from a range of contexts including college composition and developmental reading and writing professional and legal writing middle school English dissertation projects academic conferences and an online writing group the collection outlines three ways writing can help us stay human caring for ourselves and others honoring the times and spaces of writing and promoting justice Each essay describes specific strategies for using writing as a means for staying human in inhuman times The authors integrate personal stories descriptions of classroom assignments and activities and current research in writing studies Their work shows that writing can contribute to personal social and political transformation by nurturing vulnerability compassion and empathy among students and instructors alike

Transcultural Identities in Contemporary Literature Irene Gilsenan Nordin,Julie Hansen,Carmen Zamorano Llena,2013-10-01 In recent decades globalization has led to increased mobility and interconnectedness For a growing number of people contemporary life entails new local and transnational interdependencies which transform individual and collective allegiances Contemporary literature often reflects these changes through its exploration of migrant experiences and transcultural identities Calling into question traditional definitions of culture many recent works of poetry and prose fiction go beyond the spatial boundaries of a given state emphasizing instead the mixing and collision of languages cultures and identities In doing so they also challenge recent and contemporary discourses about cultural identities fostering a more nuanced understanding of the complexities of identity formation processes in diverse transcultural frameworks This volume analyses how traditional understandings of culture as well as literary representations of identity constructs can be reconceptualized from a transcultural perspective In four thematic sections focusing on migration cosmopolitanism multiculturalism and literary translanguaging the twelve essays included in this volume explore various facets of transculturality in contemporary poetry and fiction from around the world
