

Graduation Ceremony 4
Graduand's Speech
Thursday 21 November 2013 at 1630hrs
JESUITS' CHURCH – VALLETTA

Ms Rosalind Vella
Representative of the students

Chancellor, Rector, Esteemed Guests, Members of the Academic Board, Members of Administration, proud parents, spouses and loved one, and above all, graduates:

When I was asked to do this speech just three days ago, my nerves got the best of me, my mind went into autopilot and I did what I have been doing these last two and a half years - I researched the topic. I Googled 'graduation speeches', watched a few celebrity speeches on YouTube and even read up articles on how best to structure a graduation speech. I even wondered if I should include a list of references! While researching I came upon some really great material - stories which pull at one's heart strings and examples of impressive adventures. Yet even with all this information at my fingertips, I was still staring at an empty Word document a few hours later. I realised that no article was going to represent my experience throughout this Masters degree and no inspirational speech by a celebrity was going to portray my journey. So I followed the advice of a friend who told me to speak from the heart.

So this evening, I stand here extremely honoured and humbled to speak to you from the heart about learning, about life and about love.

Learning

During my recent trip to Thailand, I got chatting to Max, the young tour guide who was giving us a tour of the elephant temples. Max told me that he had recently graduated in tourism studies and that his parents and siblings had worked for years saving for him to go to university to get a degree in the hopes that he would make a better life for himself and maybe also for his family. He asked about me and I told him that I was on a well-deserved holiday after studying for two and a half years. Max then told me that while a small portion of his salary would go towards his living expenses, the bulk of it would be sent home to his family in the rice fields and that no matter how much he worked and saved, he would never have enough money to buy a plane ticket to travel outside of Thailand.

How fortunate are we, including Max, to be part of the 6.7% of the world population that has a university degree and that as of today we form part of an even smaller percentage of the world population that has a Masters degree? How fortunate are we, unlike Max, that we live in a democratic country with equal opportunities to learn and study up to a tertiary level of education for free? Had our college and undergraduate education been at a cost, some of us, like Max, would never have considered pursuing further education due to other commitments and obligations. I need not highlight the importance and value of learning - we sit in this hall today because of our desire to foster our learning, because of our curiosity to understand further and because of our need to continue to grow. What I do wish to emphasise today is to Never Stop Learning. Everywhere you go and everything you do is an opportunity to learn something new – go for it. Material things come and go, but what you learn is yours and no one can take that away from you. Therefore, I wish for you that your thirst for knowledge is never quenched and that you never stop learning.

And although we are here because of our desire to continue learning, we only sit here today because of the hard work and dedication of our educators, some of whom sit among us. Most of us today graduate in Masters degrees that did not exist within the University of Malta up until some years ago. Had it not been for some of our professors and lecturers who had passionately lobbied-for and promoted the significance of these courses,

Headmaster Graduation Speeches:

The Principal's Graduation Joseph Jao Yiu Sung, 2019-01-15 Putting admirable rationales of university education into practice is never easy While it is popular to emphasize market values and competitive rankings moral values and ideals sound way too lofty nowadays Under tensions on campus and in society the head of a university takes the role of striking a balance as skilfully as possible Professor Joseph Sung is no exception to all these challenges He has been enjoying university life with teachers and students going through ups and downs with them This book a collection of 57 blog articles by Professor Sung during his tenure as the seventh Vice-Chancellor of The Chinese University of Hong Kong tells us the stories He talks about higher education and social responsibility pathways and choices our youths make the visions he had and the challenges he faced and life values which he wishes his students could take seriously Though generations come and go he still cares that they live a simple noble and humble life He hopes we care too

The Headmaster's Wife Stephen Birmingham, 2024-04-02 Cultural shifts of the late twentieth century reveal dark secrets at an elite prep school in this posthumously discovered novel by the author of Our Crowd Located in bucolic Connecticut the Crittenden School has long held a venerable reputation as one of New England's premier preparatory schools However times are changing and that change is coming to Crittenden In the midst of social upheaval the headmaster's wife Clarissa Spotswood is thrust into faculty and student intrigues a role for which she is woefully unprepared Clarissa has spent the past thirty years quietly standing by her husband Headmaster Hobart Spotswood projecting the image of the model society wife But this meticulous facade is shattered when Clarissa uncovers horrific events within the school's insular community And interspersed with the drama is Clarissa's own journal entries revealing a secret history of her own Previously unpublished The Headmaster's Wife was written by the late Stephen Birmingham author of notable works such as Real Lace and Life at the Dakota Discovered after Birmingham's death the manuscript was transcribed and edited by his son Carey Birmingham

The Third Reich's Elite Schools Helen Roche, 2021 The Third Reich's Elite Schools tells the story of the Napolas Nazi Germany's most prominent training academies for the future elite This deeply researched study gives an in-depth account of everyday life at the schools while also shedding fresh light on the political social and cultural history of the Nazi dictatorship

Lies in Modern American Autobiography Timothy Dow Adams,2017-10-10 All autobiographers are unreliable narrators Yet what a writer chooses to misrepresent is as telling perhaps even more so as what really happened Timothy Adams believes that autobiography is an attempt to reconcile one s life with one s self and he argues in this book that autobiography should not be taken as historically accurate but as metaphorically authentic Adams focuses on five modern American writers whose autobiographies are particularly complex because of apparent lies that permeate them In examining their stories Adams shows that lying in autobiography especially literary autobiography is not simply inevitable Rather it is often a deliberate highly strategic decision on the author s part Throughout his analysis Adams s standard is not literal accuracy but personal authenticity He attempts to resolve some of the paradoxes of recent autobiographical theory by looking at the classic question of design and truth in autobiography from the underside with a focus on lying rather than truth Originally published in 1990 A UNC Press Enduring Edition UNC Press Enduring Editions use the latest in digital technology to make available again books from our distinguished backlist that were previously out of print These editions are published unaltered from the original and are presented in affordable paperback formats bringing readers both historical and cultural value

Being and Becoming European in Poland Marysia H. Galbraith,2015-03-15 Overthrowing communism in 1989 and joining the European Union in 2004 the Polish people hold loyalties to region country and now continent even as the definition of what it means to be European remains unclear Paying particular attention to those who came of age in the earliest years of the neoliberal and democratic transformations this book uses the life story narratives of rural and urban southern Poles to reveal how being European is considered a fundamental component of being Polish while participants are simultaneously becoming European Ultimately this study demonstrates how the EU is regarded as both an idea and an instrument and how ordinary citizens make choices that influence the shape of European identity and the legitimacy of its institutions Unrequited Time James McCurrach,2011-09 James C McCurrach was born in Brooklyn New York and was the namesake of a self made business success story He had a privileged upbringing that included a succession of private schools culminating in a B A from Brown University in Providence R I He traveled a circuitous route as an adult a journey that included tennis a Vice Presidency at the former Bankers Trust Company in New York City as well as the principal in a New York restaurant After many personal hurdles he finally succeeded in his original goal of a teaching career Additionally his work assisting foreign students in the English language resulted in the publication of two English textbooks for English beginners in Japan and Korea He is a former squash racquets champion with numerous top ten rankings in various age categories He resides in San Francisco with his partner of 29 years This Memoir is dedicated to P Justin Jacobs for his loyalty support and continuing encouragement A troubled youth in search of direction finds himself groping to find his place despite numerous obstacles centering about his Father looking for a duplicate Such are some of the problems facing James C McCurrach Jr as he passes through his early childhood years and the social upheavals encountered on the path to a new century All of this is complicated by his growing uncertainty of his sexual proclivities at a time when homosexuality was ridiculed and considered a deviancy beyond the pale At the same time his Fathers influence was a constant presence that would lead to a series of disasters both socially and financially Despite trying to throw off his Father s yoke there remained a continuing need to please him and establish some sort of positive approval resulting in a series of tumultuous relationships and career moves His Mom had always told the youngster that he would be a late bloomer and indeed that prediction would come to pass as in his later years the teaching profession would provide the purpose and rewards that had long eluded him

Muscle and Manliness Axel Bundgaard, 2005-07-11 Axel Bundgaard has produced a meaningful work on the important but little told history of interschool athletics exploring the introduction and nature of sport in the controlled environment of the American boarding school Beginning in the late eighteenth century American educators looked to the English public school as the educational archetype for producing good men good Christians and good leaders The British incorporation of sport into the process of education however took root only slowly in the United States where it seemed alien to Puritan values extolling hard work and deploring play as wasted time Only when educators were convinced that sport was an essential tool in the process of raising the next generation by building character team spirit and leadership did the informal physical play initiated by students in early schools begin to evolve toward the highly organized school sponsored sports of today Using archival material from several eastern boarding schools founded in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries Bundgaard traces this process from its beginnings in the muscular Christianity prevailing in the boarding schools of Victorian England most notably Rugby There athletics and the prefect system older boys shaping the manners and morals of younger ones were used to mold youth into Christian gentlemen and it was believed that the seeds of future military victories were planted on the school playing fields Bundgaard shows how this model of sport and character building was gradually absorbed into the classical curricula of private education in America and then continues to chronicle the dramatic changes in this model through the first decade of the twentieth century as educational philosophies evolved and an ideal of physical vigor and conduct befitting a gentleman emerged Drawing on archival sources at Groton Andover Exeter St Paul's Suffield Williston Woodberry Forest and Worcester Academy interviews personal communications school newspapers and histories of various institutions Bundgaard provides a new critical perspective on the evolution of play and sports for schoolboys This book will stimulate research on the broader subject of American secondary school athletics and pique the interest of sport historians educators and a general audience
