Walk Through Walls Marina Abramovic, 2016-10-25 I had experienced absolute freedom I had felt that my body was without boundaries limitless that pain didn't matter that nothing mattered at all and it intoxicated me In 2010 more than 750 000 people stood in line at Marina Abramovic's MoMA retrospective for the chance to sit across from her and communicate with her nonverbally in an unprecedented durational performance that lasted more than 700 hours This celebration of nearly fifty years of groundbreaking performance art demonstrated once again that Marina Abramovic is truly a force of nature The child of Communist war hero parents under Tito's regime in postwar Yugoslavia she was raised with a relentless work ethic Even as she was beginning to build an international artistic career Marina lived at home under her mother's abusive control strictly obeying a 10 p.m. curfew But nothing could quell her insatiable curiosity her desire to connect with people or her distinctly Balkan sense of humor all of which informs her art and her life The beating heart of Walk Through Walls is an operatic love story a twelve year collaboration with fellow performance artist Ulay much of which was spent penniless in a van traveling across Europe a relationship that began to unravel and came to a dramatic end atop the Great Wall of China Marina's story by turns moving epic and dryly funny informs an incomparable artistic career that involves pushing her body past the limits of fear pain exhaustion and danger in an uncompromising quest for emotional and spiritual transformation A remarkable work of performance in its own right Walk Through Walls is a vivid and powerful rendering of the unparalleled life of an extraordinary artist

Walk Through Walls Marina Abramović, James Kaplan, 2016 This memoir spans Marina Abramovic's five decade career and tells a life story that is almost as exhilarating and extraordinary as her groundbreaking performance art Taking us from her early life in communist ex Yugoslavia to her time as an art student in Belgrade in the 1970s the book also describes her relationship with the West German performance artist named Ulay who was her lover and sole collaborator for twelve years Best known for her recent pieces The Artist is Present and 512 Hours this book is a fascinating insight into the life of one of the most important artists working today

The Play in the System Anna Watkins Fisher, 2020-09-21 Acknowledging the difficulty for artists in the twenty first century to effectively critique systems of power Anna Watkins Fisher theorizes parasitism a form of resistance in which artists comply with dominant structures as a tool for practicing resistance from within representations of the human form From painting and sculpture to installation video art and performance O Reilly reveals the myriad ways in which the body has inspired a generation of artists Featuring the work of both renowned and up and coming figures including Marina Abramovic Hew Locke Jenkin van Zyl Shirin Neshat Sarah Lucas and Shawanda Corbett The Body in Contemporary Art shows how the human form continues to be pivotal to our understanding and expression of our place in the universe International in scope with color illustrations throughout this edition has been comprehensively revised with an updated selection of artists and five new chapters covering topics such as clothing work and economics the nude and illness

Posthuman Spiritualities in Contemporary Performance Silvia Battista, 2018-06-19 This book provides an interpretative analysis of the notion of spirituality through the lens of contemporary performance and posthuman theories The book examines five performance artworks The Artist is Present 2010 by Marina Abramovi The Deer Shelter Skyscape 2007 by James Turrell CAT 1998 by Ansuman Biswas Journey to the Lower World by Marcus Coates 2004 and the work with pollen by Wolfgang Laib Through the analysis of these works the notion of spirituality is grounded in materiality and embodiment allowing the conceptual juxtaposition of spirit and matter to introduce the paradoxical as the guiding thread of the narrative of the book Here the human is interrogated and negotiated with within a plurality of other living organisms intangible existences and micro and macrocosmic ecologies Silence meditation shamanic journeys reciprocal gazing restraint and contemplation are analyzed as technologies used to manipulate perception and adventure into the multilayered condition of matter

The Mediatization of the Artist Rachel Esner, Sandra Kisters, 2018-01-31 This book offers trans historical and trans national perspectives on the image of the artist as a public figure in the popular discourse and imagination Since the rise of notions of artistic autonomy and the simultaneous demise of old systems of patronage from the late eighteenth century onwards artists have increasingly found themselves confronted with the necessity of developing a public persona In the same period new audiences for art discovered their fascination for the life and work of the artist The rise of new media such as the illustrated press photography and film meant that the needs of both parties could easily be satisfied in both words and images Thanks to these new media the artist was transformed from a simple producer of works of art into a public figure The aim of this volume is to reflect on this transformative process and to study the specific role of the media themselves Which visual media were deployed to what effect and with what kind of audiences in mind How did the artist critic photographer and filmmaker interact in the creation of these representations of the artist s image

The Theatrical Public Sphere Christopher B. Balme, 2014-06-12 The concept of the public sphere as first outlined by German philosopher J rgen Habermas refers to the right of all citizens to engage in debate on public issues on equal terms In this book Christopher B Balme explores theatre s role in this crucial political and social function He traces its origins and argues that the theatrical public sphere invariably focuses attention on theatre as an institution between the shifting borders of the private and public reasoned debate and agonistic intervention Chapters explore this concept in a variety of contexts including the debates that led to the closure of British theatres in 1642 theatre's use of media controversies surrounding race religion and blasphemy and theatre's place in a new age of globalised aesthetics Balme concludes by addressing the relationship of theatre today with the public sphere and whether theatre's transformation into an art form has made it increasingly irrelevant for contemporary society
