Hertel, 2015-06-26 Contemporary Spain and Portugal share a historical experience as Iberian states which emerged within the context of al Andalus These centuries of Muslim presence in the Middle Ages became a contested heritage during the process of modern nation building with its varied concepts and constructs of national identities Politicians historians and intellectuals debated vigorously the question how the Muslim past could be reconciled with the idea of the Catholic nation The Crescent Remembered investigates the processes of exclusion and integration of the Islamic past within the national narratives It analyses discourses of historiography Arabic studies mythology popular culture and colonial policies towards Muslim populations from the 19th century to the dictatorships of Franco and Salazar in the 20th century In particular it explores why despite apparent historical similarities in Spain and Portugal entirely different strategies and discourses concerning the Islamic past emerged In the process it seeks to shed light on the role of the Iberian Peninsula as a crucial
