The Faces Behind the Chains: Thousands of Interviews, Memoirs, Life Stories of Former Slaves is an extraordinary anthology that traverses a multitude of narratives surrounding slavery, freedom, and identity in the English-speaking world. The collection spans a gamut of literary styles from the gripping immediacy of firsthand accounts to reflective memoirs and socially driven treatises. Standout pieces include chilling recollections and enlightening narratives that offer both harrowing truths and moments of resilience and hope, providing an intimate tapestry of human experience against the backdrop of systemic oppression. This collection captures the emotional and historical spectrum of the slave experience, making it indispensable for understanding the complex legacies of slavery. The compendium brings together a diverse group of voices, including those of Aphra Behn, Frederick Douglass, Harriet Jacobs, and Booker T. Washington, whose contributions have significantly shaped discussions about slavery and its aftermath. These authors, hailing from various historical and cultural backgrounds, offer invaluable insights into the socio-political dynamics of their times. Many of them were pivotal figures in movements like abolitionism and civil rights, and their narratives collectively amplify the chorus of struggle and defiance against the forces of dehumanization, forging a crucial link to contemporary understandings of race and justice. Readers are provided with a unique scholarly opportunity to explore a rich amalgamation of perspectives that enlightens and educates. The anthology serves as a profound educational resource and a catalyst for discussion, navigating through the converging paths of personal stories and broader historical currents. It enriches the reader's comprehension of the multifaceted nature of slavery and freedom with its profound collection of voices promising to inspire reflection and foster dialogue This volume is an essential addition to any scholarly library offering a compelling invitation to engage with some of the most significant narratives of human endurance and moral courage

The Lady's Friend Sarah (Webb) Peterson, 1869 A Life in the Law Mary M. Dunlap with Mary Kay Stein, 2014-09-23 In 1949 when attorney Mary M Dunlap moved her law practice and her young children from urban Denver Colorado to their new home in Albuquerque New Mexico she had no idea what was waiting for her starting literally at the first stoplight in town Her career would span more than forty years bringing her into daily contact with crafty politicians pueblo Indians justices of the peace and an improbable cast of clients from nuclear scientists and Ziegfeld Follies stars to arsonists hoboos and petty criminals And to make life more interesting she and her husband and their children ran a small farm at the same time The days started early the work was hard and then it was time to go to the office where the day was long the work was hard and then it was time to go home She recalled that she was challenged by men who said that she couldn't be a real lawyer because she was a woman or had calluses on her hands or because she drove a pickup They all changed their minds once they got into court
