Finding a coherent set of answers to lifes age old questions can be an onerous undertaking Yet the questions abound in our culture and a rational collection of answers is seemingly ungraspable Commoners have been led to believe that beliefs are irreversibly inconsequential Youngsters are boldly instructed to merely seek success Teachers unblushingly preach to students that there is no such thing as truth With uncountable opinions and beliefs put forth who ought we to trust Should we give credence to the preachy words of secularists who do not even have the backbone to adhere to a logically consistent worldview Are we to trust the pop psychologists who unmindfully and unabashedly bypass lifes essential questions Would it be shrewd of us to subscribe to the pluralists who lack the decency to study incommensurable worldviews yet absurdly accept contrasting worldviews as equally valid Whom shall we trust In a culture where common sense has commonly vanished amongst commoners we would do well to welcome common sense into our lives Thinking episodically has become the modern routine and yet such a routine suffocates us in the ruins of our own lack of thinking for thinking episodically is really no way of thinking at all Perhaps just perhaps the answers to life's most pressing questions are within our reach but first we must be willing to embrace common sense Teaching Manual for Great Catholic Writings J. D. Childs, 2006
