Of Divine Warning Jane Anna Gordon,Lewis R. Gordon,2015-11-17 This book offers a theory of disaster in modern and contemporary society and its impact on the construction of social and political life The theory is premised upon what the authors call the sign continuum where disaster spreads across society through efforts to evade social responsibility for its causes and consequences Phenomena generated by such efforts include the social manifestation of monstrosity disastrous people and other forms of living things and an emerging antipolitics in an effort to assert rule and order A crucial development is the attack on speech a fundamental feature of political life as manifested by the increased expectations of categories of people whose containment calls for shunning and silence

Between Philosophy and Theology Christophe

Brabant,2017-03-02 Long past the time when philosophers from different perspectives had joined the funeral procession that declared the death of God a renewed interest has arisen in regard to the questions of God and religion in philosophy The turn to secularization has produced its own opposing force Although they declared themselves from the start as not being religious thinkers such as Derrida Vattimo Zizek and Badiou have nonetheless maintained an interest in religion This book brings some of these philosophical views together to present an overview of the philosophical scene in its dealings with religion but also to move beyond the outsider's perspective. Reflecting on these philosophical interpretations from a fundamental theological perspective, the authors discover in what way these interpretations can challenge an understanding of today's faith. Bringing together thinkers with an established reputation—Kearney, Caputo, Ward, Desmond, Hart, Armour—along with young scholars, this book challenges a range of perspectives by putting them in a new context. Terra, 1985. The Parrot in the Mirror. Antone Martinho-Truswell, 2022. So declares Antone Martinho Truswell in this entrancing and often surprising book. We may not have feathers or claws or the ability to fly and in evolutionary terms we are very distant cousins to the birds. And yet we share some remarkable traits with a number of birds such as the crow family and maybe especially the parrots. Why should this be? Drawing on the fundamental evolutionary concept of convergent evolution and bringing in fascinating stories about bird behaviour and many other animals along the way, Martinho Truswell explains how the similarities between humans and birds arose—similarities that tell us as much about ourselves as they tell us about birds. Book jacket. Farmers' Review, 1892.
