and religion Notable time periods of political thought since 1750 Concepts including class democratic theory liberalism nationalism natural and human rights and theories of the state Theorists and political intellectuals both Western and non Western including John Adams Edmund Burke Mohandas Gandhi Immanuel Kant Ayatollah Khomeini Ernst Friedrich Schumacher George Washington and Mary Wollstonecraft Biography of a Blunder Dileep Edara, 2016-02-29 Engaging with a critical analysis of the base and superstructure thesis regarding which a surprising number of reputed Marxist thinkers betray a perpetual ambivalence by frequently deploying it in a variety of contexts but simultaneously airing various reservations about it this book proposes a radical departure from the presently predominant understanding of it The popular view of the base as comprising economics and superstructure as encompassing almost all other spheres of social life is criticised as panoramic or panoptic or the extended version to which Marx's rigorously defined base of production relations and superstructure of politico legal spheres is juxtaposed Revisiting Marx's formulations in his famous 1859 Preface described here as his purloined letters the study rehabilitates his restricted version and upholds its conceptual superiority over its extended avatar that is currently ubiquitous The substitution of Marx's restricted version with the widely believed extended version of the thesis is characterised here as a blunder and this book traces the biography of this blunder through the intricate and tortuous theoretical developments that traverse a transnational and multidisciplinary territory constituting the history of Marxism The last chapter argues for a paradigm shift in favour of the mode of production thesis in order to redeem the holistic vision of Marx This shift is necessitated by the extenuation of the status of the base and superstructure thesis that results from the restoration of Marx's restricted version This chapter grapples with the issues involved in preparing the ground for that shift It also contends that although these theoretical shifts are never formulated in a conscious and conclusive manner as is done here the best practices in Marxist analyses are always inspired by the methodological implications of the mode of production thesis and for this reason the thesis is claimed to be the conceptual unconscious of Marxism The Performance Apparatus Branislav Jakovljevic, 2025-04-15 The publication of Louis Althusser's 1969 article Ideology and Ideological State Apparatuses made a deep impact on cultural studies and was instrumental in the formation of the apparatus theory in film studies While contemporaneous with the emergence of performance art this article and the questions of ideology and apparatus it raises barely registered in the field of performance studies which was then in its formative phase Jakovljevi takes this absence of Althusser's apparatus theory from performance studies as an indicator of the ideological position of the field at the moment of its emergence arguing that while theories of ideology played no major role in early performance studies performance art itself offered a number of incisive critiques of ideology Jakovljevi looks at permutations of the apparatus by investigating the work of theorists such as Louis Althusser Michel Foucault Gilles Deleuze and Judith Butler and engagements with the apparatus by a number of artists such as Amiri Baraka Philippe Thomas New York Art Language Terry Fox Every house has a door Clive Robertson and Cassils Jakovljevi suggests that the centrality of behavior in early performance theory is important for the understanding of contemporary society which is dominated by surveillance capitalism If ideology is lodged in behaviors and if surveillance capitalism thrives on the monetization of the behavioral surplus then performance theory can make significant contributions to our understanding of the moment in which we live and the future we are facing The Performance Apparatus argues for the importance of continuing attention to the question of ideology in contemporary neoliberal order Criticism after Critique Jeffrey R. Di Leo, 2014-09-04 Presenting different ways to imagine criticism without critique this collection provides a survey of both the difficult times facing ideological critique and the ways in which literary criticism and aesthetics have been affected by changing attitudes toward critique Comparative Theology and the Problem of Religious Rivalry Hugh Nicholson, 2011-04-08 A model of interreligious theology that seeks to reconcile the ideal of religious tolerance with an acknowledgement of the extent to which religious communities construct identity on the basis of religious differences

The Sacred Is the Profane William Arnal, Russell T. McCutcheon, 2013 The Sacred Is the Profane collects nine essays written over several years by William Arnal and Russell T. McCutcheon that share a convergent perspective not simply that both the category and concept religion is a construct something that we cannot assume to be natural or universal but also that the ability to think and act religiously is quite specifically a modern political category in its origins and effects the mere by product of the modern state These collected essays substantially rewritten for this volume advance current scholarly debates on secularism debates which the authors argue insufficiently theorize the sacred secular church state and private public binaries by presupposing religion often under the guise of such terms as religiosity faith or spirituality to historically precede the nation state The essays return again and again to the question of what religion word and concept accomplishes now for those who employ it whether at the popular political or scholarly level The focus here for two writers from seemingly different fields is on the efficacy costs and the tactical work carried out by dividing the world between religious and political church and state sacred and profane Talking Politics in Broadcast Media Mats Ekström, Marianna Patrona, 2011-08-26 This book is a collection of studies on political interaction in a variety of broadcast namely news and current affairs programs political interviews audience participation programs and radio phone ins Following a growing scholarly interest in political discourses dialogic forms of news production and media talk in general a number of internationally acclaimed scholars investigate the discursive and interactional practices that give rise to the arena of public politics in contemporary society Chapters span an array of cultural contexts as diverse as Sweden Greece Belgium Flanders the U K Spain Israel the U S A Australia and China Authors combine an interest in discourse analysis and conversation analysis with different disciplinary orientations such as linguistics media and cultural studies sociology political science and social psychology The book uncovers current trends in media and political discourse and will be of interest to both students and scholars of media discourse and politics Experimental Cinemas in State-Socialist Eastern Europe Ksenya Gurshtein, Sonja

Simonyi, 2025-10-01 Was there experimental cinema behind the Iron Curtain What forms did experiments with film take in state socialist Eastern Europe Who conducted them where how and why These are the questions answered in this volume the first of its kind in any language Bringing together scholars from different disciplines the book offers case studies from Bulgaria the Czech Republic former East Germany Hungary Poland Romania and former Yugoslavia Together these contributions demonstrate the variety of makers production contexts and aesthetic approaches that shaped a surprisingly robust and diverse experimental film output in the region The book maps out the terrain of our present day knowledge of cinematic experimentalism in Eastern Europe suggests directions for further research and will be of interest to scholars of film and media art historians cultural historians of Eastern Europe and anyone concerned with questions of how alternative cultures emerge and function under repressive political conditions Derrida and the Writing of the Body Jones

Irwin, 2016-04-22 Michel Foucault refers to 1965 1970 as in philosophical terms the five brief impassioned jubilant enigmatic years This book reinterprets Jacques Derrida s work from this period most especially in L'écriture et la Différence Writing and Difference and argues that a transformation takes place here which has been marginalized in readings of his work to date Irwin follows with a look at how the grammatological opening becomes crucial for Derrida s work in the 1970s and beyond incorporating one of his last readings of embodiment from 2000 By drawing our attention to the politics of desire and sexuality this groundbreaking book engages with the work of key continental theorists including Artaud Bataille Nietzsche Heidegger Habermas and Cixous whilst also examining Derrida s relationship with Plato and feminist theory It will appeal to a wide range of readers within the social sciences and philosophy particularly those with interests in gender and sexuality social theory continental thought queer studies and literary theory An Arena for Higher Powers Olof

Sundqvist, 2015-11-16 In An Arena for Higher Powers Olof Sundqvist investigates ceremonial buildings and religious ruler strategies in Late Iron Age Scandinavia i e AD 550 1050 1100 The author offers here an account of the role played by religion in political undertakings among the pre Christian ruling elites at halls and cultic buildings Sundqvist applies a regional approach so as to be able to account for the specific historical cultural and social contexts The focus is mainly on three regions the Lake Mälaren area in Sweden Trøndelag in Norway and Iceland Since the political structure and other contextual aspects partly differed in the three regions the religious strategies for gaining legitimacy and authorization at the sanctuaries also varied to some extent in these areas Labors of Imagination Jan Mieszkowski, 2006 Challenging various assumptions about the relationship between language and politics this book offers an account of aesthetic and economic thought since the eighteenth century Providing a contribution to contemporary debates about culture and ideology it is suitable for scholars of literature history and political theory
