

A Prayer for Graduation

Heavenly Father,

Give grace and courage to the ones who have worked hard and now greet this special time of graduation.

We thank you for protecting and guiding them to this point. All praise and glory to You!

Inspire the graduates to put to good use all the knowledge, skills and life lessons gained through their education.

Most importantly, as they face unknown challenges moving on, help them to keep dear the greatest wisdom of all -that of knowing Jesus and the power of the Cross!

A chapter has closed and another eagerly awaits. Pave their road with opportunities and inspire them to live with hope in this incredible journey called life.

Continue to bless the graduates with love, protection, mercy, strength and wisdom.

May they live passionately to honor and glorify Your name. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Hammond, 2012-05-18 In the summer of 1973 the high school football star Forest Hammond traded his gear for cuffs, entering the Baton Rouge Parish Prison after being caught up in a situation gone wrong. The course of this young man's promising life changed with one mistake: the football hero with the athletic scholarship overestimated himself. In an attempt to dissolve a violent situation, he failed and became entangled in a violent crime, leading to a prison sentence for murder. Saint as he was known, went on to serve time in Angola, one of the most violent penitentiaries in the country. His mistake would cost him nine years. His shot at a shorter sentence came after learning about a program allowing him to work as a servant in the governor's mansion in exchange for a possible chance at freedom. After serving as a butler for Gov. Edwin W. Edwards for years, he obtained the coveted gold letter of pardon. His experiences in Angola and the mansion greatly affected him and changed the direction of his life. His story is both cautionary and inspirational, while exposing an outdated custom that is even now in the headlines as controversial. Rex Cathleen Lewis, 2008-10-28 The inspiring story of Rex, a boy who is not only blind and autistic but who also happens to be a musical savant. How can an 11-year-old boy hear a Mozart fantasy for the first time and play it back note for note perfectly but struggle to navigate the familiar surroundings of his own home? Cathleen Lewis says her son Rex's laugh of total abandon is the single most joyous sound anyone could hear, but his tortured aversion to touch and sound breaks her heart and makes her wonder what God could have had in mind. In this book, she shares the mystery of Rex and the highs, lows, hopes, dreams, joy, sorrows, and faith she has journeyed through with him. Endorsements: This memoir documents a musical savant in a way we have not seen before, allowing us to reconsider the limits we place on people with disabilities. Highly recommended for all public libraries and academic libraries with autism and special needs collections. Library Journal 11/25/08 Two of the most extraordinary and uplifting people I have ever known. Their story shows the amazingly moving struggle and success that proves love and faith can achieve miracles. Jane Seymour, actress, artist, author, and entrepreneur. The remarkable story of a mother's love and a child's indomitable spirit, told in a writer's style that riveted me to the page, is singularly the most important work ever written on the relationship between a parent and a child with disability. For me, as a person who happens to be blind, the experience of reading Rex was an eye opener. I will never forget. Bravo, Cathleen. Bravo, Rex. Your work and your lives will forever change the future of disability in America. so readily accessible to one living on such an island It was the decision governing my father's need to find a more viable source of finance for the supporting of his growing family that led to our immigrating to the United States of America Crossing the ocean to this vast nation opened the door to a series of educational opportunities allowing for the discovery of my musical gifts as a singer The development of those gifts parlayed into the adventure of traveling from nation to nation disclosing a myriad of varying peoples and their cultures The landscapes viewed and experienced were not only of the terrain as it presented itself in foreign lands but also of the musical emotional and spiritual exposure which grew and expanded as I developed as an artist and as a person Having been reared as a Christian provided the foundation that served as a solid underpinning in the world in which I would now have to navigate Forever changing were the choices and chances I would encounter Relying on the non changing grace of God allowed for my ultimate success in managing the many layers of the challenges presented in developing a career and a family managing what would be gained and what would be lost Forever Changing Landscapes is a personal view through the lens of my memory over and through the many oceans crossed the nations visited as well as the myriad of musical emotional and spiritual mountains traversed through the years of my life
