Mapping Subaltern Studies And The Postcolonial Mappings Series 2012 11 13:

Mapping Subaltern Studies and the Postcolonial Vinayak Chaturvedi, 2000 This volume in the Mapping series offers a balance sheet of the Subaltern Studies Project an intervention in South Asian history and politics which has generated an impact in Latin American Irish and African Studies

Subalternity and Difference Gyanendra Pandey, 2013-03-01 Focusing on concepts that have been central to investigation of the history and politics of marginalized and disenfranchised populations this book asks how discourses of subalternity and difference simultaneously constitute and interrupt each other The authors explore the historical production of conditions of marginality and minority and challenge simplistic notions of difference as emanating from culture rather than politics They return thereby to a question that feminist and other oppositional movements have raised of how modern societies and states take account of and manage social economic and cultural difference The different contributions investigate this question in a variety of historical and political contexts from India and Ecuador to Britain and the USA The resulting study is of invaluable interest to students and scholars in a wide range of disciplines including History Anthropology Gender and Queer and Colonial and Postcolonial Studies

Habitations of Modernity Dipesh Chakrabarty, 2002-07-15 In Habitations of Modernity Dipesh Chakrabarty explores the complexities of modernism in India and seeks principles of humaneness grounded in everyday life that may elude grand political theories The questions that motivate Chakrabarty are shared by all postcolonial historians and anthropologists How do we think about the legacy of the European Enlightenment in lands far from Europe in geography or history How can we envision ways of being modern that speak to what is shared around the world as well as to cultural diversity How do we resist the tendency to justify the violence accompanying triumphalist moments of modernity Chakrabarty pursues these issues in a series of closely linked essays ranging from a history of the influential Indian series Subaltern Studies to examinations of specific cultural practices in modern India such as the use of khadi Gandhian style of dress by male politicians and the politics of civic consciousness in public spaces He concludes with considerations of the ethical dilemmas that arise when one writes on behalf of social justice projects

Subaltern Geographies Tariq Jazeel, Stephen Legg, 2019 Subaltern Geographies is the first book length discussion addressing the relationship between the historical innovations of subaltern studies and the critical intellectual practices and methodologies of cultural urban historical and political geography This edited volume explores this relationship by attempting to think critically about space and spatial categorizations Editors Tariq Jazeel and Stephen Legg ask What methodological philosophical potential does a rigorously geographical engagement with the concept of subalternity pose for geographical thought whether in historical or contemporary contexts And what types of craft are necessary for us to seek out subaltern perspectives both from the past and in the present In so doing Subaltern Geographies engages with the implications for and impact on disciplinary geographical thought of subaltern studies scholarship as well as the potential for such thought In the process it probes new spatial ideas and forms of learning in an attempt to bypass the spatial categorizations of methodological nationalism and Eurocentrism Postcolonial Studies Pramod K. Nayar, 2015-09-28

This new anthology brings together the most diverse and recent voices in postcolonial theory to emerge since 9 11 alongside classic texts in established areas of postcolonial studies Brings fresh insight and renewed political energy to established domains such as nation history literature and gender Engages with contemporary concerns such as globalization digital cultures neo colonialism and language debates Includes wide geographical coverage from Ireland and India to Israel and Palestine Provides uniquely broad coverage offering a full sense of the tradition including significant essays on science technology and development education and literacy digital cultures and transnationalism Edited by a distinguished postcolonial scholar this insightful volume serves scholars and students across multiple disciplines from literary and cultural studies to anthropology and digital studies Postcolonial Theory and the Specter of Capital Vivek Chibber, 2013-03-12

Postcolonial theory has become enormously influential as a framework for understanding the Global South It is also a school of thought popular because of its rejection of the supposedly universalizing categories of the Enlightenment In this devastating critique mounted on behalf of the radical Enlightenment tradition Vivek Chibber offers the most comprehensive response yet to postcolonial theory Focusing on the hugely popular Subaltern Studies project Chibber shows that its foundational arguments are based on a series of analytical and historical misapprehensions He demonstrates that it is possible to affirm a universalizing theory without succumbing to Eurocentrism or reductionism Postcolonial Theory and the Specter of Capital promises to be a historical milestone in contemporary social theory Postcolonial Subaltern Issues

Krishna Singh (Professor of English), 2015 With a special reference to India Dipesh Chakrabarty and the Global South Taylor & Francis Group, 2021-08-02 Over the last four decades Dipesh Chakrabarty's astonishingly wide ranging scholarship has elaborated a range of important issues especially those of modernity identity and politics in dialogue with postcolonial theory and critical historiography on global and planetary scales All of this makes Chakrabarty among the most significant and most cited scholars working in the humanities and social sciences today The present text comprises substantive yet short academic yet accessible essays that are crafted in conversation with the critical questions raised by Chakrabarty's writings Now Chakrabarty holds the singular distinction of making key contributions to some of the most salient shifts in understandings of the Global South that have come about in wake of subaltern studies and postcolonial perspectives critiques of Eurocentrism together with elaborations of public pasts and articulations of climatic histories alongside problems of the Anthropocene Rather than exegeses and commentaries these original commissioned pieces written by a stellar cast of contributors from four continents imaginatively engage Chakrabarty's insights and arguments in order to incisively explore important issues of the politics of knowledge in contemporary worlds This book will be of interest to scholars and graduate students interested in a wide variety of interdisciplinary issues across the humanities and social sciences especially the interplay between postcolonial perspectives and subaltern studies between man made climate change and the human sciences between history and theory and between modernity and globalization
