Krzysztof Kieslowski Renata Bernard, Steven Woodward, 2016-03-14 Krzysztof Kieslowski s untimely death came at the height of his career after his Three Colors trilogy of films garnered international acclaim and an Oscar nomination and he had been proclaimed Europe s most important filmmaker by many critics Born in 1941 he was only fifty four years old when he died Kieslowski himself tried to tell the story of his life and career in the 1993 book Kieslowski on Kieslowski This collection by contrast reveals the shifting voice of a filmmaker who was initially optimistic about his social and cultural role then felt himself buffeted by the turbulent politics and events of the People's Republic of Poland As described in the chronology in this book he found himself subject to the economic censorship of post Communist filmmaking How Kieslowski responded at each moment of his life what he tried to achieve with each of his films is finely detailed in thirty five selections. These pieces bring together his thesis from the famous Lodz film school a manifesto written just before the dark days of martial law in Poland diary entries from the first time he was working outside Poland and numerous rare interviews from Polish French and English language sources Double Lives, Second Chances Annette Insdorf, 2002-05-15. dialogue with literature music and film which formed not only alternatives to totalitarian ideologies but also followed the loss and reappearance of belief in God Noble explains that by listening to the artists the churches and theologians can deal with questions about the nature of the world memory and ultimate fulfilment in a more nuanced way Then as partakers in the search undertaken by their secular and post secular contemporaries theologians can penetrate a new depth of meaning sending out shoots from the stump of Christian symbolism Drawing on the rich cultures of Central and East Europe and both western and eastern theological traditions this book presents a theological reading of contemporary culture which is important not just for post Communist countries but for all who are engaged in the debate on the boundaries between theology politics and arts New Makers of Modern Culture Justin Wintle, 2016-04-22 New Makers of Modern Culture will be widely acquired by both higher education and public libraries Bibliographies are attached to entries and there is thorough cross referencing New Makers of Modern Culture Wintle Justin, 2013-05-13 New Makers of Modern Culture is the successor to the classic reference works Makers of Modern Culture and Makers of Nineteenth Century Culture published by Routledge in the early 1980s The set was extremely successful and continues to be used to this day due to the high quality of the writing the distinguished contributors and the cultural sensitivity shown in the selection of those individuals included New Makers of Modern Culture takes into full account the rise and fall of reputation and influence over the last twenty five years and the epochal changes that have occurred the demise of Marxism and the collapse of the Soviet Union the rise and fall of postmodernism the eruption of Islamic fundamentalism the triumph of the Internet Containing over eight hundred essay style entries and covering the period from 1850 to the present New Makers includes artists writers dramatists architects philosophers anthropologists scientists sociologists major political figures composers film makers and many other culturally significant individuals and is thoroughly international in its purview Next to Karl Marx is Bob Marley next to John Ruskin is Salmon Rushdie alongside Darwin is Luigi Dallapiccola Deng Xiaoping runs shoulders with Jacques Derrida Julia Kristeva with Kropotkin Once again Wintle has enlisted the services of many distinguished writers and leading academics such as Sam Beer Bernard Crick Edward Seidensticker and Paul Preston In a few cases for example Michael Holroyd and Philip Larkin contributors are themselves the subject of entries With its global reach New Makers of Modern Culture provides a multi voiced witness of the contemporary thinking world.
