Mainstreaming Men Into Gender and Development Sylvia H. Chant, Matthew C. Gutmann, 2000 Based on research commissioned by the World Bank this books primary focus is on incorporating men in gender and development interventions at the grass roots level It draws attention to some of the key problems that have arisen from male exclusion as well as to the potential benefits of and obstacles to men s inclusion Mainstreaming Gender in Development Fenella Porter, Caroline Sweetman, 2005 Articles discuss how gender mainstreaming has been understood in different organisations provide examples of good work which supports the empowerment of women and look beyond gender mainstreaming to what new possibilities exist for transformation Senegal Robin Sharp, 1994 Up to date view of Senegal from the perspective of the poor

Feminisms in Development Andrea Cornwall, Elizabeth Harrison, Ann Whitehead, 2013-07-04 This collection of essays by leading feminist thinkers from North and South constitutes a major new attempt to reposition feminism within development studies Feminism's emphasis on social transformation makes it fundamental to development studies Yet the relationship between the two disciplines has frequently been a troubled one At present the way in which many development institutions function often undermines feminist intent through bureaucratic structures and unequal power quotients Moreover the seeming intractability of inequalities and injustice in developing countries have presented feminists with some enormous challenges Here emphasizing the importance of a plurality of approaches the authors argue for the importance of what feminisms have to say to development Confronting the enormous challenges for feminisms in development studies this book provides real hope for dialogue and exchange between feminisms and development Women and Gender Equity in Development Theory and Practice Jane S. Jaguette, Gale Summerfield, 2006-03-27 Collection of essays on issues of women and development attempting to bridge theory and practice in the post 9 11 era to reflect debates in various realms from the environment land rights and identity to information technology employment and poverty Masculinities and Femininities in Latin America's Uneven Development Susan Paulson, 2015-08-20 This book forges a new approach to historical and geographical change by asking how gender arrangements and dynamics influence the evolution of institutions and environments This new theoretical approach is applied via mixed methods and a multi scale framework to bring together unusually diverse phenomena Regional trends demonstrated with quantitative data include the massive incorporation of women into paid work demographic masculinization of the countryside and feminization of cities rapidly increasing gaps that favor women over men in education and life expectancy and extraordinarily high levels of violence against men Case studies in Mexico Chile and Bolivia explore changes influenced by gender practices and expectations that involve men in different ways than women they also highlight dissimilarities and power relations between differently positioned masculine groups Ethnographic studies of culturally diverse arrangements together with particular attention to subordinate versus dominant masculinities complicate the gender binaries that circumscribe so much research and policy Drawing attention to imbalances and conflicts generated by inappropriate models and uneven developments the book points to opportunities for experimenting with and adapting the sociocultural institutions that govern relations among humans and between humans Gender Inclusive Adam Jones, 2008-12-02 Gender Inclusive offers a challenging and and their environment unconventional reinterpretation of gender and mass violence Compiling essays and excerpts drawn from nearly two decades of Adam Jones's writing on gender and politics this stimulating and diverse collection of essays explores vital issues surrounding gendercide gender selective mass killing including How gender shapes men and women as victims and perpetrators of mass violence including genocide The range of gender selective atrocities inflicted upon males especially the gendercidal killing of civilian men of battle age The victimization of women and girls worldwide including the structural forms of violence gendercidal institutions directed against them Genocidal violence throughout modern history with a particular focus on the Balkans and Rwanda In depth critiques of prevailing gender framings in academic scholarship mass media and the policy sphere Adam Jones recently selected as one of fifty key thinkers in Holocaust and genocide studies contests prevailing interpretations of gender and violence arguing that they fail to capture the broad range of gendered experience His global historical treatment is essential reading for anyone with an interest in genocide human rights and gender studies Engaging Men and Boys in Violence Prevention Michael Flood, 2018-11-07 Across the globe violence prevention initiatives focused on men and boys are proliferating rapidly Engaging Men and Boys in Violence Prevention highlights effective and innovative strategies for the primary prevention of domestic violence sexual violence and other forms of harassment and abuse It combines research on gender masculinities and violence with case studies from a wide variety of countries and settings Through the cross disciplinary examination of these varied efforts this work will enable advocates educators and policy makers to understand assess and implement programs and strategies which involve men and boys in initiatives to prevent violence against women Men and Development, 2012-09-13 A wide ranging volume featuring contributions from some of today s leading thinkers and practitioners in the field of men masculinities and development Together contributors challenge the neglect of the structural dimensions of patriarchal power relations in current development policy and practice and the failure to adequately engage with the effects of inequitable sex and gender orders on both men's and women's lives. The book calls for renewed engagement in efforts to challenge and change stereotypes of men to dismantle the structural barriers to gender equality and to mobilize men to build new alliances with women s movements and other movements for social and gender justice Mind the Gap Nazneen Kanji,2003 Mainstreamina Politics Carol Lee Bacchi, Joan Eveline, 2010 This book offers an innovative rethinking of policy approaches to gender equality and of the process of social change It brings several new chapters together with a series of previously published articles to reflect on these topics A particular focus is gender mainstreaming a relatively recent development in equality policy in many industrialised and some industrialising countries as well as in large international organisations such as the World Bank the International Monetary Fund and the International Labour Organization The book draws upon poststructuralist organisation and policy theory to argue that it is impossible to script reform initiatives such as gender mainstreaming As an alternative it recommends thinking about such policy developments as fields of contestation shaped by on the ground political deliberations and practices including the discursive practices that produce specific ways of understanding the problem of gender inequality In addition to the new chapters the editors Bacchi and Eveline produce brief introductions for each chapter tracing the development of their ideas over four years Through these commentaries the book provides exciting insights into the complex processes of collaboration and theory generation Mainstreaming Politics is a rich resource for both practitioners in the field and for theorists In particular it will appeal to those interested in public policy public administration organisation studies sociology comparative politics and international studies New Frontiers in Feminist Political Economy Shirin Rai, Georgina Waylen, 2013-11-07 This volume brings together the work of outstanding feminist scholars who reflect on the achievements of feminist political economy and the challenges it faces in the 21st century. The volume develops further some key areas of research in feminist political economy understanding economies as gendered structures and economic crises as crises in social reproduction as well as in finance and production assessing economic policies through the lens of women s rights analysing global transformations in women s work making visible the unpaid economy in which care is provided for family and communities and critiquing the ways in which policy makers are addressing or failing to address this unpaid Masculine Power and Gender Equality: Masculinities as Change Agents Russell Luyt, Kathleen economy Starck, 2020-03-03 This book explores how political institutions can challenge dominant and normative masculinities guiding thinking instead toward a transformation of gendered power structures and general equality Representing a range of relevant areas the expert chapter authors provide various methodological and theoretical approaches applied to shifting gender meanings in cultural national and social contexts Authors also represent a variety of cultures contributing to the multi perspective debate about how best to achieve gender equality in the real world Among the topics discussed Reimagining masculinities their everyday practice and practical interventions Towards a feminist theory of male rape Political implications of challenging men s everyday practices through domestic violence primary prevention work Men as allies a case study of White Ribbon Australia Masculine Power and Gender Equality Masculinities as Change Agents provides valuable insight into strategies for re imagining male dominated power structures and promoting gender equality African Masculinities L. Ouzgane, R. Morrell, 2005-03-15 While masculinity studies enjoys considerable growth in the West there is very little analysis of African masculinities This volume explores what it means for an African to be masculine and how male identity is shaped by cultural forces The editors believe that to tackle the important questions in Africa the many forms of violence wars genocides familial violence and crime and the AIDS pandemic it is necessary to understand how a combination of a colonial past patriarchal cultural structures and a variety of religious and knowledge systems creates masculine identities and sexualities The work done in the book particularly bears in mind how vulnerability and marginalization produce complex forms of male identity The book is interdisciplinary and is the first in depth and comprehensive study of African men as a Masculinities Matter! Frances Cleaver, 2002-11 Men appear to be missing from much gender and development policy but many emerging critiques suggest the need to pay more attention to understanding men and masculinities and to analyzing the social relationships between men and women This book considers the case for a focus on men in gender and development which requires us to reconsider some of the theories and concepts which underlie policies It includes arguments based on equality and social justice the specific gendered vulnerabilities of men the emergence of a crisis of masculinity and the need to include men in development as partners for strategic change The Historiography of Genocide Anton Weiss-Wendt, Robert Krieken, Alfred A. Cave, Ben Kiernan, Doris Bergen, David Moshman, Victoria Sanford, John Docker, Robert Hitchcock, 2008-02-13 The Historiography of Genocide is an indispensable guide to the development of the emerging discipline of genocide studies and the only available assessment of the historical literature Cities, Slums and Gender in the Global South Sylvia Chant, Cathy McIlwaine, 2015-12-22 pertaining to genocides Developing regions are set to account for the vast majority of future urban growth and women and girls will become the majority inhabitants of these locations in the Global South This is one of the first books to detail the challenges facing poorer segments of the female population who commonly reside in slums It explores the variegated disadvantages of urban poverty and slum dwelling from a gender perspective This book revolves around conceptualisation of the gender urban slum interface which explains key elements to understanding women's experiences in slum environments. The readers will learn about the problems of applying a universal concept of Gender Equality and the possible reasons for and modes of adapting Gender Equality to different contexts Gender Equality in a Global Perspective looks to maintain a critical and reflexive stance towards the issues raised and will seek to present multiple perspectives and open ended answers As such it hopes to contribute to the international discussion of human rights more broadly and Gender Equality specifically The intended audience is not limited only to but will include policy makers scholars and students with an interest in Gender issues Organizational Theory Political Science Human Development Policy Analysis Globalization and other management sub disciplines Handbook of Studies on Men and Masculinities Michael S. on Men and Masculinities examines the construction of masculinities in four different frames the social organization of masculinities in their global and regional iterations the institutional reproduction and articulation of masculinities the ways in which masculinities are organized and practiced within a context of gender relations and the ways in which individual men express and understand their gendered identities The Handbook is organized in a way that moves from the larger global and institutional articulations of masculinities to the more intimate and personal expressions The Handbook of Studies on Men and Masculinities provides scholars researchers and students with the most current incisive scholarship available for the men s studies area of gender studies It is a vital resource for those interested in the practical or cultural issues about men boys and gender as well as an excellent addition to any academic library
