Magic Hours Essays On Creators And Creation:

Magic Hours Tom Bissell, 2018-03-20 Award winning essayist Tom Bissell explores the highs and lows of the creative process He takes us from the set of The Big Bang Theory to the first novel of Ernest Hemingway to the final work of David Foster Wallace from the films of Werner Herzog to the film of Tommy Wiseau to the editorial meeting in which Paula Fox's work was relaunched into the world Originally published in magazines such as The Believer The New Yorker and Harper's these essays represent ten years of Bissell's best writing on every aspect of creation be it Iraq War documentaries or video game character voices and will provoke as much thought as they do laughter What are sitcoms for exactly Can art be both bad and genius Why do some books survive and others vanish Bissell's exploration of these questions make for gripping unforgettable reading

Conversations with Jim Harrison, Revised and Updated Robert DeMott, 2018-12-18

Conversations with Jim Harrison Revised and Updated offers a judicious selection of interviews spanning the writing career of Jim Harrison 1937-2016 from its beginnings in the 1960s to the last interview he gave weeks before his death in March 2016 Harrison labeled himself and lived as a quadra schizoid writer He worked in fiction poetry nonfiction and screenwriting and he published more than forty books that attracted an international following These interviews supply a lively narrative of his progress as a major contemporary American author This collection showcases Harrison's pet peeves his candor and humility his sense of humor and his patience He does not shy from his authorial obsessions especially his efforts to hone the novella for which he is considered a contemporary master or the frequency with which he defied polite narrative conventions and created memorable resolute female characters Each conversation attests to the depth and range of Harrison's considerable intellectual and political preoccupations his fierce social and ecological conscience his aesthetic beliefs and his stylistic orientations in poetry and prose

Queering Masculinities in Language and Culture Paul Baker, Giuseppe

Balirano, 2017-12-08 How do we learn what it means to be a man And how do we learn to question what it means to be a man This collection comprises a set of original interdisciplinary chapters on the linguistic and cultural representations of queer masculinities in a range of new and older media television film online forums news reporting advertising and fiction This innovative work examines new and emerging forms of gender hybridisation in relation to complex socialisation and immigration contexts including the role of EU institutions in ascertaining asylum seekers sexual orientation and the European laws on gender policy The book employs numerous analytical approaches including critical discourse analysis corpus linguistics multimodal analysis literary criticism and anthropological and social research The authors show how such texts can disrupt question or complicate traditional notions of what it means to be a man queering the idea that men possess fixed identities or desires instead arguing that masculinity is constantly changing and negotiated through the cultural and political overlapping contexts in which it is regularly produced These nuanced analyses will bring fresh insights for students and scholars of gender masculinity and queer studies linguistics anthropology and semiotics
