Phyllis Wachob, 2009-10-02 Critical pedagogy is not a set of ideas but a way of doing learning and teaching Canagarajah 2005 This definition puts CP squarely in the classroom and leads us to view how teachers interact with students and how students treat one another while negotiating institutional and societal expectations The chapters in the book use a variety of methods to address questions of power within educational institutions from classrooms to the ministries of education All the contributors are or have been teachers in the Middle East from Egypt to Iran Their nationalities range from Egyptian to American Canadian British Tunisian and Iranian Ten of the contributors are women All have conducted research and or invited participation from among students and fellow teachers to explore issues of Critical Pedagogy from various perspectives The question of physical space relates to power but is also related to linguistic space student choice is not only related to linguistic space but also to motivation and thus empowerment Changing teachers beliefs leads to empowerment for teachers but also empowerment for students Educational policy that recognizes social and personal identity reflects back to personal motivation These studies meet and mesh complement and sometimes take different viewpoints However all the studies embrace the concept that we must respect and nurture the human in our students that we as teachers are the front line as enablers of our students empowerment If we do not provide the space and honor their dignity our students cannot claim and embrace their power Canagarajah S 2005 Critical Pedagogy in L2 Learning and Teaching In E Hinkel Ed Handbook of Research in Second Language Teaching and Learning pp 931 949 Mahwah New Jersey Lawrence Erlbaum Associates

interact during a certain time The number of group members is that small that there is the possibility for every member to interact with every other group member face to face If people meet by accident who are not close friends it will be not a group If you want to learn more about the formation of groups you will find two leading models which display the phases of group formation On the one hand there is the Bernstein and Lowy model on the other hand Bruce Tuckman also designed a phase model which shows the formation of groups Roles in groups can be positive and negative They are supporting the group as collectivity and are not only the result of individual need abilities and characteristics There are different ways for the classification of groups Groups can be classified in general according to following characteristics size topic task of the group Also a way for classifying groups is the classification according the Riemann Thomann Cross The next chapters this assignment shows a rough overview of the various possibilities for the classification of groups As there are many influencing facts for the effectiveness of groups and very contradictory interests the advantages for one group of interest are the disadvantages for the other group of interest The economical group of interest measures the effectiveness of a group by its productivity flexibility and quality The individual in a group identifies effectiveness in the group by reasonable tasks feeling of togetherness in the group and diverse interpersonal relationships At workplaces with friends together or even with complete strangers informal groups emerge nearly everywhere in real life The aims of informal groups are usually but not always different from those of formal groups The development within the group is apart from small differences not much different from formal groups The process of forming storming norming performing and eventually adjourning as Professor Tuckman has described is nearly the same One crucial point is that informal groups are NOT part of a formal organisation and members in most of these cases are free to leave whenever they want Therefore it is unusual to undergo e.g. a destructive storming Before it comes to such a storming often one or more members will leave the group in advance Leadership is especially in informal groups a difficult topic But
