House,2004 Some vols include supplemental journals of such proceedings of the sessions as during the time they were depending were ordered to be kept secret and respecting which the injunction of secrecy was afterwards taken off by the order of the House No One Left Standing Michele Wages,2016-11-14 Every public school student in the U S will experience various types of testing each year For decades the purpose and quality of such testing the time it takes to administer and take the test and how the data is used are the topic of discussion among students parents educators and policymakers Those supporting the importance of testing assume that more assessment improves student achievement and that the pros of testing outweigh their perceptions of the additional costs Those against excessive testing believe that schools are sacrificing learning time in order to test or prepare for the test They also believe that reduced learning time of non tested subjects occurs and more time is given to those students that are performing right below the proficiency score or bubble kids instead of developing every student s full potential Testing in U S public schools is out of control The stress and pressures for all involved have effects that are not even measurable in most instances Is this really the best thing for our schools Are there alternative measures that may serve our future in a better way Will the rewrite of NCLB be enough Congressional Record United States. Congress,2012 Evidence, Politics, and Education Policy Lorraine M. McDonnell,M. Stephen Weatherford,2021-02-01 In Evidence Politics and Education Policy political scientists Lorraine M McDonnell and M Stephen Weatherford provide an original analysis of evidence use in education policymaking to help scholars and advocates shape policy more effectively The book shows how multiple types of evidence are combined as elected officials and their staffs work with researchers advocates policy entrepreneurs and intermediary organizations to develop create and implement education policies Evidence Politics and Education Policy offers an in depth understanding of the political environment in which evidence is solicited and used Two key case studies inform the book s findings The primary case a major multimethod study examines the development and early implementation of the Common Core State Standards at the national level and in four states California Indiana Massachusetts and Tennessee A comparative case analyzes the evidence used in Congressional hearings over the twenty year history of the Children s Health Insurance Program Together the two cases illustrate the conditions under which different types of evidence are used and in particular how federalism the complexity of the policy problem and the policy s maturity shape evidence use McDonnell and Weatherford focus on three leverage points for strengthening the use of research evidence in education policy integrating research findings with value based policy ideas designing policies with incentives for research use built into their rules and organizational structures and training policy analysts to promote the use of research in policymaking venues Education in Cambodia Vincent McNamara,Martin Hayden,2022-05-14 This book is the most comprehensive account yet published about the education system in Cambodia It covers all system levels and draws upon the knowledge and insights of a wide range of leading Cambodian and foreign scholars The book focuses on how the system has developed and is making progress Significant achievements over the past two decades are evident but many problems remain including the poor quality of teaching research and institutional management Under funding is an ongoing obstacle but so too is a bureaucratic culture of resistance to change a history of weak governance and an anti reform sentiment deriving from a teacher centred and exam driven curriculum Achieving international standards must now be the system s highest priority To this end the system must rid itself of conservatism complacency and manipulation by parochial vested interests

China's Military Power Roger Cliff,2015-09-15 This book provides a comprehensive assessment of China s military capabilities in 2000 and 2010 with projections for 2020 Recognizing that military power encompasses more than weaponry it develops an original empirical framework for measuring militaries that also includes doctrine training and organizational structure

2012-2013 College Admissions Data Sourcebook Southeast Edition , Assessing the Common Core: What's Gone Wrong--And How to Get Back on Track Robert C. Calfee,Kathleen M. Wilson,2016-02-02 From distinguished educators this book imagines what our schools could look like if an authentic vision of the Common Core State Standards CCSS were put in place and thoughtfully critiques how and why implementation has faltered The authors outline a curriculum framework that focuses on student based inquiry and the use of formative assessment to monitor and guide student learning They provide workable innovative alternatives to the packaged instructional programs and summative tests that have come to be associated with the English language arts ELA standards Vignettes of diverse schools and districts highlight a range of successful approaches to making the CCSS work

Life by Algorithms Catherine Besteman,Hugh Gusterson,2019-05-23 Essays on the downsides dysfunctions and dangers of automated decision making An excellent survey of the algorithmically managed life Choice The phone systems that businesses use to screen calls The link between student standardized test scores and public schools access to resources The algorithms that regulate patient diagnoses and reimbursements to doctors The impenetrable corporate bureaucracy that can drive customers in need of help up the wall or drive them to suicide The storage sorting and analysis of massive amounts of information have enabled the automation of decision making at an unprecedented level Meanwhile computers have offered a model of cognition that increasingly shapes our approach to the world The proliferation of roboprocesses is the result as editors Catherine Besteman and Hugh Gusterson observe in this rich and wide ranging volume which features contributions from a distinguished cast of scholars in anthropology communications international studies and political science Though automatic processes are designed to be engines of rational systems the stories in Life by Algorithms reveal how they can in fact produce absurd inflexible or even dangerous outcomes Joining the call for algorithmic transparency the contributors bring exceptional sensitivity to everyday sociality into their critique to better understand how the perils of modern technology affect finance medicine education

Matthews, 2017-10-27 This guide provides library directors managers and administrators in all types of libraries with complete and up to date instructions on how to evaluate library services in order to improve them It's a fact today's libraries must evaluate their services in order to find ways to better serve patrons and prove their value to their communities In this greatly updated and expanded edition of Matthews seminal text you'll discover a breadth of tools that can be used to evaluate any library service including newer tools designed to measure customer and patron outcomes The book offers practical advice backed by solid research on virtually every aspect of evaluation including quantitative and qualitative tools data analysis and specific recommendations for measuring individual services such as technical services and reference and interlibrary loan New chapters give readers effective ways to evaluate critical aspects of their libraries such as automated systems physical space staff performance management frameworks eBooks social media and information literacy The author explains how broader and more robust adoption of evaluation techniques will help library managers combine traditional internal measurements such as circulation and reference transactions with more customer centric metrics that reflect how well patrons feel they are served and how satisfied they are with the library By applying this comprehensive strategy readers will gain the ability to form a truer picture of their library's value to its stakeholders and patrons The Malfunction of US Education Policy Richard P. Phelps, 2023-03-20 A 2023 Choice Reviews Outstanding Academic Title The Malfunction of US Education Policy Elite Misinformation Disinformation and Selfishness biased and inefficient information dissemination that has degraded US education research and policy since the year 2001 when a series of unfortunate disruptions began first the No Child Left Behind NCLB Act and federal imposition of an idiosyncratic and ineffectual testing program second the big bang reorganization of the US education testing industry from a stable cooperative oligopoly run by psychometricians to a commercially competitive free for all with more opportunist and customer pleasing ambitions and third the Common Core standards which mandated homogenous lower content standards onto the still required NCLB testing structure Billions from the federal government and wealthy foundations have transformed many once independent national education organizations into cargo cult dependents and promoters of the new order intolerant of divergent points of view The research and policy brain trust responsible comprised an alliance of convenience among two citation cartels of establishment and reform scholars and politicians and an astonishingly cooperative and unskeptical group of journalists. It succeeded in focusing attention on their work while diverting attention away from a much larger universe of others' work by ignoring, dismissing or demeaning it that included a century's worth of mostly experimental scholarship in the fields of psychology and program evaluation.

Introduction to the Design and Behavior of Bolted Joints John H. Bickford, Michael Oliver, 2022-12-30 The fully updated Fifth Edition of John H. Bickford's classic work updated by Michael Oliver provides a practical, detailed guide for the design, threaded, bolted joints, the tightening of threaded joints and the latest design procedures for long-term life. New sections on materials, threads and their strength have been added and coverage of FEA for design analysis is now included. Referencing the latest standards, this new edition combines fastener materials, explanation of how fasteners are made and how fasteners fit together, supplementing the basic design coverage included in previous versions of this authoritative text.

Introduction to the Design and Behavior of Bolted Joints: Non-Gasketed Joints will be of interest to engineers involved in the design and testing of bolted joints.

The Business of Education Joel Spring, John Eric Frankson, Corie A. McCallum, Diane Price Banks, 2017-07-06 The Business of Education: a comprehensive view of how education policy is made in the US and in some cases globally, analyzes and critiques the influence of educational policy networks in a wide range of contexts and from a variety of perspectives including testing, college preparation, juvenile detention centers, special education, the arts, teacher evaluation systems, education of undocumented immigrants, college faculty preparation and financial aid. A network chart in most chapters illustrates how the major political actors, mainly private philanthropic foundations, for-profit companies, government officials and politicians involved in the network are linked. Joel Spring, internationally renowned scholar and analyst of educational policy, situates and frames the network studies in an introduction discussing general theories of education policy networks.

African American Children's Poetry Wynn William Yarbrough, 2025-01-24 This work examines African American children's poetry through a variety of lenses: jazz poetics, the blues, nonsense verse, gender and working-class studies. African American children's poetry reveals legacies of segregation, the Great Migration, north and racial and gender reckonings in US history. Works by Gwendolyn Brooks, Langston Hughes, Lauryn Hill and Wynton Marsalis reveal warnings, scenes of empowerment and moments of remembrance for children and young adults. This is the first academic book to investigate African American children's poetry thematically across two centuries, including hip-hop lyrics and jazz poetry.
