Parker,2024-08-28 A History of the Roman World from A D 138 to 337 1958 looks at the last centuries of the Roman Empire from the rule of Hadrian and his policy of consolidation of the Roman Empire halting its further expansion to the reign of Constantine and the rise of Christianity Jesus the Rabbi Prophet Jacques Baldet,2005-08-16 Restores the historical context of the gospels and the Jewish nature of the message of Christ Uses the latest historical findings to explore the life of Jesus in its true historical setting Shows that Jesus was a Jewish teacher who sought to restore dignity to the ostracized members of his society The canonical gospels were in large part written by authors who were not eyewitnesses to the events they described and their writings were slanted to fill the needs of the new Church As a result a huge gulf exists between the Christ of the Christian church and the historical Jesus In Jesus the Rabbi Prophet scholar and historian Jacques Baldet seeks to restore the historical context and true nature of the Jewish society in which Jesus lived and through which his actions assume on an entirely different meaning The research of modern historians has shed much new light on the historical circumstances at work in Judaea and the Roman provinces that Jesus knew Looking at the life of Jesus in its broader historical setting has given Jacques Baldet answers to many of the questions that have puzzled historians such as when did Jesus really live and what was the true nature of his family convictions and spiritual beliefs From this vibrant and highly informed perspective the deeper story of the man from Galilee emerges Rabbi Jesus was both a Jew imbued with the monotheistic teaching of the Torah and a visionary who preached of the kingdom within Viewed in their proper historical context the Stations of the Passion and Christ s betrayal by Judas and death on Calvary take on a new light Baldet shows that the true life and original message of Jesus were concealed beneath the literary creations that primarily reflected the agenda of the early Church Jesus was not trying to start a new religion He was a Jewish teacher who sought to reform the faith of his fathers by restoring dignity to the unfortunate and ostracized members of his society Tertullian, On Idolatry and Mishnah Avodah Zarah Stephanie E. Binder,2012-11-13 This work studies and compares systematically the text of Tertullian an African Church Father of the third century CE on idolatry with the rabbinic Mishnah Avodah Zarah on the same subject dating roughly from the same period Similarities and differences between the Jewish and Christian approaches to idolatry are examined and accounted for The research is inscribed in the wider framework of discussions on the parting of the ways between Jews and Christians It also addresses related questions such as the role of the rabbis in second and third century Judaism in the Land of Israel and in the Diaspora relations between Jews living in those places interactions between Jews and

French Historians in the Nineteenth Century F.L. van Holthoon,2019-05-22 This study is a reflection on the major historians of nineteenth century France and shows that near the end of the century a major change of perspective occurred The historians discussed in the opening sections of the book looked to the past for guidance while modern historians from the twentieth century onwards regard the past as a closed book which the historian has to open Guizot is the hero of the first section of the book in part two Comtesse d Agoult Daniel Stern is specifically mentioned partly because she who wrote a splendid history of the revolution of 1848 tends to be ignored as a historian while Michelet and Tocqueville are still discussed The historians in part three are transitional figures who politically and morally still belong to the nineteenth century but whose histories show the new approach to the past
