Initiation And Spiritual Realization:

Initiation and Spiritual Realization René Guénon, 2001 The present volume is a companion volume to Guénon's Perspectives on Initiation in which Guénon carefully defined the nature of initiation and of the organizations qualified to transmit it. In Initiation and Spiritual Realization he adds many details on related subjects including various inner and outer obstacles the aspirant may face, the need for attachment to a traditional exoterism, the role of the spiritual master and a closer examination of the degrees of spiritual realization.

Perspectives on Initiation René Guénon, 2004-05 The present volume, first published at the close of World War II and based on a series of articles on initiation originally written between 1932 and 1938 for Le Voile d'Isis (later renamed Revue Traditionnelle), is unique in giving a comprehensive account both of the conditions of initiation and of the characteristics of organizations qualified to transmit it. Guénon's distinction between the initiatic and the mystical paths, the first requiring a formal relationship with a master, a set of specific contemplative techniques and a chain of transmission stretching back to the origin of the tradition in question, the second generally lacking these elements, led to some controversy between those who accept this distinction and others who believe that initiatory and mystical spirituality are one and the same. The book presents such central principles as the dangers and barrenness of syncretism, the often dire consequences of fostering psychic powers and the superiority of sacerdotal initiation into the Greater Mysteries over royal initiation into the Lesser Mysteries, though both are necessary parts of the initiatic path. This last point precisely defines the rift between Guénon and Julius Evola, whose elevation of royal initiation over sacerdotal must be seen according to Guénon's criteria as a modern-day echo of the ancient revolt of the warrior caste against the priestly one. Whoever follows Guénon's argument will realize that a romantic warrior mysticism held no fascination for him and is in fact explicitly contrary to his principles. But Perspectives on Initiation provides indispensable points of reference for anyone attempting to distinguish between initiatic, pseudo-initiatic and counterfeit initiatic spiritualities in these profoundly uncertain times.

Pathways to an Inner Islam Patrick Laude, 2010-01-21 Pathways to an Inner Islam provides an introduction to the esoteric or spiritual inner Islam presented by Western thinkers Louis Massignon, Henry Corbin, René Guénon and Frithjof Schuon. Particularly interested in Sufism, the mystical tradition of Islam, these four twentieth-century authors who wrote in French played an important role in presenting Islamic spirituality to the West and have also had an influence in parts of the Muslim world such as Turkey, Iran and Pakistan. Patrick Laude brings them together to argue that an understanding of their inner Islam challenges reductionist views of Islam as an essentially legalistic tradition and highlights its spiritual qualities. The book discusses their thought on the definitions of spiritual Islam and Sufism, the metaphysical and mystical understanding of the Prophet and the Qur'an, the function of femininity in Islamic spirituality and the inner understanding of jihad. In addition, the writers' Christian backgrounds and their participation in the intellectual and spiritual traditions of both Christianity and Islam offer a dynamic perspective on interfaith dialogue Insights Into Islamic Esoterism and Taoism René Guénon, 2001 Ren Gu non 1886 1951 is undoubtedly one of the luminaries of the twentieth century whose critique of the modern world has stood fast against the shifting sands of recent philosophies His oeuvre of 26 volumes is providential for the modern seeker pointing ceaselessly to the perennial wisdom found in past cultures ranging from the Shamanistic to the Indian and Chinese the Hellenic and Judaic the Christian and Islamic and including also Alchemy Hermeticism and other esoteric currents at the same time it directs the reader to the deepest level of religious praxis emphasizing the need for affiliation with a revealed tradition even while acknowledging the final identity of all spiritual paths as they approach the summit of spiritual realization This small volume brings together a number of Gu non s early articles relating to Sufism tasawwuf or Islamic esoterism The later article Islamic Esoterism has also been included since it so well articulates the particularities of initiation in Islam by defining the fundamental elements of tasawwuf shari ah tariqah haqiqah The first constitutes the necessary fundamental exoteric basis the second the Way and its means the third the goal or final result In the other chapters Gu non expresses with his usual synthetic clarity what tawhid and faqr are and gives examples of traditional sciences relating angelology to the Arabic alphabet and chirolgy to the science of letters ilm al huruf A number of book and article reviews give interesting insights into traditional orthodoxy The Collected Works of Ren Gu non brings together the writings of one of the greatest prophets of our time whose voice is even more important today than when he was alive Huston Smith author of The World s Religions etc

The Everlasting Sacred Kernel Mircea a. Tamas, 2002 Modern literature can serve as a preparatory exercise to understand how fundamental symbols operate but at the same time it shows how dangerous and pernicious are the effects of originality individuality and inventiveness by altering and diverting the essential meanings of symbols The present work The Everlasting Sacred Kernel used Western literature to introduce the essence of traditional thinking and to illustrate how the laws of sacred symbolism should be considered The power of discrimination plays a major role in identifying the traditional vestiges carried by profane literature and unveiling in some cases how these were abused and altered

Self-Awareness and Meditation Charles Attfield, 2023-07-28 Charles Attfield has done the hard work of presenting Eastern Meditation wisdom in a form easily understood by the West in the tradition of his teacher and founder of Synchronicity Foundation Master Charles Cannon Jim Clarke Senior staff member at Synchronicity Foundation We are all on a journey a journey from illusion to truth Self Awareness and Meditation An Advanced Guide for Meditators looks at both the evolution of consciousness along this journey and meditation as an integral part of it A point comes when there is an awakening to the possibility that there is more than the consensus reality which we have been part of for eons We know that there is something more and so our search begins Eventually with meditation our focus moves within as we search for the Self our true nature which until now has been hidden in illusion waiting for our awakening and eventual joyful return Self Awareness and Meditation focuses on the return journey back to the Self True meditation is a state of awareness which comes naturally as we increasingly align with our soul We realise that we are not the doer and then comes a different perspective about allowing our false reality to fall away and we discover that consciousness not the ego has been running the show all the time
