Trudeau, 1993-04 Criticism of the most significant and widely studied dramatic works from all the world s literatures Voicing the Text Petra Ragnerstam, 2016-08-17 Why is voice so important to us How does the concept of voice encompass such disparate practices as vocal sound marks on a page identity production and the execution of power With these questions in mind this book studies voice as both a textual and a bodily phenomenon By using both drama and film and by exploring the translation between the two this study shows that voice can be placed in a grid where the subject body language and power interconnect

in ways that question established ideas concerning voice what it is and what it can do The book investigates how voice as an expression of the individual subject is central in the fight for power in plays such as The Crucible by Arthur Miller Amiri Baraka's Dutchman and Ntozake Shange's for colored girls who have considered suicide where voice is seen as fundamental for political action However it also questions the seemingly failsafe connection between voice and the subject In Eugene O'Neill's Strange Interlude the relation between voice and thought is neither harmonious nor given and thus voice becomes something other than an expression of subjective interiority The discussion of Clare Booth's The Women highlights how voice in ironic discourse disrupts notions of intentionality subjectivity and power in ways that destabilize preconceived notions of voice Lastly the chapter on David Mamet's Glengarry Glen Ross asks if voice really can empower the subject in an age where processes of reification have invaded the subject's consciousness including the ability to communicate

American Drama Since 1960 Matthew Charles Roudané, 1996 In the early 1960s two leaders of the New York performance group Living Theatre were asked to define its purpose In this survey of contemporary American drama Matthew C Roudané argues that the response of these two pioneers in experimental theater Julian Beck and Judith Malina goes a long way toward explaining the purpose of all of the rich and varied dramas to appear on the stage since 1960 To increase conscious awareness to stress the sacredness of life to break down the walls African American playwrights Lorraine Hansberry Alice Childress James Baldwin Amiri Baraka women playwrights Marsha Norman Wendy Wasserstein Beth Henley gay playwrights Harvey Fierstein Tony Kushner and others have over the past three and a half decades entreated audiences to acknowledge the persistence of racism sexism homophobia and a host of other societal ills Other playwrights have asked audiences to confront their own mortality Edward Albee their compromised morality David Mamet their unfulfilled American Dream Arthur Miller Sam Shepard and countless others Whatever the particularities of these playwrights personal identities politics of dramatic style they share a willingness to confront uncomfortable truths about the human condition in America since 1960 Ironically it is in their very rebellion against any number of things American that they identify themselves and their literature as such Roudane takes no scattershot approach to his subject Favoring clusters of themes and the broad sweep of movements to linear chronology he develops a carefully aimed analysis of the work of about two dozen of the hundreds of playwrights whose dramas have since 1960 been performed in every venue from regional and university theaters to Off Off Broadway to Off Broadway to Broadway BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved      Essays on Contemporary American Drama Hedwig Bock,Albert Wertheim,1981      Black American Literature Forum ,1981      The Methuen Drama Book of Contemporary Monologues for Women Chrys Salt,2003 A collection of both serious and comic monologues from the last three decades of contemporary playwriting this title features pieces from Caryl Churchill Michael Frayn Martin McDonagh and Sarah Kane It should be a useful resource for auditions acting class and rehearsal
