Group Supervision A Guide To Creative Practice Counselling Supervision Series:

Group Supervision Brigid Proctor, 2000-06-22 This much awaited book makes a welcome entry into the rather sparse British literature on group supervision Counselling at Work This is a welcome addition to the literature on Counselling Supervision I found it especially stimulating having used various models of Group Supervision as a Senior Probation Officer and now using it in Listening Post In both examples the method did not replace individual supervision but greatly enhanced it I thank Brigid Proctor for her guidelines for good practice and stimulating ideas for using the potential of groupwork within the supervision process and recognise it as a really valuable Sage like contribution ACCORD This p Group Supervision

Brigid Proctor, 2008-09-23 The Second Edition of Group Supervision is essential reading for all participants in group supervision It offers a comprehensive insight into the complexities of organising managing and creatively facilitating a group or of being a practitioner in a cooperative peer group Professor Sue Wheeler University of Leicester Among the plethora of supervision books Group Supervision is the only one dedicated to group work Brigid Proctor shows how group supervision can provide a supportive environment in which practitioners learn from each others experience finding positive and creative ways of working with the diversity which characterises all groups Examining tasks roles and responsibilities of both supervisors and supervisees she describes the skills needed for managing different types of group developing a flexible leadership style making sense of group and individual needs using creative methods The Second Edition of this popular text features up to date research findings on group supervision in organisations and further coverage of the challenge of ethical decision making in groups A new chapter considers the advantages of groups for supervisor development and training stressing the urgency for greater accountability and research Essential for all supervisors and trainers the practical information in this book will also benefit those who manage organizations providing group supervision for counsellors and psychotherapists be they employees volunteers or trainees Brigid Proctor Fellow of the BACP is a retired Director of Counselling courses at South West London College and has subsequently worked freelance as a counsellor supervisor trainer and consultant
