Grace In Practice A Theology Of Everyday Life:

Grace in Practice Paul F. M. Zahl, 2007-01-02 Grace in Practice is a challenging call to live life under grace a concept most Christians secretly have trouble with Paul Zahl pulls no punches contending that no matter how often we talk about salvation by grace in our can do society we often cling instead to a righteousness of works Asserting throughout that grace always trumps both law and church Zahl illuminates an expansive view of grace in everything extending the good news of grace to all creation Conversationally written and filled with fascinating insights Grace in Practice will reward any Christian who seeks to understand the full measure of God's grace and the total freedom it offers Comfortable Words John D. Koch, Todd H. W. Brewer, 2013-11-06 What is grace And more important what difference do the comfortable words of grace make in the lives of everyday people These are the questions to which Paul F M Zahl has devoted his life and this book is a collection of essays written in honor of him that seeks to answer these great questions From literary theory to exegesis to systematic theology these essays are representative of the breadth and depth of the influence Dr Zahl has had on a variety of scholars and reflect his emphasis on the relationship between theology as an academic discipline and the pastoral impact of one way love on everyday people Contributors include C FitzSimons Allison Todd Brewer George Carey James D G Dunn Susan G Eastman Mark Mattes Geiko Muller Farenholz Justin S Holcomb John D Koch Jr Lauren Larkin Jonathan A Linebaugh Jurgen Moltmann Heinz Dieter Neef J Ashley Null Raymond C Ortlund Jr Dylan D Potter Justyn Terry Tullian Tchividjian Jonathan K M Wong Paul F M Zahl and Simeon Zahl Christian Perspectives on Transforming Interreligious Encounter Peter C. Phan, Anh Q. Tran, 2024-05-15 Christian Perspectives on Transforming Interreligious Encounter underscores the urgency of interreligious dialogue for contemporary society aiming to foster interfaith understanding justice and peace The initial section focuses on novel approaches to engaging with the religious Other through non Christian sacred texts Contributors explore the Jewish Christian relationship offer Christian interpretations of Hindu Buddhist and Confucian scriptures and discuss the Qur'an's potential to refine Christian theology The dangers of comparative theology are warned against and alternative perspectives such as Asian liberation theology are proposed for situating religion critically as well as share the insights on Christian engagement with Zen practice The second part explores the transformation of key Christian doctrines through interreligious encounters Contributors delve into topics such as the conditions for faith and divine revelation formulating a Christology in dialogue with Asian traditions and understanding the Spirit as a source of questioning They investigate the communitarian dimension of religious faith discuss the Catholic Church's stance on interreligious dialogue examine the role of biblical hermeneutics in decolonizing theology and reflect on the existential threat of ecological destruction The third part pays tribute to Leo Lefebure emphasizing his impact on Catholic theology and comparative theology and concludes with Lefebure's epilogue providing him with the last word By Gospel Alone David Menendez, 2018-09-18 The present work pursues an apologetic plea on behalf of the gospel It would seem to many that the gospel is doing just fine and we need to concentrate on other very pressing and important issues such as missions evangelism social justice moral transformation and change just to name a few But it will be our argument that no matter how good it may be with the gospel and how many other pressing issues may exist the church must continually articulate the gospel as the ever pressing need of the day And by gospel we mean the doctrine of Christ s perfect God pleasing life as empowered by the Spirit under the law in order to be the Father s incarnate Lamb of God who takes away sin by his atoning reconciling death for the justification of sinners by faith alone without their works merits or obedience before God It is the doctrine of faith grace and Christ alone in order to be thus received and embraced by the lavish abundant and unconditional loving mercy of the triune God Furthermore we want to show that the Gospel provides a very practical framework to live in communion with God and with one another It is indispensable for living and for living such a life as it is daily delivered by God unto us sinners in the communication and apprehension of the Gospel as undeserved and unconditional yet efficacious and transforming gift to Amazing Grace Patrick S. Cheng, 2012-03-01 Throughout the history of Christianity lesbian gay bisexual and transgender LGBT or queer people have been condemned as unrepentant sinners who are in dire need of God's saving grace As a result of this condemnation LGBT people have been subjected to great spiritual emotional and physical abuse and violence This issue takes on a particular urgency in light of the ongoing harassment and bullying of LGBT young people by their classmates Cheng argues that people need to be liberated from the traditional legal model of thinking about sin and grace as a violation of divine and natural laws in which grace is understood as the strength to refrain from violating such laws Rather Cheng proposes a Christological model based upon the theologies of Irenaeus Bonaventure and Barth in which sin and grace are defined in terms of what God has done for us in Jesus Christ This book serves as a useful resource for all people who struggle to make sense of the traditional Christian doctrines of sin and grace in the context of the 21st century

The Holy Spirit and Christian Experience Simeon Zahl, 2020-06-11 In The Holy Spirit and Christian Experience Simeon Zahl presents a fresh vision for Christian theology that foregrounds the relationship between theological ideas and the experiences of Christians He argues that theology is always operating in a vibrant landscape of feeling and desiring and shows that contemporary theology has often operated in problematic isolation from these experiential dynamics He then argues that a theologically serious doctrine of the Holy Spirit not only authorizes but requires attention to Christian experience Against this background Zahl outlines a new methodological approach to Christian theology that attends to the emotional and experiential power of theological ideas This methodology draws on recent interdisciplinary work on affect and emotion which has shown that affects are powerful motivating realities that saturate all dimensions of human thinking and acting In the process Zahl also explains why contemporary theology has often been ambivalent about subjective experience and demonstrates that current discourse about God's activity in the world is often artificially abstracted from experience and embodiment At the heart of the book Zahl proposes a new account of the theology of grace from this experiential and pneumatological perspective Focusing on the work of the Holy Spirit in salvation and sanctification he retrieves insights from Augustine Luther and Philip Melancthon to present an affective and Augustinian vision of salvation as a pedagogy of desire In articulating this vision Zahl engages critically with recent emphasis on participation and theosis in Christian soteriology and charts a new path forward for Protestant theology in a landscape hitherto dominated by the theological visions of Barth and Aquinas

The Practice of the Presence of God Martin Laird, Sheelah Treflé Hidden, 2016-11-29 Exploring the unity of the practice of prayer and the practice of theology this book draws together insights from world class theologians including Rowan Williams Andrew Louth Frances Young Margaret R Miles Sebastian Brock and Nichola Sakharov Offering glimpses of the prayer life and witness that undergirds theological endeavour some authors approach the topic in a deeply personal way while others express the unity of prayer and the theologian in a traditionally scholarly manner No matter what the denomination of the Christian theologian Greek or Russian Orthodox Roman Catholic Anglican Methodist authors demonstrate that the discipline of theology cannot properly be practiced apart from the prayer life of the theologian The prayer of the theologian shapes her or his approach to theology Whether it be preaching teaching writing or research the deep soundings of prayer inform and embrace all

McCrank,2022-09-30 This extensive bibliographic essay underpins the entire Tarragona Vortex study by focusing on this arena as one of the most contested frontiers in Western history comparable to Jerusalem in the East for broad issues of Romanization Westernization Islamization and Christianization Its book length chapters treat 1 diverse historiographies from local and Spanish to comparative Mediterranean and Crusade History and especially Ethno historiography and the explanatory concept of frontiers 2 the phenomena of religion conversion and reform and the conditioning agents of Islam and Latin Christianity in practice and adversity 3 religious universalism and violence especially religious war 4 the Crusade and Reconquest paradigms and century long debate 5 the environment on land and sea and setting for this History Although these themes are explored to include due reconsideration but avoid major digressions in its telling about Tarragona and the Tarraconensis they underly so much of Late Antique and Medieval historical research that this discussion pertains to the whole field of historical cultural and religious studies Parenting as Spiritual Practice and Source for Theology Claire Bischoff,Elizabeth O'Donnell Gandolfo,Annie Hardison-Moody,2017-12-13 This volume investigates how mothers can understand parenting as spiritual practice and what this practice means for theological scholarship An intergenerational and intercultural group of mother scholars explores these questions that arise at the intersection of motherhood studies religious practice pastoral care and theology through engaging and accessible essays Essays include both narrative and theological elements as authors draw on personal reflection interviews and or sociological studies to write about the theological implications of parenting practice rethink key concepts in theology and contribute to a more robust account of parenting as spiritual practice from various theological perspectives The volume both challenges oppressive religious images of self sacrificing motherhood and considers the spiritual dimensions of mothering that contribute to women s empowerment and well being It also deepens practical and systematic theologies to include concern for the embodied and everyday challenges and joys of motherhood as it is experienced and practiced in diverse contexts of privilege and marginalization Untamed Hospitality (The Christian Practice of Everyday Life) Elizabeth Newman,2007-04-01 Christian hospitality is more than a well set table pleasant conversation or even inviting people into your home Christian hospitality according to Elizabeth Newman is an extension of how we interact with God It trains us to be capable of welcoming strangers who will challenge us and enhance our lives in unexpected ways readying us to embrace the ultimate stranger God In Untamed Hospitality Newman dispels the modern myths of hospitality as a superficial commodity that can be bought and sold at The Pottery Barn and restores it to its proper place within God s story as displayed most fully in Jesus Christ Worship she says is the believer s participation in divine hospitality a hospitality that cannot be sequestered from our economic political or public lives This in depth study of true hospitality will be of interest to professors students and scholars looking for a fresh take on a timeless subject The Pentecostal Hypothesis Nimi Wariboko,2020-10-12 The Pentecostal Hypothesis is the capacity to resist conventional wisdom in social actions On a daily basis Pentecostals deploy or enact this capacity through the use of the formula It does not make sense but it makes spirit in their decision making processes This is an alternate way of knowing that is keyed to a particular interpretative understanding of Jesus Christ as constitutive of and normative for the good decisions relevant to human flourishing The book offers a critical philosophical analysis of the social ethical implications of this hypothesis intended for private decisions and social actions This text is ultimately a critique of Pentecostal reason In this book Wariboko explores the epistemological dimensions of everyday Pentecostal Christology their interpretation of Jesus s character and nature as epistemology For Pentecostals Jesus did not have an epistemology but the story of his life as a whole is an epistemology For them the validity of a truth claim is always in formed by the story of Jesus that claims them the story that gives them the meaning and courage to affirm their decisions without fear of being contradicted by Enlightenment rationalism What kind of normative sway does this orientation to modernity have over Pentecostals pattern of thought This book configures the response to this question with profound insights into the convergence of epistemology and Christology within the impelling matrix of a provocative social ethics The epistemological in this book is not about the that of knowing but the how the performative dimension of knowing which is affective emotive and an embodied practice The Pentecostal Hypothesis is the capacity to resist conventional wisdom in social actions

Back to the Rough Grounds of Praxis Daniel Franklin Pilario, 2005 What is praxis How do we do theology from its perspective These are the main questions which this book seeks to answer As propaedeutic to theological reflection it surveys the notion of praxis in the philosophical sociological and anthropological traditions from Aristotle and Marx to contemporary theories It argues that Pierre Bourdieu s theory of practice achieves a critical synthesis of these different traditions making it a viable theological dialogue partner Bourdieu provides us with a praxeological theory to scrutinize the complexity of the social realm and an epistemological theory to understand the mystery of God s presence in these socio historical conjunctures which serve as the privileged and only locus of His Her revelation The author thus engages two theologians who take praxis practice as central to their theological methods Clodovis Boff liberation theology and John Milbank radical orthodoxy From the perspective of its appropriated framework this work attempts to avoid the limitations as well as preserves the gains achieved by these two approaches as it also explores the rudiments of a theological method relevant to our post Marxist and postmodern global contexts

The Other Six Days R. Paul Stevens, 2000-09-05 In this provocative book Stevens writes the clergy laity division has no basis in the New Testament and challenges all Christians to rediscover what it means to live daily as God s people Exploring the theological structural and cultural reasons for treating laypeople as the objects of ministry Stevens argues against the idea of clericalism and in favor of equipping people for ministry in their homes workplaces and neighborhoods

Sharing Friendship John B. Thomson, 2016-03-03 Sharing Friendship represents a post liberal approach to ecclesiology and theology generated out of the history practices and traditions of the Anglican Church Drawing on the theological ethics of Stanley

Hauerwas this book explores the way friendship for the stranger emerges from contextually grounded reflection and conversations with contemporary Anglican theologians within the English tradition including John Milbank Oliver O Donovan Rowan Williams Daniel Hardy and Anthony Thiselton Avoiding abstract definitions of character mission or friendship John Thomson explores how the history of the English Church reflects a theology of friendship and how discipleship in the New Testament the performance of worship and the shape of Anglican ecclesiology are congruent with such a theology The book concludes by rooting the theme of sharing friendship within the self emptying kenotic performance of Jesus mission and looks at challenges to the character of contemporary Anglican ecclesiology represented by secularization and globalization as well as by arguments over appropriate new initiatives such as Fresh Expressions
