Family Psychology William M. Pinsof, Jay L. Lebow, 2005-09-01 This book is the product of a multi year initiative sponsored by the Division of Family Psychology 43 of the American Psychological Association the Family Institute at Northwestern University Oxford University Press and Northwestern University to bring together the leading researchers in family psychology in five major areas of great social and health relevance good marriage depression divorce and remarriage partner violence and families and physical health The book embodies a series of five systematically and developmentally informed mini books or manuals critically examining the existing research in each area and illuminating new directions for future research The chapters in each area cover a wide range of distinct issues and diverse populations Through a pre publication face to face two day conference the editors invited each of the authors in each specific domain to collaborate and coordinate their chapters creating a synergy for the development of new knowledge Additionally the editors encouraged the authors to step outside of their own specific research program to reflect on the unique challenges and opportunities in their research domain The resulting book provides the next generation of theorists researchers and therapists with an in depth and fresh look at what has been done and what remains to be done in each area If you are a social scientist working in these or related areas the book will sharpen and stimulate your research If you are a young researcher or are contemplating entering the field of family psychology the book lays out pathways and strategies for entering and unraveling the mysteries in each area Lastly if you are someone who wants to understand the state of art of research in these very relevant domains this book takes you to the top of mountain with very best guides and provides a vista that compels and illuminates Intimate Violence Across the Lifespan Tova Band-Winterstein,Zvi Eisikovits,2014-07-30 Evidence pertaining to continual violence throughout the life cycle coupled with the experience of growing old in a life permeated by intimate violence is scarce And the focus is usually on the victims usually the older battered women and seldom on their aging partners or adult children who were part and parcel of the violent dynamics in the family system With the increase in longevity and the older population s subsequent growth in size the number of elderly couples living and aging in long lasting conflictive relationships is on the rise The relatively intense preoccupation with elder abuse in the gerontological literature in recent years has not specifically addressed long term intimate violence among the old adults and its lasting consequences Similarly the literature on intimate intergenerational relationships in old age has usually focused on normative exchanges between partners and their extended family including their adult children Therefore conflictive relationships and particularly violent ones have also fallen outside the scope of this body of research This volume describes and analyzes the various perspectives of family members concerning life and particularly old age in the shadow of long term intimate violence It explores how people make sense out of living and aging in violence how interpersonal familial and cross generational relationships are perceived and reconstructed and how we ness is achieved if at all in such families Sexual and Intimate Partner Violence Prevention Programs Evaluation Guide ,2007 Women, Crime, and Justice Elaine Gunnison,Frances P. Bernat,Lynne Goodstein,2016-05-19 Women Crime and Justice Balancing the Scales presents a comprehensive analysis of the role of women in the criminal justice system providing important new insight to their position as offenders victims and practitioners Draws on global feminist perspectives on female offending and victimization from around the world Covers topics including criminal law case processing domestic violence gay lesbian and transgendered prisoners cyberbullying offender re entry and sex trafficking Explores issues professional women face in the criminal justice workplace such as police culture judicial decision making working in corrections facilities and more Includes international case examples throughout using numerous topical examples and personal narratives to stimulate students critical thinking and active engagement
