Making Sense of Marilyn Andrew Norman, 2018-04-17

The world continues to be fascinated with Marilyn Monroe, who dazzled with her beauty and captivated the hearts of millions worldwide with her innocence, charm, generosity, and kindness, and yet who died tragically at the age of only 36. Hollywood columnist, film critic, and author of The Fifty Year Decline and Fall of Hollywood, Ezra Goodman, writing in 1961, the year prior to her death, declared: "The riddle that is Marilyn Monroe has not been solved." Aside from the fact that Marilyn's so-called autobiography cannot be relied upon, making sense of her is certainly problematical, not least because in her early years she was insecure and introspective and unable even to make sense of herself. There has been much debate in particular about the frame of mind that Marilyn was in when, on the night of 5 August 1962, she knowingly or unknowingly took her own life. With his medical background, the author is in a position to shed new light on the enigmatic character of Marilyn Monroe, this fascinating yet deeply troubled former Hollywood icon who is regarded arguably as the world's most famous ever movie star.
