Champak English Delhi Press, 2017-06-01 Champak is the largest read children's magazine in India It is published in eight languages and has a total circulation of more than 300 000 copies The magazine is known for its fascinating tales on animal characters that not only leave deep imprint on the minds of its young readers but also impart them with knowledge and values they treasure for the rest of their lives

Educating Outside Helen Porter, 2018-03-22 Although the benefits of learning outside are well documented and more and more teachers are heading out post pandemic to teach their classes outdoor activities often decline as children progress through their education There are many reasons for this lack of time in the curriculum lack of training lack of teacher confidence or simply lack of inspiration Educating Outside contains a bank of outdoor learning ideas that can be used to enhance and enrich your classes learning experiences across the curriculum including in science history geography art and design English and maths Each lesson idea is linked to a specific programme of study and outlines required resources links to soft skills cross curricular opportunities and a broad lesson plan with suggested outcomes and photos All the ideas take place within the school grounds themselves which means plenty of opportunities to try out new activities without lengthy risk assessments extra time and additional expense

The Thinking Child Nicola Call, 2010-06-10 The book is packed with information about brain based learning but is easily accessible with great illustrations it's a book that is full of life and humour Like ALPS there are loads of practical ideas and suggestions backed up by the theory of why brain based learning works I wholeheartedly recommend this book for any early years practitioner or parent of a preschool child who wants to know more about how children learn This new edition of The Thinking Child is fully updated with reference to the new Early Years Foundation Stage EYFS and Every Child Matters. The book considers the most recent research into the brain and learning and offers practical advice on how to reflect these findings across the whole range of early years provision in schools and other settings. This new edition contains guidance on current challenges facing practitioners such as dealing with stressed and over-scheduled children, the philosophy and benefits of including every child and how to address practical issues that might arise in different settings. The authors offer practical advice on implementing statutory requirements, maintaining a balance between child-initiated and adult-led activities and making the most of existing resources.

What Pupils Say Andrew Pollard, Pat Triggs, 2001-01-01. The result of a research project, this work is an attempt to report on what has actually been happening in our schools, answers such questions as what difference have education reforms made to pupils' experience in schools and how has recent education policy impacted on children today.

Teaching Mathematics Creatively Linda Pound, Trisha Lee, 2021-09-30. This revised and updated third edition offers a range of strategies, activities and ideas to bring mathematics to life in the primary classroom. Taking an innovative and playful approach to maths teaching, this book promotes creativity as a key element of practice and offers ideas to help your students develop knowledge, understanding and enjoyment of the subject. In the creative classroom, mathematics becomes a tool to build confidence, develop problem-solving skills and motivate children. The fresh approaches explored in this book include a range of activities such as storytelling, music and construction, elevating maths learning beyond subject knowledge itself to enable students to see mathematics in a new way. Key chapters of this book explore Learning maths outdoors, make more noise, make more mess or work on a larger scale, Everyday maths, making sense of the numbers, patterns, shapes and measures children see around them, Music and maths, the role of rhythm in learning and music and pattern in maths. Stimulating, accessible and underpinned by the latest research and theory, this is essential reading for trainee and practising teachers who wish to embed creative approaches to maths teaching in their classroom.

Planning in the Moment with Two and Three Year Olds Anna Ephgrave, 2020-06-08. Children are most engaged and therefore learn best when they are following their own interests. In this book, Anna Ephgrave shows how her acclaimed planning in the moment approach can be used with two and three-year-olds with dramatic results for both children and staff. It reveals the impact that free-flowing, child-initiated play has on very young children's wellbeing, making them feel safe, secure and consequently helping them to be fully engaged in their learning. The first part of the book clearly explains the principles of child-initiated play and demonstrates how practitioners can create the best possible environment for very young children, also looking at the resources and practices that need to be in place for them to flourish. There is detailed guidance on the role of the practitioner, including how adults should observe children's play before deciding how or if to interact in that moment to ensure that each interaction moves learning forward and supports the child's unique development. The second part of the book tracks some of the events from each month in the toddler room of an outstanding preschool, following a cohort of children through a year to show how the setting moved from topic based adult led activities to a fully child led way of working Key features include Over 350 full colour photos to illustrate practice Specific guidance on using the in the moment approach with all children including those with additional needs Advice on working with parents individual children and groups Examples of individual learning journeys Photocopiable templates of focus child sheets Covering all aspects of practice from the organization of the room and outdoor environment to the routines and boundaries that ensure children are safe and happy this book is essential reading for anyone who works with two and three year olds
