Mental Health And Well Being In

Later Life Cattani, Mima, 2009-05-01 Offers a look at the mental health and well being issues that affect adults in later life Taking a holistic approach to mental health and mental health promotion this book explores the debates around what is meant by mental health and mental illness and the wider social determinants of mental health Social Capital as a

Health Resource in Later Life: The Relevance of Context Fredrica Nyqvist, Anna K. Forsman, 2015-02-20 This book examines the social aspects of healthy ageing for older individuals It features more than 15 papers that explore the relevance of the social environment for health on the micro meso and macro level Overall the book applies a comprehensive contextual approach that includes discussion of how family and friends neighborhoods nations and welfare regimes influence health The book first explores the issue on the individual level It looks at the importance of social capital for health among older people examines types of social networks and health among older Americans as well as discusses dynamic social capital and mental health in late life Next the book looks at the issue through a neighborhood and societal context which takes into account day to day interaction in the immediate environment as well as the social health and economic policies in place in different regions in the world including America Europe Asia and Africa From there the book goes on to offer implications and recommendations for research and practice including the management of related concepts of research on well being and health It also offers a psychosocial approach to promoting social capital and mental health among older adults This book provides health professionals as well as researchers and students in gerontology sociology social policy psychology and social work with vital insights into the social factors that increase healthy life years and promote well being Studies of the Aged and Aging United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Labor and Public Welfare,1956 Health in the Later Years John M. MacLachlan,1953-12-12 Depression in Later Life Robert C. Baldwin,2014-02 Part of the Oxford Psychiatry Library series this concise pocket book provides an accessible account of how depression in older people presents why it is important and what treatments help Self Care in Later Life Gordon H. DeFries, Marcia G. Ory, PhD, MPH,1998-03-01 This volume is uncontestedly the most comprehensive and authoritative work on the subject of self care available to date It should set the stage for a new policy perspective on building a health care system that incorporates self care at its core Lowell S Levin Yale School of Public Health Practitioners and researchers who work with older adults are challenged to find ways to strengthen an elderly person's capacity to cope with age related changes that threaten independence This volume assesses the efficacy of self care in maintaining autonomy It applies a broad definition of self care that includes a range of behaviors undertaken by individuals families and communities to enhance health prevent disease limit illness and restore health Research Handbook on Inequalities in Later Life Catherine Earl, Philip Taylor,2024-06-05 This Research Handbook critically examines the myriad social and economic inequalities faced by those in later life Contributors dissect examples from the Global North and South to support a new approach to studying ageing that moves beyond popular discourses Mental Health in Later Life Alisoun Milne,2020-02-19 Focussing on mental health rather than mental illness this book adopts a lifecourse approach to understanding mental health and wellbeing in later life Well respected author and scholar Alisoun Milne explores the influences of lifecourse experiences structural inequalities socio political context history gender and age related factors and engages with new ways of thinking about preventing mental ill health and promoting mental health in later life Drawing together material from a number of different fields the book analyses the meaning and determinants of mental health amongst older populations and offers a critical review of the lifecourse ageing and mental health debate for students professionals policy makers and researchers Depression in Later Life Robert Baldwin,2010-02-11 Depression affects between 10-15% of older people making it the most frequently encountered mental health condition in later life Despite this the condition is easily missed in clinical practice or not adequately treated Part of the Oxford Psychiatry Library this concise pocketbook will provide an accessible account of what depression in older people is like why it is important and what treatments help The text will highlight which areas of depression are of special relevance to later life how to diagnose depression in an older person the overlap with dementia and various other physical illnesses and important pharmacological considerations Return Migration in Later Life John Percival,2013-07-24 The main objective of this edited volume is to explore the motivations decision making processes and consequences when older people consider or accomplish return migration to their place of origin and also to raise the public policy profile of this increasingly important subject The book examines in detail a range of themes affecting return migrations including family ties obligations and their emotive strengths comparative quality and cost of health and welfare provision in host and home countries older age transitions and cultural affinity with homeland and psychological adjustment belonging and attachment to place Mental Health and Later Life John Keady,Sue Watts,2010-09-13 The mental health needs of older people are all too often overlooked or put down to the inevitable effects of old age This textbook will make it much easier for health professionals to identify treat and support the needs of this vulnerable group Congregate Housing for Older Adults Marie McGuire Thompson,1975 Age as an Equality Issue Sandra Fredman,Sarah Spencer,2003-07 Until recently age discrimination attracted little social opprobrium However ageism has now been thrust onto the equality agenda by the spectre of an ageing population This has led to a range of policies on active ageing Most importantly legally binding legislation prohibiting age discrimination in employment will need to be in place by 2006 Remarkably little attention has been paid to the key issues To what extent is age inevitably linked with declining capacity What are the central aims of a policy on age equality and how can these be realised in law How should law and policy address age discrimination in health education and employment What lessons can be learned from the US and Europe And should young people be dealt with in the same way as older people This book answers these questions in a series of chapters by experts from a wide range of disciplines It begins by examining the nature of the ageing process and then turns to a detailed analysis of the concept of age equality In the light of this analysis the following three chapters critically assess employment education and health A separate chapter is devoted to discrimination against children The last two chapters consider the experience in the US and other European countries Handbook of Development Economics Hollis Burnley Chenery,J. Behrman,T.N. Srinivasan,1988 Handbooks of development economics edit Chenery v 1
