Kindergarten Review ,1912 Storytelling in Early Childhood Teresa Cremin,Rosie Flewitt,Ben Mardell,Joan Swann,2016-12-08 Storytelling in Early Childhood is a captivating book which explores the multiple dimensions of storytelling and story acting and shows how they enrich language and literacy learning in the early years Foregrounding the power of children s own stories in the early and primary years it provides evidence that storytelling and story acting a pedagogic approach first developed by Vivian Gussin Paley affords rich opportunities to foster learning within a play based and language rich curriculum The book explores a number of themes and topics including the role of imaginary play and its

dynamic relationship to narrative how socially situated symbolic actions enrich the emotional cognitive and social development of children how the interrelated practices of storytelling and dramatisation enhance language and literacy learning and contribute to an inclusive classroom culture the challenges practitioners face in aligning their understanding of child literacy and learning with a narrow mandated curriculum which focuses on measurable outcomes Driven by an international approach and based on new empirical studies this volume further advances the field offering new theoretical and practical analyses of storytelling and story acting from complementary disciplinary perspectives This book is a potent and engaging read for anyone intrigued by Paley s storytelling and story acting curriculum as well as those practitioners and students with a vested interest in early years literacy and language learning With contributions from Vivian Gussin Paley Patricia Patsy Cooper Dorothy Faulkner Natalia Kucirkova Gillian Dowley McNamee and Ageliki Nicolopoulou Arts and Creativity in East and Southeast Asian Preschools Alfredo Bautista, 2025-08-20 This book is based on the theoretical notion of glocalization which is understood as the hybridization of global and local perspectives It brings together contributions from Asian preschool stakeholders specializing in arts and creativity who present glocal pedagogical practices in the art forms of visual arts music drama dance and in multi modal activities that integrate multiple art forms The chapters provide Asian preschool teachers with insights on how to design implement and or evaluate high quality classroom activities These insights help maximize children s creativity while being realistic and suitable to local preschools as well as aligned with the expectations values and norms of traditional Asian societies The chapters are primarily oriented to practice and also include conceptual and or theoretical elaborations intended to ground and justify teachers pedagogical choices The various chapters also enhance teachers pedagogical repertoires to benefit children s creative learning experiences in the arts This edited book serves as a valuable guide for preschool stakeholders in Asia including teachers and childcare practitioners both pre and in service school leaders head teachers area coordinators vice principals principals teacher educators curriculum designers consultants professional development providers and educational researchers in arts and creativity Ohio University Bulletin Ohio University, 1919 Kindergarten and First Grade , 1921
