Clark,2021-01-09 This book is the first scholarly study of the famous Jesuit Chinese children s primer the Four Character Classic written by Giulio Aleni 1582 1649 while living in Fujian China This book also includes masterful translations of both Wang Yinglin s 1551 1602 hallowed Confucian Three Character Classic and Aleni s Chinese catechism that was published during the Qing 1644 1911 Clark s careful reading of the Four Character Classic provides new insights into an area of the Jesuit mission in early modern China that has so far been given little attention the education of children This book underscores how Aleni s published work functions as a good example of the Jesuit use of normative Chinese print culture to serve the catechetical exigencies of the Catholic mission in East Asia particularly his meticulous imitation of Confucian children s primers to promote decidedly Christian content

Asian Case Studies on Translating Christianity Heejun Yang,2024-03-14 Asian Case Studies on Translating Christianity brings historical expressions of Asian Christianity into contemporary theological conversation The book offers case studies of Jingjiao Christianity in Tang China the Jesuit mission in Ming China indigenous theology in colonial Korea and contemporary Asian American theology The case studies especially examine how the names and understandings of the Trinity have been changed in the processes of borrowing erasing and elevating the meanings of Eastern local concepts to translate the message of Christianity Not only are these diverse expressions of Christianity unique and valuable in and of themselves but they testify that diverse understandings are a God given phenomenon Heejun Yang draws on contemporary theological hermeneutics to argue that it is the self communicative nature of God that helps articulate the diverse understandings of God in these cases Yang posits the Triune God as both the starting and ending points of the Christian hermeneutic process and claims that this understanding can be a way for the church to embrace different Christian communities while moving forward in their own unique complexities Giulio Aleni, Kouduo richao, and Christian-Confucian Dialogism in Late Ming Fujian Song Gang, 2018-10-03 Christian dialogic writings flourished in the Catholic missions in late Ming China This study focuses on the mission work of the Italian Jesuit Giulio Aleni (1582-1649) in Fujian and the unique text Kouduo richao (Diary of Oral Admonitions 1630-1640) that records the religious and intellectual conversations among the Jesuits and local converts By examining the mechanisms of dialogue in Kouduo richao and other Christian works distinguished by a certain dialogue form the author of the present work aims to reveal the formation of a hybrid Christian-Confucian identity in late Ming Chinese religious experience By offering the new approach of dialogic hybridization the book not only treats dialogue as an important yet underestimated genre in late Ming Christian literature but it also uncovers a self-other identity complex in the dialogic exchanges of the Jesuits and Chinese scholars Giulio Aleni Kouduo richao and Christian-Confucian Dialogism in Late Ming Fujian is a multi-faceted investigation of the religious philosophical ethical scientific and artistic topics discussed among the Jesuits and late Ming scholars This comprehensive research echoes what the distinguished Sinologist Erik Zürcher (1928-2008) said about the richness and diversity of Chinese Christian texts produced in the 17th and 18th centuries Following Zürcher's careful study and annotated full translation of Kouduo richao (Monumenta Serica Monograph Series LVI 1-2) the present work features a set of new findings beyond the endeavours of Zürcher and other scholars With the key concept of Christian-Confucian dialogism it tells the intriguing story of Aleni's mission work and the thriving Christian communities in late Ming Fujian The Foundation of the Catholic Mission in Hong Kong, 1841-1894 Ha Keloon Louis, 2018-06-02 The Catholic Church is one of the few institutions that have survived since the inception of the British colony She has contributed much during its development As early as 1841 she set up a mission in Hong Kong She and her various religious orders and congregations engaged in charitable works for the poor and the elderly in the early days of Hong Kong greatly relieving the burden on the newly established colonial government Today apart from religious services the Catholic Church still plays an important role in providing Hong Kong with diversified and professional services in medical care education and social welfare Historical studies on the Catholic Church in Hong Kong of a comprehensive nature are rare in comparison with other religions The reasons of this may include the complicated organizational structure of the Catholic Church and the multiple languages used in the archival documents such as Latin French Italian and Portuguese As a Catholic clergy the author of this book Fr Louis Ha is knowledgeable about the internal operation of the Church He is also familiar with many European languages which help him master the original records and guarantee the credible result of his research The contents of this book are based on the large number of documents provided by the Hong Kong Diocesan Archives Office by archives in the Vatican and in various religious orders in Europe As an objective and impartial historian Fr Louis Ha honestly pointed out the power struggle in the Church the confrontation with the government the competition between Chinese and foreign clerics In fact a candid description of the Catholic Church in Hong Kong is shown in front of the readers Definitely it is a precious reference book for the study of the local society religion education and charitable work in early Hong Kong

The Rushing on of the Purposes of God Andrew T. Kaiser,2016-12-09 This sweeping survey is the first complete account of nearly 150 years of Protestant missions in Shanxi Province China Beginning with the arrival of the Protestant missionaries during the 1878 North China Famine and the fiery test of the 1900 Boxer Uprising and subsequent martyrdom of hundreds of Shanxi Christians this important book brings together the historical accounts of the spread of Christianity in the province all the way up to the present From the personal papers and contemporary records of the missionaries Kaiser draws a vivid picture of the women and men who devoted their lives to advancing the cause of the gospel in Shanxi He weaves the stories of bold local Christians like Pastor Hsi and such notable missionaries as Gladys Aylward Timothy Richard Hudson Taylor and the Cambridge Seven into the broader tapestry of China missions tracing the birth and development of a thriving and dynamic Shanxi church Drawing on mission archives academic studies and firsthand knowledge this fusion of scholarly inquiry with missionary biography aims to both inspire and inform making the lessons of the missionary past available to a new generation of readers

Borrowed Place Riika-Leena Juntunen,2015-08-17 In Borrowed Place Mission Stations and Local Adaption in Early Twentieth Century Hunan Riika Leena Juntunen creates a microhistorical narrative around the establishment reception and development of Lizhou protestant stations during the turbulent years of popular nationalism and early communist activity The book examines the changing place identity around the stations from political religious ritual cultural and gendered perspectives revealing a Chinese semi religious community with varying motivations and in constant dialogue with its surroundings The group developed its own normative code and hierarchy and it offered both economic and religious benefits according to local models Yet the developing political situation also meant it had to solve the question of anti foreignism to be able to continue its existence

Missionary Spaces Thomas Coomans,2024-05-02 The spatial turn of missionary places Situated at the crossroads of missionary history imperial history and colonial architecture this volume examines the architectural staging and spatial implications of the worldwide expansion of Christianity in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries By focusing on specific architectural fragments analysing the intersection of Christian edifices in colonial and traditional urban settings or unravelling the social understanding of missionary places each chapter strives to understand the agency of missionary spaces Bringing together scholars from different disciplines and fields this book aims to centre those missionary spaces by approaching them not merely as d cor around and within which the missionary encounter was acted but by making them part and parcel of it Through its approach Missionary Spaces provides a new paradigm for scrutinising the spatial turn for missionary histories and contributes to the increased attention across the humanities to space place and location since the late 1990s Space does not occur as an historical given but as a social construction to be analysed while at the same time having explanatory value of its own This book focuses on Africa and the Chinese Region with contributions on Burundi China Congo Egypt Ghana Kenya and Taiwan
