Dying and Death in Oncology Lawrence Berk, 2016-10-11 This book brings together in one volume many important topics about death and dying including the pathophysiology of death the causes of death among cancer patients the ethics of death the legal aspects of death for the physician and for the patient and caregivers the economics of death the medical management of the dying patient including pain and dyspnea the prediction of death and the spiritual management of the dying patient It also discusses other medical and humanistic aspects of death and dying such as the historical definition of death and various cultures and religions viewpoints on death and the afterlife Everybody including every patient with cancer will die and every physician will have to assist dying patients Oncologists face this prospect more often than many physicians And yet to date there has been no comprehensive textbook on Thanatology the academic discipline studying death and dying to assist oncologists in this difficult task This book will help the physician to understand his or her own relationship with death and to communicate about death and dying with the patient and the patient's caregivers

Routledge Library Editions: Ritual Various, 2021-09-30 This small but interdisciplinary collection on ritual originally published between 1974 and 1998 draws together research by leading academics in the area of anthropology sociology history and religion and provides a focused approach to the study of ritual in human society Comprised of 4 volumes the collection offers a diverse study of how ritual plays a vital role in a variety of circumstances including Industrial society Diasporas Reproduction Society Death and bereavement This academically stimulating set provides a uniquely interdisciplinary look at an area of study currently regaining prominence It brings back into print a selection of previously unavailable titles which will still be of interest to academics today as at their time of publication It will provide a must have resource for academics and students seeking to better understand the use of ritual from a wide selection of areas The collection will appeal to not only those working in the area of anthropology but also history sociology and religion

Death and Spirituality Kenneth Doka, John Morgan, 2016-12-05 An elderly Chinese immigrant hospitalized with terminal disease requests to burn incense A 30 year old Roman Catholic gay male dying of AIDS is consumed by deepening moral guilt troubled by beliefs he thought he abandoned years ago A mother whose teenage son died of an aneurism is angry at God over his death yet fearful of expressing that anger lest He punish her again A young widower seemingly has difficulty expressing grief believing it to be a sign of weak faith All of these examples illustrate the kinds of issues that clinicians and counselors constantly encounter For although North American society has long been characterized as secular this does not deny the potency of spiritual concerns and religious values on the individual level Polls affirm that vast majorities of North Americans both believe in God and consider religion important in their lives This is clearly evident when one faces the crisis of dying or bereavement For one of the strengths of belief is that it provides support and succor at a time when secular explanations are largely silent For these reasons educators and clinicians have long recognized the significance that religious and spiritual themes have in counseling with the dying and bereaved Yet in cultures as religiously diverse as the U S and Canada caregivers and educators may feel inadequate to the task Death and Spirituality addresses this need Specifically it seeks to reach two perhaps overlapping audiences First it considers the needs death related counselors and educators seeking to provide them with both a sense of the norm of religious tradition and the religious and spiritual issues that might arise in illness and bereavement as well as suitable interventions approaches and resources that might be useful in assisting clients in examining and resolving such issues The book also speaks to the complementary needs of clergy who also may wish to assist parishioners and others as they face the spiritual and psychological crisis of dying and grief

Culture, Ritual and Revolution in Vietnam Shaun Kingsley Malarney, 2002-01-01 This is a study of the history and consequences of the revolutionary campaign to transform culture and ritual in northern Vietnam Based on official documents and several years of field research it provides a detailed account of the nature of revolutionary cultural reform in Vietnam

Trauma and Grief R. Scott Sullender, 2018-07-06 In today's world trauma and traumatic loss are increasingly common This book surveys the important constructs concepts and dynamics of trauma loss grief and growth offering resources and strategies that ministers and other spiritual caregivers can use as they support and facilitate people in their journey from trauma recovery to grief work to spiritual growth The book presents a framework for understanding the interrelationship between trauma recovery work grief work and spiritual growth The author argues that each of these components is essential for a full and complete healing from trauma and traumatic losses and that they work together in the ongoing process of healing Traumas and traumatic losses are times of crisis in the sense that they are turning points in people's lives people can either grow through the experience or decline under the weight of their unbearable sorrow and anxiety How people handle traumas and significant losses may be the most important variable in their psychological relational and spiritual health The author gives special attention to describing ways in which God might draw close to the traumatized and bereaved in their process of recovery and healing

Death and Bereavement around the World John D. Morgan, Pittu Laungani, 2021-03-24 The make up of the contemporary nation state is increasingly multiethnic and statistics show that in many cases no one group is numerically the largest Interethnic relations are given global visibility by the media while much that happens among different groups depends on context Editors John D Morgan King's College London and Pittu Laungani South Bank and Manchester Universities England have gathered leading international authorities to produce Death and Bereavement Around the World the first of a five volume presentation and analysis of the ways different peoples experience dying and grief Effective bereavement care requires a knowledge of an individual's physical social educational and spiritual existence since the expressions of grief and the needs that emerge vary widely from one to another and are subject to past experiences cultural expectations personal beliefs and relationships An individual's identity comes from a sense of personal uniqueness solidarity with group ideals continuity with the past present and future and from the culture by which an individual is raised or adopted This first volume discusses the major religious traditions of the world and how they help followers deal with the fundamentals of life

Liturgy with Style and Grace Gabe Huck, Gerald T. Chinchar, 1998 This beautifully written classic book teaches about those things that belong to all Catholics the Mass the sacraments the seasons of the church's year Brief two page articles are grouped into units on central topics Discussion questions and helpful quotations from a variety of sources involve the individual reader the classroom or a study group in a lively dialogue

Psychology for Christian Ministry Fraser N. Watts, Rebecca Nye, Sara B. Savage, 2002 This work is a comprehensive introduction to psychology as it is relevant to those training for and working in the clergy Proceeding from the understanding that psychology is the discipline that illuminates those processes of personal change and growth central to religion the volume ranges over many aspects of the subject covering social developmental educational occupational and counselling psychology as well as the psychology of religion This professional handbook is tailored to meet the specific needs of the Christian ministry as they encounter psychology in their training and their everyday work Crisis Ministry Daniel G. Bagby, 2002 Covers more than 25 pastoral care crises arranged from A Z Abortion to Suicide
